THE DRAFT—SUBSTITUTES.

The following correspondence may prove interesting to drafted men:

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 22, 1863.

Dear Sir—In reply to your inquiry in regard to the interpretation of the ordinance appropriating $300 for the purpose of aiding drafted persons in procuring substitutes, I would say that the best information I can obtain from the authorities is—

That the only liability to the party who procures a substitute is in the interim between the time the Provost Marshal accepts the substitute and the time he is mustered into the United States service, at Concord, during which time I understand every possible precaution will be taken for the safety of said substitutes by the Provost Marshal; that they will be sent to Concord, to be mustered in, every afternoon, and that none will be accepted after the departure of the train. The city, as will be seen by the following note from the Mayor, considers itself liable for the $300 as soon as the substitute is mustered into the service at Concord, no matter if he should decamp or die an hour after said mustering.

Truly, your obedient servant,
J. E. RIDER.

To C. W. Marden, Esq., and others.

To John E. Rider, Esq.:

Dear Sir—The city will pay the $300 bounty to any person who shall present to the Mayor an order, properly witnessed, from the drafted man or substitute for that amount, accompanied by a certificate from the United States mustering officer that said drafted man or substitute has been duly mustered into the service of the United States; payment to be made ten days after said mustering.

JONA. DEARBORN, Mayor.

☞ The drafted men in Gosport, New Castle, and Ward 3, Portsmouth, were notified to appear at the Provost Marshal's office in this city on Monday, for examination. 100 reported, of whom 46 were exempted and 38 accepted. Of those accepted, 1 paid $300, 12 furnished substitutes, and 25 were granted until Thursday, to furnish substitutes or pay commutation.

☞ Will the Portland Press please inform its readers that the city authorities of Portsmouth did not wait until Thursday morning before sending in search of the escaped pirates; but sent out two parties on Wednesday night, immediately upon receiving intelligence of the arrival of the suspected men at Hampton? The party on Thursday morning, who were so near when the "yacht" was captured by the cutter, was only one of four or five sent out. The Press item gives a different impression.

☞ Mr. Charles E. Edny, a member of Co. K, 16th N. H. Regiment, died at his father's residence, in this city, on Monday, of typhoid fever. He was apparently well when he returned with the regiment, a little more than a week ago.

☞ Mr. C. Coffin Haley, of this city, a member of the 47th Massachusetts Regiment, returned home a day or two ago since.

☞ Acting Paymaster W. D. Churchill is ordered to screw steamer Nipsic, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

☞ It will be seen that Mazzoni and Dick Sands' Excelsior Troupe, which has gained considerable reputation in its line, by performances in other cities, will give a concert at the Temple this (Tuesday) evening.

☞ We are indebted to Geo. N. Carleton, Esq., from Memphis,—who is spending a few days in this city—for Memphis papers of a late date.

☞ A grand Chowder Party, at the Shoals, is advertised for to morrow, if fair weather. Everybody knows that Andrew Davis can make a good chowder.

Dr. Dessauer has arrived in this city, and those desiring his services should call on him early, as he will remain only until Saturday.

☞ A letter from the Chief of Beauregard's staff states that the Union negro soldiers captured at Morris Island are still held as prisoners, subject to the orders of Gov. Benham of South Carolina, who has requested their retention in military custody until he can make arrangements to dispose of them according to the act of the rebel Congress.

☞ Two countries may be said to feed the rest of the world—the United States and Russia. And yet we find the Western Powers ungratefully endeavoring to sap the strength and cripple the resources of these two nations, even at the risk of starving their own people.

☞ Gen. Hooker is expected to resume active service on the 1st of September, either in a separate command or as commander of a corps in the Army of the Potomac.

☞ Gen. Gilmore has addressed a letter to the New York editors, requesting their aid in preventing the publication of certain specified items of military intelligence from his Department.

☞ One of the drafted men from Bath, Me., who was lately exempted, brought forward a substitute, saying that he thought every man ought to go himself or furnish a better man.

☞ Last Saturday the Mississippi river was dyed the deepest green, and the surface of the water overspread with a thin scum of the same color. It has been in this remarkable condition for several days, and no one is capable of giving a reason for it. The matter perplexes the oldest steamboatmen, who declare that they never behold anything like it before.

☞ The Sub-Treasury in New York is paying off the last gold loan, and in a short while will be in a condition to drop a million or two into the market. Go in, shorts.

DEATHS.

In this city, Aug. 18th, WILBUR A. HANSCOM, aged 2 months and 17 days, only son of Justin Hanscom.

In Hospital, at Buffalo, N. Y., BENNETT LAIGHTON, aged 20 years, a member of Co. K, 16th N. H. Regt., son of Benj. D. Laighton, Esq., of Strafham, N. H.

PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ A little Irish boy of about 8 years of age, found in Lawrence, Mass., on Wednesday, a draft drawn by a banking house in San Francisco, Cal., on another banking house in New York, for $20,000.

☞ A letter from China states that some of the Imperial soldiers took seven rebel prisoners—after piercing their eyes out with arrows, they saturated their clothes with oil, then applying fire, roasted the men alive.

☞ The Portland Press states that although some of the farmers report occasional symptoms of rust on potatoes, the indications now are that the crop will be large and of an unusually good quality.

A GOOD APPETITE.—A son of the "Green Isle" entered friend Ingersoll's a few days since, seated himself at a table, and inquired; "Ave ye any fish?"

"We have some very nice Halibut," said the attentive waiter.

"Halibuts, Halibuts," repeated Pat, "Vot the divil kind of fish bees they? Niver mind—give us a couple of 'em."—Portland Argus.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of millions of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With fresh, cool, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary, in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints which originate from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. These cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that everybody may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; for they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing, or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and the oven heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin water-pipe, connected, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The Stove is regulated by the same method as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it is unequaled, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used a respiration, it is found to produce healthier results than complained of in other Furnaces, so entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some patented, little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through tubes, which ignite them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will assign from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most offensive sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. WEDNESDAY AUG. 26 1863. NO. 47

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

BISHOP ROSECRANS.—The Catholics of Springfield, Ohio, celebrated the Feast of the Assumption, on Saturday, and in the evening Bishop Rosecrans delivered a public address in the City Hall. A dispatch from Springfield says:

"It has been generally understood that the Bishop would speak directly on the topics of the times, but he gave to the audience, composed chiefly of members of his church, a metaphysical lecture, evidently suggested by public affairs of general moment.

He declared liberty and law inseparable; defined liberty to be the free exercise of that which is right; declared the observance of just law the fulfillment of liberty, and insisted upon the obligation of the people to observe law because it was ordained of God. The indulgence of passion was an abuse of liberty, and the obligation to observe law was not contingent upon men's opinion, but upon its justice and necessity to the safety of society or the security of the State.

In conclusion the Bishop said his sympathies were with the men who were fighting in the Union army; his dearest friends stood among them or had fallen on the field of battle, and he was sure the humblest one who fell for the Union cause did not fall in vain."

☞ The following is from the "History of the Siege of Port Hudson," by a rebel officer, now publishing in the New Orleans True Delta, and refers to the battle of the 27th of May. The reader can draw his own inferences:

A couple of negro regiments, with a line of white troops behind them, came up through a growth of young willow trees to the edge of the clearing, a distance of between six and seven hundred feet from a rifle pit we had dug along the bluff which came out at that place. They were fired into by a small party of skirmishers in the woods on their flank and from the thinly lined rifle pit in their front, with a couple of small mountain howitzers which we had there. They broke at our fire and clustered behind the willow trees, apparently too panic-stricken either to advance or run. Our shots tore the fragile willows into fragments, and the splinters were thrown up as dangerous as our fire, so that they were stricken down with great havoc. On account of the line of white troops behind them, they probably had some difficulty in getting away, but in fifteen minutes after they first appeared none of them were to be seen except the dead and those who were too badly wounded to crawl off, and these, some two hundred and fifty in number, could be plainly seen through a spyglass, among the willows. The nearest of their dead to our rifle pits were two hundred yards distant. This was the last we saw of negro troops at Port Hudson.

☞ A mountain ash tree in Portland, Conn., was a year ago grafted with a pear scion and this year bears an abundance of pears.

☞ A claim of $5000 has been put in by a woman in New York for the loss of her husband, shot by one of the National Guard.

☞ A New York paper says the genuine copperhead platform is, "The Union as it was under Buchanan, the constitution as it is under Jeff Davis."

☞ The Macon Telegraph says that "the rebel currency is getting some hard knocks. A one dollar greenback is worth eleven dollars of Confederate money."

☞ A man in St. Louis put his head in a pail of water and drowned himself to avoid conscription.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1863.

Fort Sumter is ours! Richmond papers announce its fall on the 23d. The fort was very nearly destroyed before its surrender. Gen. Gilmore demanded the surrender of Charleston, but Beauregard refused to comply. Gen. Gilmore gave time for non-combatants to retire, and it is said commenced to shell the city on Monday. But the old flag waves over Sumter!

THE REBELLION.

Maj. Gen. Peck has arrived at Newbern and assumed command of the Union forces in North Carolina.

One of the direct results of the Vicksburg campaign has been the capture or destruction of 77 locomotives and 600 cars.

28 bodies have been buried at Lawrence, Kansas. The farmers are arming and joining Gen Lane, in his sharp pursuit of Quantrell. A Leavenworth dispatch states that Quantrell was overtaken near the State line and twenty of his men killed.

A rebel paper gives a rumor that the rebel Jackson's cavalry dashed into Yazoo city, Miss., about the 7th, and killed 200 negro troops.

Steam transports at New York bring Charleston dates to midnight, Friday. The bombardment of Sumter still continued, and the south wall had been demolished almost to its base. Forts Wagner and Gregg, and other rebel batteries replied at short intervals. An expedition was fitting out to endeavor to silence the James Island batteries. Our casualties had been small.

☞ A burglar broke into the millinery establishment of James W. Coverly, over Harris & Chapman's apothecary store, Boston, early on Monday evening, by letting himself down with a rope through a skylight. Mr. Coverly happened to be in the store, and on demanding why the burglar was there, at the same time following him towards a rear door, which was not fastened, the fellow drew a pistol and fired, the ball entering Mr. Coverly's right cheek, but not seriously injuring him. The rogue then rushed down stairs, but was subsequently taken by the police. The burglar was 19 or 20 years old, and is supposed to have had an accomplice.

☞ The guerrillas who have lately robbed and burnt the city of Lawrence, Kansas, killed its inhabitants and then fled, are said to the inhabitants of a neighboring part of Missouri, bitterly pro-slavery, and to a considerable extent the same persons who attacked and destroyed the same city a few years ago, because it would be a free and not a slave city.

This outrage, like the great rebellion itself, is a war of ideas; the collision of opposite principles.

It is said that all radical military officers in Kansas, were relieved some time ago, and their conservatives took their places: the guerrillas being "conservatives" also, took notice and acted accordingly.

☞ The rebel newspapers in North Carolina and Virginia clamor loudly for the suppression of the Raleigh Standard, the official paper of North Carolina, which bids defiance to Jeff. Davis and all the destructives in the Southern Confederacy. Its circulation is said to be larger than that of any other journal in the South, and is rapidly increasing, which, together with the endorsement of its course by public meetings in different parts of the State, indicates that it but expresses the wishes of the people of North Carolina. Its columns are open to the ablest writers in the State, and their statesman-like articles against Secession are unanswerable.

☞ The New York Herald's London letter, by the Great Eastern, says that three rebel iron-clads are ready for sea. It is generally supposed that the blockading fleet will be first attacked; but from information founded on good basis, it is feared the first dash will be made on New York. The London Times' correspondent, writing from Richmond, says the Yankee fleet will make themselves scarce off the blockade ports after the first of September.

☞ Com. Rodgers belongs to Connecticut and to a family which had distinguished itself in the field and on the quarter deck. He was universally reputed to be a skillful and gallant officer.

☞ A colored man picked up in a boat at sea, said he was the only one saved from the U. S. brig Bainbridge, which foundered Aug. 21, in a hurricane.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— In the recent attack on Sumter, Paymaster J. Gordon Woodbury, of the Monitor Catskill, was killed by a shot from Fort Wagner. He could not endure to remain in the ward room during the attack, but was determined to see all that was going on so far as possible. He said if killed he should fall with the consciousness of being engaged in the country's cause. He was the son of the late Peter P. Woodbury of Bedford. He formerly read law in the office of Herman Foster, Esq., of Manchester.

—— Capt. Hiram Rollins, of Dover, has been appointed a Captain in the U. S. Invalid Corps.

—— Dr. W. Wilkins, of Bedford, has received the appointment of Assistant Surgeon of the 10th regiment, and will leave immediately for the field.

—— Capt. Sanborn, of the 16th regiment, died very suddenly at his house in Franklin, on Sunday evening. He called for a drink of water, and before his wife could hand it to him he had breathed his last.

HQUAS., 2d N. H. V., Dist. St. Mary's, Point Lookout, Md., Aug. 15.

His Excellency, J. A. Gilmore, Governor of New Hampshire:

Sir:—I became the recipient yesterday, of the noble and patriotic resolutions by the honorable, the General Court of New Hampshire, and approved by your Excellency. They were promulgated at Dress Parade last evening to my command. I can assure you they struck the right chord; they have the true ring and fell upon the ear like pleasant music. We feel justly proud of our glorious little State, for as now she has ever stood firm in support of the best Government which ever existed, and we, whose duty and privilege it has been to wield the sword of chastisement, can appreciate these noble sentiments and earnest pledges of fidelity. We feel this renewal of faith and support is opportune now, when the armies are gathering for the final blow, and would extend you the hand of congratulation upon these resolves so honorable and well timed.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, ED. L. BAILEY,
Col. 2d N. H. Vols.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.—The Louisville Journal has returns from the entire State, except one county in the Third district, six counties in the Eighth, and five in the Ninth. It says that the aggregate vote of the State will be about 130,000. The vote last Presidential election was 147,216; and considering the numbers from the State with the rebel armies, a full vote has been cast. In all the Congressional districts large majorities have been cast for the Union candidates—none lower than 2213, and running upward to 7870.

General Green Clay Smith, one of the Congressmen elect, addressed a mass meeting at Hamilton, Ohio, some days since, in the course of which he said:

"Kentucky is a slave State, and voted against Lincoln. He was not here as an advocate of Lincoln. He had always been a Douglas Democrat, and was to day a slave owner, and yet was denounced as an abolitionist by the Louisville Journal and others. He was happy to say that there was five thousand abolition majority in his district.

The speaker considered the charge that the war was waged for the destruction of slavery untrue, for Kentucky stands to day a slave State; so it is with Maryland and Delaware. Not one of their institutions have been interfered with by the government; emancipation was not effected in these, because their integrity is maintained and they have stood by the government, and so the government has stood by them.

The speaker than gave the reasons slavery was interfered with, which are familiar to all, and gave his own position on slavery in Kentucky. In reference to the Emancipation proclamation, he said he and probably all the people in Kentucky were opposed to it because it might affect Union men. But it has been issued—what shall we do? Revolt! No! There is not power enough—wisdom, intrigue or rarcality enough to take Kentucky out of the Union. We say to-day, that if Ohio doesn't stand up to the cause Kentucky will whip her into it.

In the same manner they had been opposed to negro regiments, yet still would stand by the government; put down rebellion, and remedy evils at the ballot-box.

Those anxious for peace can have it tonight. Let the rebels lay down their arms, deliver over their leaders to be hung to-morrow, and they can have peace. Until this is done, though he would rejoice with tears of joy over the day of peace, never would he lay down his arms."

ANOTHER NOBLE EXAMPLE.—Mr. Jas. H. Schneider of Bridgewater, Mass., having been drafted, has resigned his position as first assistant teacher in the State Normal School of Bridgewater, and responds to the call of his country in person. For this purpose he has declined the offer of a tutorship at Yale College, to which he has just been elected, and where he graduated three years since at the head of his class, numbering over one hundred. Mr. Schneider is a native of Turkey, son of Rev. Dr. Schneider, our successful missionary at Aintab, and has been expecting to return to Turkey as a missionary. He goes as a private and takes with him a younger brother as a volunteer.

☞ Capt. John McKinnon, of Rockland, Me., commander of the bark Emily Banning, was shot at Shanghai, China, on the 24th of May, by a secession sympathizer named Buckley. He lived but a few hours.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

But our chiefest excursion this summer was a visit to the Shoals, last week; and for an opportunity to bear testimony to the good courage and good nature of a party of ladies, till then strangers to us, we shall jot down a word of its adventures. Wind and tide did not favor the good packet Sibyl, (that's the way she spells her name) so, though we were in advance of her advertised sailing time, we and our comfortable friend Niles, of Boston advertising celebrity, had to avail ourselves of Card's Newcastle express wagon, and get on board the vessel at Fort Constitution, where she had dropped down to clear the up tide.

The sail out was very fine, her course laying directly out in less than an hour—but there ends our first lesson and all our smooth sailing. Dinner at the Appledore House was so-so, with a large company; then "Jem", from Caswell's Atlantic House, took us to Gosport, where we spent a couple of foggy days as agreeably as could be expected. There was a very agreeable company at the Atlantic, and the host and attendants always do all in their power to render guests at home—and Rev. Mr. Beebe (or Rev. Dr. Beebe, as our friend called him, seeing he is physician both for the body and the soul of the Shoalers) was as courteous and attentive as usual to visitors to his realm.

There is no other place in creation just like the Isles of Shoals; and every traveller or resident in this region ought to visit them. One singularity only will we refer to now which is, the repeated and reiterated statement of our friend Beebe, and all the Gosporters, that the islands are still undergoing vital changes in their organic structure or situations; inasmuch as they insist that the top of Appledore House (which is situate in a valley behind a hill, as seen from Gosport) is each year rising more and more in view! From which they reason or infer that, since there has been no alteration in the height of that renowned building, either Star Isle must be steadily rising, or Appledore as certainly lowering, or the valley, the site of the house, rising. The oldest inhabitants also say that the tides do not rise relatively so high on Gosport as formerly.

We are glad to learn from Mr. Beebe, that a handsome monument is at last to be erected at Gosport to the memory of the great John Smith, who in 1602 discovered the group of islands now called the Isles of Shoals, and called them "Smith's Isles"—a name of which neither he nor they should ever have been robbed. A gentleman (unknown even by name to us) who appreciates the memory of that truly remarkable man, has contributed handsomely for this object; and the design is, to put up a marble shaft, suitably inscribed, on the highest point of Star Island, where it will be widely visible at sea. The base will be of granite; and the shaft, which will be triangular, will bear three sculptured Turk's heads, one on each face, which every school boy will at once see the significance of.

Finding the weather and the mosquitoes would not clear off, we concluded to take the Sibyl in, on Friday, or to let the boat take us in. But "ah, luckless boast!" the craft didn't make her appearance out at all, in any kind of season; so, after various delays and hesitations of the party or parties who wished to get on land once more, "Jem" took about fifteen precious souls on board his open whaleboat, and between four and five o'clock of that foggy afternoon, started for Portsmouth.

The wind was light, and the tide running out—so we made slow progress; and then the fog shut down, and by-and-by when night shut in, our position was somewhat dubious, and our course pokerish enough, but for skipper Jem's compass.

But we could not fail to observe the giant figure of a man—a black man too, which stands clearly and well defined on the sea-side of Whale's Back lighthouse—being formed, when you come nearer, of the new fog-bell, and apparatus, mostly.

On we pushed, or "pulled," rather, being obliged to apply ourselves to the oars at last—and presently the rain descended, and the floods came indeed, and beat upon that unlucky boat and its defenceless load of ladies and gentlemen; and the lightnings flashed, and the thunders roared — all forming a magnificent display of nature in her grandest mood. But fortunately the winds did not arise, though more than once we made snug all sail in preparation for squalls; and at last we turned Fort Point. But our wind was most gone, too—all of us being pretty well blowed with rowing—and at this Point we seemed bound to stick, or be swept outside again. And didn't the rain pour, eh? But never a murmur was heard, from sea-sick men or any of the half dozen ladies on board—which last were proved worthy to be the wives of Spartans, or better yet, of American patriots. At last, by putting four men to each oar, the fierce tide was stemmed, and all landed on the wharf at Fort Constitution—where quarters were speedily furnished the dripping party, and good fires provided, and every courtesy and attention showed by the officers and soldiers of the garrison.

Finally, Card's wagons were again put in requisition, and about 9 o'clock the drowned-outs were safe at home in this city, we hope none the worse for their adventure. But all hands are determined to—well, to make the best of the matter always, whatever it is, and to meet at the Shoals again next year.

☞ The Philadelphia Press has a letter from off New Inlet, N. C., giving an account of the destruction of the British steamer Hebe, by the U. S. steamer Niphon, on the 18th inst. One of the Niphon's boats was swamped and her crew captured by the rebels, who lined the shore, firing on the boats charged with the destruction of the Hebe after she was run ashore.

☞ The Calais, Me., Advertiser says, "while prayer was being held in the Methodist vestry on Sunday evening last, some miserable scoundrel threw a small dog through the window into the vestry, smashing four pains of glass, together with the sash, and then fled."

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette of the 22d instant says it has information from various sources that the movement against Mobile is to take place under Gen. Banks. It is sure to transpire, and the result is not doubtful. Even the rebels do not look for any long protracted defence. Report also says that Gen. Grant is largely reinforcing Gen. Banks' army for the siege.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
[L. S.] CONCORD, August 19, 1863.

For the information of all interested, it is here by announced, that the draft is made according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, or so—districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The District Provost Marshals have nothing to do with the claims of the different towns for men heretofore furnished. But, when the Governor shall make it appear to the Provost Marshal General, that particular towns have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a number of men called into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged before leaving the State.

The FALL TERM will commence on MONDAY, Aug. 31st, and continue eleven weeks.—For further particulars application may be made to the Principal. J. COLBY, Sec'y.

Hampton, August 7, 1863.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy through for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest good from of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long lists of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be secred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, or all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declaration by trial results.

Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notices be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Local.

☞ In accordance with orders received by the Provost Marshal in this city, from the War Department, on Tuesday, no further public statements of the special disease or imperfection of exempts will hereafter be made. Accordingly, as will be seen in our lists for yesterday, the only cause given is the general one of "disability."

☞ A Kittery correspondent informs us that a boat was upset near the Navy Yard, Monday night at 10 o'clock, in the act of jibing, and three sailors were spilt into the water, having been ashore where something stronger was sold and drank. Sober men from a vessel near by, put out in a boat and picked up the men. Our correspondent mourns over the fact that many men spend their earnings in the dens of drunkenness and vice; and over the other fact that such dens exist on both sides of the river.

☞ Capt. William O. Sides left this city Aug. 18, in the noon train, and proceeded to Washington and reported for duty, on Thursday, the 20th. He was assigned to the 39th company of the First Battalion, Invalid Corps, and was ordered to report, with his company and also the 42d, to Maj Townsend, of the 18th U. S. Infantry, at Albany, N. Y. He left Washington on the evening of the 20th, and reached Albany on Saturday afternoon, in command of the 39th and 42d companies, U. S. Invalid Corps.

☞ James Mitchell, Daniel Watkins, and James E. Walker, of this city, members of Co. K, 16th N. H. regiment, have recently died at Vicksburg, having been left there on account of sickness when the regiment came home.

☞ Mr. John Higgins, of this city, a member of Company K, 16th N. H. Regiment, is dangerously sick at Buffalo, N. Y. Rev. J. H. Gilmore and P. B. Coggswell, of Concord, have been to Buffalo, having been sent on by Gov. Gilmore to care for the soldiers who have been left there and at different places along the route. They have started for Cairo, intending to stop at every place where our soldiers have been left.

☞ The Hedding Camp Meeting at Epping is attracting considerable attention, and the number of visitors thus far has been quite large.

☞ It will be seen that Mazzoni & Sands' celebrated troupe give their last concert in this city to night. Their audience was delighted with their excellent entertainment last evening.

Dr. Dessauer has arrived in this city, and those desiring his services should call on him early, as he will remain only until Saturday.

☞ The handsome young ladies who recently attended the tables at the Crystal Palace fair, near London, sold choice cigars to their admirers and obtained a great advance on the common price by simply biting off, first, the end to be placed in the smoker's mouth.

☞ The thieves have made a raid recently on the hotels at Newport, and plundered rooms and trunks of money and jewels to a considerable amount.

☞ Gen. Scott is spending the summer, as usual, at Cozzens Hotel, West Point.—It is said that he is engaged in preparing a memoir of his life and times.

☞ That excursion from Nashua to this city was productive of many strange incidents, judging from the accounts in the country newspapers, written by participants. For instance, one states that they went on board the schooner Mary Willey, for a trip down river, "but an out going tide and provokingly contrary wind prevented."

☞ Every house in Buena Vista, Wis., was blown down by a tornado on Friday last. Three persons were killed and fourteen wounded. A furious storm passed over Buffalo, N. Y., on Monday afternoon, unroofing houses, blowing down chimneys, &c.

☞ Shoe making is done extensively in Haverhill by the women. The Banner says they work in gangs of six or seven hands each, the same as most of the young men do; and make the shoe right straight out, from the lasting to the finishing.

HOW THE EARTH WAS FORMED.—I the reader, says the Providence Journal, after perusing the following description of the probable mode of the formation of the earth, given by an English scientific writer in a new volume, does not understand the process, he had better leave this "internal spherical vacuity," and go where bigger words are used: "A formal idea of the heaven and earth may be obtained by imagining the heaven as at first an effuvaint generation from a monocentral point, occupying, or creating and occupying space; the earth, as the arrest or end of such generative action, with the gradual relaxation of central tension and abnegation of such centre, the consequence being the formation of a huge internal spherical vacuity, termed in the Genetic record "earth."

☞ Gen. Geo. F. Shepley left Portland for Washington on Wednesday, where he will receive instructions and immediately depart for New Orleans.

☞ The office of the United States Express Company, in St. Louis, was robbed on Sunday night of nearly $60,000.

☞ The Salem post office was robbed on Sunday night of letters, &c.

He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hazard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not fear of our ever frowning, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

DEATHS.

In this city, Aug. 25th, after a long and severe illness, Mrs. ELIZA BOYNTON JOHNSON, aged 56 years, wife of Mr. T. B. Johnson, and formerly of Boxton, Me. A most devoted wife, whose loss will be severely felt at home.

PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine now in use, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. ☞ One should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

The Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one, if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR.

(Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. Since the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before offered.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

A JOKE.—A ragged looking rebel went into a Hessier's house during Morgan's raid, and got to putting on airs, telling the girls that he was John Morgan, and the old lady, who had "heard on him," fainted and rolled under the table. The girls keeled over against the wall, fell over the chairs, &c.—Sesh was about going into a cubboard, when a long sandy haired chap entered the room. "Who in h—ll are you?" said sandy eyeing him closely. "I'm told you've bogged the ole cow and squeezed the galls to death; I guess you'll better drop them pies and things." "I'zen things!" shouted the rebel, turning pale as he dropped a load of pies, corn-cakes, &c., which he "confiscated" and had been eating heartily of, "I'm a gone goslin," and dropped upon the floor. The girls fed him, and sandy and the old woman like to beat him to death, and then let him go.—Louisville Democrat.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and allows the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously evinced by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the evil of which God says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaint; on the skin, eruptive and loathsome affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and those dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. What it is far superior to any other remedy put forward, we know by all who have given it a trial. The it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, whereon may be learned the directions for use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to treat. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long said and so universally known that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those without purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask the public to remember the largest and best stock of Furnaces in Portsmouth, and to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, most and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache or other complaints so common in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing much improvement over former models, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off to the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of the air through the fire-pot, which induces them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large proportion of the heat generated, leaving the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell;	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. Yet when the artificial gum is used by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, even in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper then Gold.

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. Wm. Grace surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. THURSDAY AUG. 27, 1863. NO. 48.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

STRICT CONSTRUCTION.—The old Broker who writes so intelligently and interestingly in the Boston Commercial Bulletin, believes in strict honesty, and in calling things by their right names. He alludes to honesty and thieving, by their distinctive titles, no matter how covered up or sugared over. Hear an extract or two from his last week's instructive discourse or sermon. Speaking of the prevailing rage for speculation or gambling, he says:

Even the fathers in the church,—our guides, comforters, aye, "ghostly companions," so called,—have joined in the fearful race that ends but in sadness and despair. It is painful to see an aged Nestor in the Faith dashing round the Park with a light trotting team, vieing with the graceless parvenus that have bartered upon their country's blood, whistling to his dogs and chatting to the "artiste" by his side. Two years ago he would have gone down to the Pit itself ere he would have done such a thing; and now he is the gayest of the gay in that mad Vanity Fair. Upon Wall street he dabbles largely in stocks, and is as good a "bull" as ever tossed Erie or Harlem.

I have always felt sorry to see ministers of the gospel, and men who were very open in their professions of religion, indulging in stock speculation; and have generally imagined that there was a screw loose somewhere, which these ventures were intended to cover up.

I always remember the sad fate of Frederick W. Porter, Corresponding Secretary of the American Sunday School Union, who used to come down with that pale, anxious face of his and take a little "flyer" in Reading. What ages of exquisite torture he must have endured, with the corroding anxieties of years eating into his very vitals, until his great defalcations were exposed.

I regret to say that the entourage of the Brokers' Board reveals other similar cases of tempting Dame Fortune amongst those who should by their example lead us away from the vanities and mockeries of the world. One I wot of, who comes down from the Bible Society, and mingles with the "light artillery" to find out how stocks are likely to jump for the day; and then going back, sends down his "order to operate" as innocently as a cat in a closet.—These men but drink in the deeper damnation. The brokers who are now in daily intercourse with an eminent divine in New York, must know that the gay speculator, the fast driver, and the humble follower of the Lamb, cannot exist in the same persons. "Ye cannot serve God and Mammon."—"Choose ye, this day, which will ye serve, Baal or the Lord."

Speaking upon the same subject also, the stern, common-sense moralist of the N. Y. Ledger, referring to the great and dazzling fortunes made by recent speculations, says:

But there is another side to the picture, of which the world at large sees and knows very little. For every speculator that has been enriched by the late rocket-like rise in "fancy stocks," fifty have been beggared. If one could look into all the households that have been hopelessly impoverished through the stock gambling epidemic, which for the past year has prevailed among all classes and conditions, such spirits of success as we have referred to would seem a very meagre dividend upon the general investment.

THE REBELLION.

Quantrell's guerrillas have broken up into small bands, but our forces are still pursuing. No damage was done by Quantrell from the time our forces came up with him until he got out of Kansas. The pursuit was so close that he was compelled to abandon most of the horses he was leading and the goods stolen from Lawrence. He has lost about 70 men, having had 300 in all.

A cavalry force under Fitz Hugh Lee crossed the Rappahannock on Monday, 19 miles below Fredericksburg, with the loss of a number of privates, killed and wounded, and three engineer officers taken prisoners.

The position of Lee's army is now said to be this:

Ewell lies near Orange Court House, A. P. Hill near the Rapidan station, Longstreet's corps stretches from United States Ford to Fredericksburg and pickets the Rappahannock down to Port Royal. Lee's Headquarters lie about 2 miles beyond Orange Court House on the Gordonsville road.

The Richmond Whig, of the 20th, says the operations in the Pensacola Navy Yard look as if the Yankees are contemplating a movement on Mobile.

It is reported that the rebel Gen. Pemberton died at Selma, Ala., last week.

A rebel dispatch reports that the frigate Minnesota and six gunboats bombarded Fort Fisher, at Wilmington, N. C., on Sunday. The Union troops landed and destroyed the goods taken from the steamer Hebe, which ran aground near there some days previous. They also set the steamer on fire.

Our own accounts from Charleston to the evening of the 22d, state that Sumter was entirely demolished and had not responded for two days. Fort Moultrie had also been silenced. The Richmond Examiner states that the Federal forces opened fire on the city at midnight, Sunday, firing 15 and 8 inch Parrott shells. Non-combatants were leaving the city in continuous streams. It is a singular fact that during the terrible bombardment of Sumter and Wagner, Wednesday, not a man of Gen. Gillmore's command was hurt by the missiles fired from any of the rebel forts. Our naval and land batteries threw, according to estimate, between five and six thousand shot and shell on Wednesday. Sumter fired only about sixty times. All the guns on Fort Wagner were dismounted on Wednesday morning, and attempts to mount others during the day were foiled by the monitors.

The latest rebel Charleston accounts show that the firing on Fort Sumter was still continued on the 24th. From this it would appear that although the fort is a heap of ruins, it had not then been surrendered.

THE FALL OF FORT SUMTER.—The announcement of the fall of Fort Sumter—the birth-spot of the overt rebellion—is received with general rejoicing. Gen. Gillmore began his real attack on the 17th of August, and accomplished the reduction of the fort in less than one week, making easy work of his firing. It is not too much to say that the whole history of artillery firing does not record a more brilliant and wonderful achievement. Gen. Gilmore has in his possession the identical flag which waved over the fort until Major Anderson surrendered, on the 13th of April, 1861. It was sent to Gen. Gilmore, some time since, that it might wave once more over the fort.

CHARLESTON.—The obstructions in front of Fort Sumter comprise two vessels filled with water and keeled over, supposed to support a chain across the channel. There is also a cordon of barrels across the harbor from Sumter to Fort Moultrie. A recent letter says the captured rebel ram Atlanta was to be brought from Port Royal to take part in the fight. There are some very strong works in the city, Fort Johnson, an iron fort on the Middle Ground Shoal, and Fort Pickens, besides several batteries.

☞ The steamer City of Madison has been exploded at Vicksburg. She was being loaded with ammunition and had received nearly her full load, when a negro carrying a percussion shell on board let it fall, causing an instant explosion. The boat took fire, and the fire communicated to the ammunition on board, blowing the steamer to pieces. Out of the 160 men on board, four only are known to have escaped. The City of Madison was a large side-wheel steamer, owned by Capt. J. S. Neal, of Madison, Ind. She was worth about $40,000.

☞ A Boston firm have recently executed an order from Brigham Young for one of the largest organs in the country, to be erected in the great Mormon Tabernacle at Salt Lake City, which building will seat 15,000 people. Owing to the great cost of transportation, the case of the organ, and the 16 and 32 feet diapasons, are to be made and finished in the building under the supervision of a skillful workman, now en route.

Communication.

REPORTS of the State Treasurer, Railroads, Banks, Adjutant General, and Board of Trustees of the House of Reformation.—By the very acceptable courtesy of the Hon. Horton D. Walker, we were presented with the above reports, all of which seem to indicate a rigid regard to economy in this State, not common to all the States.—It would seem that the people of New Hampshire, in their public expenditures, are governed by their means, extracted from their granite bound soil and somewhat limited manufactories. And the legislature, whether controlled by one party or another, seems not only economical in expenditures but in time. We would not be an advocate of the long and desultory sessions of the Massachusetts "General Court," from the first of January to May. We think it is the opposite extreme of three or four weeks in hot weather in New Hampshire. One "drags its slow length along," and the other does things up in a hurry, and leaves others not done at all. It would seem that the wiser course would be between the two extremes. But as it seems to take time to change the established customs of any people, it probably will take fifty or more years before what seems a much-needed reform, in either State, will take place.

But to the reports; we have no knowledge that they are not all right, and if the legislators have had time, we hope that they have discharged their duties in giving each and all a thorough examination. We presume that all the reports have their importance, but the one which the writer has had opportunity to know something about is the report of the trustees of the House of Reformation for juvenile offenders.

Recently the writer stopped in Manchester, to look at and examine somewhat, the new city, and to notice improvements, if any, that would be likely to be introduced into a new place—among others the City Hall and its well arranged common council room, (which seemed the opposite of ours) and the fire apparatus, including the two steam fire engines, one of which was in play. On inquiry, the Mayor stated that the expense of their fire department was just: about one-half what it used to be with the hand engines; and as it has here been objected to the "steamers," that they were not suitable for salt water, the question was asked of one of the workmen, how it was; his reply was that "they made them for both salt and fresh water, but for salt water the iron was thicker."

After going through the city, we rode to the Reform School, and as we had no reason to bias our mind, we will only state our observations and impressions. We took a look first at the ground within our sight: it seemed to be sand knolls and gulches, and we thought that the State had paid for the renown of Stark instead of for good land for a productive farm; what kind of land was out of sight from the House, we have no knowledge of, but as the report speaks of tile draining, we presume a part of it is moist or wet. We then looked at the House outside, and saw a noble structure—certainly a great ornament to the location where the meandering of the Merrimac seemed the principal charm.

We entered the House and were politely received by the matron, and making known our desire to look at the institution, were invited to comply with the custom of visitors, and register our name. Then we were shown over the House, and informed of all we expressed a desire to know; and came to the conclusion, at that time, that inside of the House there was much wanting in arrangement and conveniences, which was needed for a model House. Expressing our convictions to the matron, she agreed. She said that they had often called the attention of the trustees to their needs; their reply was that they were aware of it, but the means to furnish the reasonable requirements was not in their possession, and "they must wait and try to get along till the State should make an appropriation." We could not help thinking what a contrast between our State institution and the one endowed by the poor, one-eyed cabin boy, Stephen Girard, of Philadelphia.

After looking at the interior of the House, we looked at the boys' play yard, and instead of green sward saw a bed of sand, and nearly the same kind of ground for girls, but of dreadful small dimensions, and situated between a very high house and a high fence, which admitted a small amount of free air, or sunshine. The boys and girls being in the same institution forcibly reminded us of the Hon. Daniel Marcy's proposition, when the institution was got up, that "if they would purchase two farms, one for each sex, he would go for it." If those who have the management of the institution are not already convinced of the wisdom of the proposition, we hope they will become so, and we recommend that a smaller farm be purchased and devoted exclusively to the girls. And let both be fitted as model institutions, from which the inmates may learn and copy. That such institutions are needed in our State none but the most wilfully blind can fail to see, or the most hardened and indifferent object to; and we hope that they will be not places of punishment for trifling offences, but what their name indicates, places for juvenile reformation. And how sad the thought, that there are so many orphan children, or those having parents worse than none, who are without sufficiently kind friends to care for and council them, on the road of life. B.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On Monday evening last while the conscript torch-light procession, was halting in front of the residence of Hon. J. P. Hale, Dover, the clothes of a boy named Dennis Cash, took fire by the upsetting of a kerosene lamp. The clothes were removed as soon as possible, but not until the boy was badly burned. At one time his life was despaired of, but it is now thought he will recover.

—— The Manchester American states that Capt. Sanborn, of the 16th regiment didn't die,—except in the newspapers. He is still at his residence in Franklin, but hopes to recover.

—— Bradbury T. Merrill, of Candia, went into the Navy in 1862, and, it is supposed, has since deceased. His father, Noah L. Merrill, is anxious to know where he deposited money and where his effects were left.

—— The 24th annual meeting of the American Institute of Instruction is being held at Concord this week.

—— Col. Walter Harriman has been reappointed Colonel of the 11th regiment, which position he recently resigned, and has left to join his command in Kentucky.

—— Paymaster Woodbury, killed at Charleston, was a New Hampshire man, the son of the late Hon. Peter P. Woodbury of Bedford, and a nephew of Hon. Levi Woodbury,—says the Patriot.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages in procuring Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the undersigned, and that SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond all question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity or a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and conscientious, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be correct having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on nine rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

R. H. EDDY.

Boston, Dec. 2, 1862. 3tawly

NEWINGTON, Aug. 22d.—Mr. Editor:—In your Gazette of to-day, we read, with some surprise, "that the beautiful grove of majestic old pine trees," &c., &c., "is to be cut down for navy timber." Now, Mr. Editor, will you please tell us how you knew all this, as we are particularly interested in the dear old grove. Respectfully yours,

THE H——s.

Well, our authority was no less than the illustrious B. P. S., of the Boston Sat. Eve. Gazette, who, we thought, ought to know all about Newington.—Ed. Chron.

Dr. Dessauer has arrived in this city, and those desiring his services should call on him early, as he will remain only until Saturday.

THEY ARE COMING BACK.—Hundreds of poor maimed fellows from the battlefields are limping and groaning at our doors. Now, what more Samaritan aid can be given the benevolent than a box (25 cts.) of Grace's celebrated Salve? A timely application of it may prevent many a foul ulcer, or cure those already established. For burns, scalds, fresh wounds, contusions, strains, bruises, vegetable poisons on the skin, insect bites and piles, Grace's Salve is a sovereign remedy. It contains nothing noxious, and it is already famous for its cures. See advertisement, in another column.

☞ A gentleman in New Jersey, named Speer, cultivates the Portugal Sambucus, a rare fruit, from which he makes an excellent wine, without the use of sugar or spirit, that is becoming celebrated among medical gentlemen in our large cities, and used in hospitals as a superior article. Physicians recommend it as an invaluable article for weakness and general debility. It is a very gentle stimulant, and at the same time a rich nutritive wine, possessing the virtues that make it valuable for sick wealthy people and for general family use. AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR some of our doctors say it is superior to port or other wines.—N. Y. Sup. Post.

Our Druggists have some that is four years old, direct from the vineyard in New Jersey. It is called Speer's Sambucus Wine, and the price is low, which brings it within the reach of all classes. It is said to be excellent for females, and has already been ordered by parties in Europe, who regard it superior to French wines.

WRECKS OF HUMANITY.—Why should they sink?—The excitement of "the chase" has always been supposed to have a healthful tendency; but there is a kind of chase which breaks down the constitution, debilitates the frame, and shortens life. We mean the heading, uninterrupting hunt after the "almighty dollar," which is the great business characteristic of the present day. It begets other evils (unnecessary to name) which precipitate the fate of thousands. There is, however, a possibility of recovery from the prostration produced by these causes, long after their victim has ceased to hope for it. If we are rightly informed, the most astonishing cures of what is called general weakness and debility, which have ever been known in this country, have been effected through the agency of Doctor HOLLOWAY'S inestimable remedies. Mere skeletons of men, out of whom the very principal of vitality seemed to have been drained, have been restored to health and vigor by the operation of the Pills; and of the Ointment, in case of paralysis, rheumatism, &c., we hear an equally favorable account. Times will break down their energies by over exertion—if, in their anxiety to "go ahead," they will override the most precious of God's blessings, health—it is well they should know how to repair the mischief, when they come at last to realize the fact of their premature decay. The wrecks of humanity, without any particular disease, appear to be sinking from mere exhaustion, would find, without doubt, immediate relief from Doctor HOLLOWAY'S remedies.—Phila. "Tribune."

STARTLING! BUT TRUE.—The Volunteers are braving the dangers of Fever, Scurvy, Wounds and Cholera. Many a gallant fellow will leave his bones to bleach, who, by the aid of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, would have returned to his family strong and healthy. Soldiers, try them! Only 25 cents per box or pot. 22tf

He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hazard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says it does not tear of our sweet flowing dough, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

State of New-Hampshire,

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
[L. S.] Concord, August 19, 1863.

For the information of all interested, it is hereby announced, that the draft is made according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, or sub-districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The District Provost Marshals have nothing to do with the claims of the different towns for men heretofore furnished. But, when the Governor shall make it appear to the Provost Marshal General that particular towns have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a number of men called into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged before leaving the State.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

EXE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest by day or night. Her hands were much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured her ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which cured her entirely. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have spoken of it to a great acquaintance, who were afflicted, and witnessed many just cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of Dr. Swett's Medical Compounds.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

FROM ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841. Dr. Swett—Permit me to express my gratitude, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that your previous to your visiting our houses in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly, by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26y

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy throughout the mild of Climatic cause, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notices may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Local.

☞ The engrossing topic of local interest, in this city and vicinity, this week, is the examination of drafted men; and their exemption, commutation, or sending of substitutes. But very few of the drafted appear to be entering the service themselves, "except by their agents"; and the price of substitutes is about $150, besides the city bounty of $300 per man.

Nearly all the substitutes are strangers—most of them,—Canadians and Irish chiefly, being furnished by Boston brokers, at a good round profit, no doubt; and some of the chaps, perhaps, intend to skedaddle if opportunity offers.

Many conscripts have been foolish enough to pay their substitutes, in advance of their being mustered into the service, not only the $100 or $200 bonus, but also the $300 which the city will not pay until ten days after the mustering in, and of course will not pay at all if the substitute runs away.

The substitutes are quartered at Jefferson Hall, under a strong military guard.—About twenty were taken to Concord and mustered into service, on Wednesday morning; and squads will be sent daily or oftener.

Two substitutes deserted, one of whom was captured, but the other cannot be found. A soldier, said not to be quite sober, who went with him to a barber's, allowed the substitute to go out a minute, and he hasn't been seen since! So that unlucky conscript, his principal, must whistle for his $300,—he having paid $400 in advance for his substitute,—unless he can find the skedaddler. Certainly no substitute ought to receive the city bounty till the city pays it; and if he is an honest, worthy man, he will not demand it. Look out for those who do.

MR. JAMES MITCHELL, of the 16th N. H. Regt., whose death at Vicksburg hospital we sadly chronicled yesterday, was a printer, having been for several years employed in this Chronicle office; and was an industrious, capable, and highly esteemed young man. From his very boyhood he was in our employ,—first as carrier, then as apprentice,—he having, we think, never worked for any other employer; and his loss seems to us like that of one of our own kin. Peace to his memory!

Young Edny, whose sudden decease after his return home, we have also recorded, was also for a long time one of the carriers of the Chronicle; and it does not increase our love for the rebels, to be thus repeatedly called upon to sacrifice "our boys," and others of those we love, to their infernal folly.

LOCAL HINTS.—Passing a few days in your city, I have been much pleased by the fine shade trees which adorn your streets, your pure fountain water, and the excellent condition of your side walks, streets and roads around the city.

I have been much annoyed by the practice of the obsolete custom of tolling the bells for every funeral—a practise of no use to the well, but tolerably sure to hasten the death of the sick;—much annoyed by the unique practise of keeping the city clock from five to ten minutes in advance of the true time and about as much in advance of the time kept by the railroads, which seems simply an absurdity—much annoyed by the huge holes at the edge of your most frequented side walks, which holes being made by the horses hitched from time to time at the posts, are diligently used by these animals in all wet weather, as means of splashing with mud unsuspecting travellers, and I think more especially ladies. Perhaps his Honor the Mayor or some of their Eminences the Aldermen may read this communication and if good result therefrom, it will gratify A STRANGER.

☞ The Examination of the drafted men at the Provost Marshal's office in this city, was continued on Tuesday, when the whole number examined was 68. Of these 47 were exempted, 21 accepted; and 7 of the latter furnished substitutes.

On Wednesday 69 were examined, 49 exempted, and 20 accepted. 12 furnished substitutes.

The examination of the drafted men will be continued from day to day, until it is ascertained how many of those who were called in Rockingham County, shall be chosen.

☞ The Dover Sunday News states that Samuel Webster of Dover, formerly of the 7th N. H., has been appointed 1st Lieut. in the Heavy Artillery Co. at Portsmouth.

☞ It will be seen that Mazzoni and Sands' Troupe will give one more entertainment in this city,—to-night. Sands' clog dancing is admirable, while Mazzoni's tricks are neatly and skillfully done, and the gymnast's performances add not a little to the attractiveness of the entertainment.

☞ The Method st annual camp meeting at Kennebunk, Me., is being held the present week. About 20 societies, with 27 tents, were represented on the ground, on Monday.

☞ The Young America Saloon is an excellent place to get an excellent oyster stew, for Hoyt & Trask know how to treat their customers well.

☞ The operatic Concert on Monday night, drew a select but not large audience—and the performances were what would of course be expected from such note d artistes. Lorini was herself on the occasion, which is always sufficient to say; and Morensi is really constantly improving in voice and appearance. Sconcia is one of the true violinists, and Mr. Marston accompanied well at the piano. The troupe are to perform at Mr. Weld's Hall, Rye Beach this evening. Success to them, and their gentlemanly agent, Mr. Hingston, who is also no mean artiste in his line.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. ...o family should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old kegs, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

Morning Chronicle.

FEDERALISM AND DEMOCRACY.—Thurlow Weed is a sagacious if not an entirely trustworthy politician, and has managed to cram a great amount of truth into an article published in the Albany Evening Journal, and entitled "Democracy Running to Seed." We copy a few of Mr. Weed's statements:

"I remember Federalism in its palmy condition, redolent of material and intellectual acquisitions—its Statesmen, Jurists and Lawyers towering up head and shoulders above their fellows. And I remember this party when its leaders, in sympathy with the enemies of their Country, began to drag it under, when, in Congress, in the Legislature, in its Journals, and finally in the Hartford Convention, language identical with the utterances of disloyal Democrats now, turned the people against them.

The letter of Mr. Bradbury, accepting the Democratic nomination for Governor of Maine, is an illustration of New England Federalism, rank and raw. The precise language is stereotype in the archives of Federalism. They preached it until the patriotic masses loathed Federalism and "spewed it out."

There is reason to fear the modern Democracy will share the fate of ancient Federalism. The proclivity of its leaders is in that direction. The sympathy expressed for Vallandigham, of whose disloyalty no man entertains a doubt, is besotted. The arrest of Vallandigham was a blunder, but that is forgotten in the stupid effort of the Democracy to make a martyr of him.

Here is another demonstration of sympathy for rebellion—nay, worse, for robbers and horse thieves:

Gen. Burnside Signalized Once More.—The Western journals are dwelling upon the honors Gen. Burnside rewins in his department, by having Gen. Morgan and his raid party shaved and imprisoned in the penitentiary. The pretenders, the public will remember, is retaliation for Col. Streight, who is in the Libby prison.

This is from the New York Express, one of whose editors is a democrat member of Congress. And this is the spirit which rules that journal. These things, I say, will run the democratic party under; for no party, be its antecedents what they may, can be unfaithful to the country DURING A WAR. The people unvaryingly and unerringly find out and take patriotic side. No matter if the Administration errs, falls short of its duty, or even exceeds its authority, the people will stand by their government.

WHITE SLAVERY.—Disguise it as we will, slavery is a bitter draught. In restoring the Union as it was, or as it will be, it is impossible to avoid discussing the question of free labor or slave, for whites no less than blacks, but more so. As to "seeing the Union reconstructed as of old," let us make a statement of naked facts, which we copy as follows from the N. Y. Tribune:

A prominent Democrat, who lives and does business in our city, (and whose name, not for publication but for the verification of this statement, is at the service of the World,) was induced some years since to buy an estate in Eastern Virginia, reputed rich in gold. He employed a foreman to develop it, hired twenty-five or thirty of the poor whites residing upon or adjacent to it to assist as laborers, and came here to attend to other business. But a few weeks had elapsed when he received a dispatch from his foreman, urging him to hurry back to Louisa County and help the said foreman out of trouble. He promptly obeyed, and, soon after reaching his estate, was waited upon by three gentlemen, who proclaimed themselves a committee from the neighboring proprietors, appointed to notify him that he must not employ white labor on his estate, but must hire or buy slaves.

He ventured to remonstrate—urged that he had imported no laborers into Virginia, that his men were all natives of the State and fixed residents of the vicinage, &c., but was cut short by the spokesman, (now the Rebel Gen. Jenkins,) with a curt reminder that they had not given him to forget the point—that it was not the policy of Virginia to encourage white labor where slaves were to be had—and that they only desired to know whether he proposed to comply with their demand or take the consequences of refusal. Here one of the white laborers, a respectable, worthy citizen, over fifty years old, who happened to be present or passing, ventured to interpose the query: "But what are we to do to support our families?" "Don't you know enough to hold your tongue?" responded the scion of chivalry, with such a look as he might have bestowed on a toad who had undertaken to lecture him on trigonometry.

The poor white was cowed into abject silence, the New Yorker said that he had no choice, so he submitted with the best possible grace, dismissed his white Virginians to their sorry huts and ragged, unschooled children, and proceeded to hire the negroes of his domineering neighbors as he needs most. He was paying the whites eighty cents in cash per day; they told him they would gladly work for sixty cents rather than be thrown off: but, though he wanted their work and they wanted his money, they were all under the yoke of an iron despotism, and had to succumb.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending the last disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Pimples on the Countenance, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating marriage, reflect a little on the consequences, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotine, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain are the means of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has, and had great and extensive experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to so elite practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B. Letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

DR. DOW is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and ad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With this broiler there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE FARMER STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the dust which comes in contact with the fire, pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The objections to these are obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the cone, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Shea, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. The gums shrink, and the teeth can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one white piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every inn fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

FERNANDO WOOD, ex-Mayor of New York, was in Portland a few days since, but suddenly left via Boston for Halifax—report says in quest of health. When asked why he did not stop and speak in the city, a la Hayes, one of the ultra "peace democrats" gave as a reason that he was too much of a Copperhead!

The Portland Press has heard on good authority a different reason for Fernando's reticence and remarkable taciturnity at the present time, viz., that very recently his attent on was called to his private treasonable letters which had come into the possession of the Government. Fernando received a dispatch, stating that his presence was desired at the Federal metropolis. He went there at once, and was met by a tall, somewhat rough but honest man, who has had extensive legal practice in Western courts, by whom he was taken to a private room The documents were shown, the treasonable passages pointed out, and confessed because they could not be denied. "Enough," said the inquisitive gentleman; "those are treasonable words, and you are liable to arrest and trial, and if found guilty, to death—Have a care; stop such utterances, or you have my word that justice shall not be allowed to slumber."

Fernando came home a more thoughtful, if not a better or a wiser man. He has made no speeches since. The draft was to be enforced in his city upon a population with a portion of which his word is law.—Should he remain there he might be called upon to speak by those whose demands are imperative, who would return curses and brickbats for silence. To refuse to speak to and for them would destroy his influence forever. A virtue was made of necessity. Absence from the State would furnish excuse for silence; the plea of ill health would excuse absence, and so a voyage to Halifax, to recuperate nature's wasted energies, was bit upon as the shortest cut by which to escape a disagreeable dilemma.—Fernando Wood may probably remain quiet till Congress assembles.

☞ A French work, recently published, maintains that every 10,500 years the waters of the sea pass from one pole to the other, submerging and overwhelming in their passage the earth and all its inhabitants.—According to the author of this theory the last of these deluges occurred 4500 years ago, and the next one is due in 6000 years.

THE GREAT BORE.—After a suspension of two years, an engineer has been appointed to superintend the work upon the Hoosac Tunnel. Help has been engaged, and the work will be resumed immediately. An agent has also gone to Europe to procure two tunnelling machines and other fixtures to be employed in prosecuting the work.

☞ It is said of the Prince of Wales that he may often be seen a la pedestrian, in London, with a short, little carved wood pipe in his mouth, looking very saucy and very democratic.

☞ The draft is completed in Vermont. As substitutes are scarce in the rural districts, the army will realize but about 1000 men from the State, the remainder commuting.

☞ John Hay, Esq., Private Secretary to President Lincoln has resigned and has gone North.

☞ Brigadier General Prior has tendered his resignation to the Confederate authorities, which has been accepted.

☞ Ned Buntline is now acting as sergeant in a company of the invalid corps, stationed at Harrisburg, Pa.

☞ Counterfeit U. S. notes, poorly executed, fives, tens and twenties, are said to be abundant in the South.

☞ There are forty-five regiments and batteries in New York at present, and more coming.

☞ In the fourth District, in New York city, about fifty Custom House officers were drafted.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A dispatch from Gen. Fiske to Gen. Schofield from Pilot Knob says Col. Woodson's cavalry made a raid to Pocahontas, Ark., and routed several bands of guerrillas, capturing 100 prisoners, and among them the rebel Gen. Jeff. Thompson and all his staff.

One hundred and eighty-three bodies had been buried in Lawrence, Kansas, up to Wednesday morning; and seven more bodies have been found; 182 buildings have been burned; 85 widows and 245 orphans have been made by Quantrell's raid. All the towns in the State have sent a large sum of money for the relief of the sufferers.

Moseby's gang has increased from 60 guerrillas to 800, and on Tuesday they captured 41 sutlers' wagons between Centreville and Bull Run, with a number of Government horses and much property on its way to the army. A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Herald, however, states that it is generally believed that Moseby himself was fatally wounded on Monday.

Gen. Steele, with the Arkansas expedition, is progressing finely. There has been no battle as yet, but one is in prospect.

Steamship Arago at New York from Port Royal, brings dates from Charleston to 5 P. M., Aug. 25. The bombardment still continued. Fort Sumter is almost entirely destroyed, but had not surrendered. The only gun left was thrown off the wall the day previous. On Friday Gen. Gilmore, having received no reply to his demand for the surrender of Charleston, threw 15-inch shell, charged with Greek fire, into the city. Beauregard protested against its use, and the English, French and Spanish consuls also denounced the short time given to remove non-combatants. Gen. Gilmore replied by a demand to surrender the forts and public property; Beauregard asked a truce for two hours. Gen. Gilmore refused to grant more time or to accept any terms but an unconditional surrender, and at midnight the shelling of the city with Greek fire was renewed. Nearly all the torpedoes have been removed from the harbor.

The rebel steamer Everglade attempted to run out of Savannah on the night of the 21st, with a cargo of cotton and a number of passengers, including officers for a new pirate craft at Nassau. She was, however, overhauled and sunk near Tybee Island, and 22 of her passengers and crew, including several of the pirate's officers, were captured.

☞ A recent letter from an officer of the blockading squadron off Wilmington, N. C., states that two or three steamers had run into Wilmington each day, for the five days previous. One large steamer ran in at ten o'clock in the forenoon, on the 17th inst.—A few mornings since a steamer of fifteen hundred tons ran in. She was pierced for six guns, in addition to two pivot guns, and probably would receive an armament and be ready to proceed to sea within a week. She is larger than the Alabama or Florida, and appeared to be very fast. The writer thinks she may be the steamer known as the Southerner. The Niphon and the Minnesota were the only efficient vessels off the port, the Iroquois having left in chase of a blockade runner a week previous.

☞ Among those who were drafted last week in New York was John Morrissy, of pugilistic fame. Upon learning of it, he, being at Saratoga, wrote to his banker to furnish a substitute for him, who must be five feet eleven inches high, weigh 163 pounds, and be a courageous man in every sense of the word. To such a one he would pay $5,000.

☞ C. Edwards Lester, a clerk in the War Department, has been arrested at Harper's Ferry, charged with furnishing the rebels with important information. He was formerly U. S. Consul at Genoa. At one time he was the American correspondent of the London Times.

☞ A man who has served fourteen months in the rebel army was enlisted as a substitute at New Haven on the 21st. He now vows vengeance against the rebels.

☞ The Wyoming Seminary and boarding hall at Kingston Pa., and the buildings for the ladies' department were consumed by fire on Wednesday. Loss $8000. Insurance $5000.

☞ Vicksburg was laid out in 1822 by Neivitt Vick, and incorporated in 1825.—It has always been celebrated for its fine fruits and vegetables and for its short lived editors. Seventeen of this unfortunate class have come to an untimely end by the duello, street fights, or suicide, since the establishment of the Vicksburg Whig, the first newspaper published there.

LONG ROW OF SLATE.—The Penobscot Bridge Company are slating the roof of the bridge with Brownville Slate from the Crocker quarry. About 50,000 feet are to be covered, which will require nearly 500 squares of slate.—Bangor Whig.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A Second Advent Camp Meeting is to be held at Alton Bay, commencing Sept. 7.

—— The services of Dedication of the Catholic Church at Exeter, and the Confirmation of candidates for church membership, on Thursday last week, attracted a crowd, and the services gave general satisfaction.

—— A Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald says Col. Whipple, of the 12th N. H. Regt., is ordered to show within fifteen days why he should not be dismissed from the army, for absence without leave.

—— Mr. E. D. Stockwell, of Lancaster, picked one bushel of blueberries one day last week.

—— Lieut. Stark Fellows, of the 14th Regiment, has resigned his position, to accept a Lt. Colonelcy of a colored regiment, now being raised at Washington. Maj. Duncan, of the same regiment, has been appointed colored regiment.

THE REBEL STATES.

The Democratic Party of Maine, at their recent State Convention, took the ground that whenever a seceded State should return to the Union, they would welcome it with joy; and they insisted that it should be permitted to return unimpaired in respect to all its rights, dignity, &c.—which means that it should be at liberty to have slavery as one of its institutions, and that slavery should be the same privileged institution hereafter that it was in the days before the flood of secession.

But (says the Traveller,) that "so much grace as this is to be granted to rebellious slaveholders,—to men who are rebels only because they are slaveholders,—is more than we can say."

"The States composing the Southern Confederacy are all in rebellion, and it is the merest moonshine to seek to distinguish between them and a portion of their people, —which happens to be a very large portion, too. There is, indeed, a greater unanimity of States than of men in the Confederacy. But some of the people in those States are Unionists, and others would submit to the federal government should it succeed in establishing its power in their places of abode.

We are for State rights, and have no desire to see any State converted into a province; but as slavery was the chief cause of the war, we would, should our side prove victorious, so far exercise the right of conquerors as to abolish that institution. We would rest our right to do so on the same ground that the Allies took when they overthrew Napoleon, in 1814. As Napoleon's presence was held to be fatal to the existence of peace in Europe, so should slavery's existence be held fatal to the existence of peace in America. We must succeed, in order to take any such position; and, once successful, there could be no limit to our power.

If we were, as conquerors, to sell the slaveholders into bondage, we should, though only doing unto them as they have done unto others, be guilty of a flagrant violation of the rights of the conquered; but when we abolish slavery by force, when we carry freedom on the points of federal bayonets into Virginia or Carolina, we do no wrong to slaveholders.

Practically, the question, how a repentant State shall be readmitted into the Union, is not likely to arise soon. Notwithstanding all the reverses that have befallen the arms of the Confederates, we have yet to see the first glimpse of evidence on the part of any one of their States of a disposition to return into the Union. The States that form the Confederacy are as disloyal to-day as they were on the first day of the war. Apparently submission on any terms is as far from the thoughts of their rulers as it was when the resolution was taken to fire on Sumter.

It will be time enough to discuss the terms of their return when they shall ask for those terms. At present there is but one thing to do, and that is, to conquer the Confederacy. The Confederates are yet in arms, and in considerable force, too; and they are increasing the strength of their armies daily. To destroy their armies, and to capture their seaports, is the work that is before us, and which must be done before we can look for any signs of repentance on the part of the rebels. They are nearer to Washington than we are to Richmond; and while they thus threaten us, it is childish to talk of conciliating them by any action of ours."

☞ The yachts of the New York Club had a race on Monday, 17th inst., from New London to Newport, a distance of fifty miles. The Madgie made the quickest time, 4 hours 3 minutes.

☞ While Kerosene oil was being poured into a lamp, a day or two since in Newburyport, an explosion took place, by which an individual was so badly burned that her life is despaired of.

☞ The York County Agricultural Society will hold their annual cattle show and fair, commencing Sept. 29th, and continuing three days.

☞ The captain of a Bremen barque which has arrived at New York, reports that he passed several icebergs on the 5th inst., on the southern edge of Newfoundland banks.

☞ Corporal James Moran, Co. K, 9th Me., had an arm amputated at Morris Island on the 17th inst.

☞ The Calais, Me., Advertiser says a cow belonging to Charles R. Whidden, Esq., has given twenty quarts of milk per day since May 1st, and in nine weeks 76 pounds of butter were made from her milk.

☞ The Sandwich Islands are decreasing in population and business. The number of foreign vessels which had arrived at Honolulu during the first half of the present year was less by one half than during the corresponding period of last year.—There was a great scarcity of laborers for the sugar plantations, and parties were earnestly urging the Government authorities to import Coolies from Polynesia. The population of the Islands is decreasing more rapidly than at any former period. It is now estimated that they contain only 66,000 inhabitants.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE, for September, contains an amusingly illustrated article entitled "An Unprotected Female in the East;" also, an illustrated article—"The Pennsylvania Coal Region;" and as large a quantity of the interesting miscellany which has rendered this magazine so popular, as usual. For sale by J. H. Foster.

☞ The Richmond Inquirer argues the immediate increase of the rebel piratical fleet by purchase in England.

☞ Gentlemen attached to the public service say that in the shelling of Charleston at a distance of five miles a greater success has been attained with the Parrott guns than has heretofore entered into their calculation.

☞ The Egyptian troops sent by Louis Napoleon to Mexico have proved less able to endure the climate than the French. Of the seven hundred sent out more than half have died.

Sheep and Lambs — Extra consists of prime Bucks and fancy Ewes for stock.

Beeves are sold by the head, at prices equal to the value per pound of the estimated weight of beef in the quarter with the fifth quarter, or the hide and tallow, at the same price at a shrinkage from live weight agreed on by the parties—varying from 38 to 34 per cent.

The supply of beeves was large and the quality better than last week at the same price, the rates being more satisfactory to buyers than sellers. A decline of 50c. a head on lambs. The storm affected the business of the market somewhat.

State of New-Hampshire,

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
[L. S.] Concord, August 19, 1863.

For the information of all interested, it is hereby announced that the Draft in this State according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, and sub-districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The Enrolled Provost Marshals have nothing to do with the claims of the different towns for men heretofore furnished. But, when the Governor shall make it appear to the Provost Marshal General, that particular towns have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a number of men called into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged before leaving the State.

He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hazard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not hear of our ever growling, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the probability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials herewith given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and does prove, that it is no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be served having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of but one weight, which will secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it for their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I thereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWEETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness, my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may29

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, CONTIVENESS, FILLOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper printed."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notices may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Local.

☞ The Substitute market fluctuates, like all fancy stocks. Prices vary,—from the city bounty of $300 alone, up to from $25, to as high as $200 extra, in a few cases. There is probably not the least necessity for paying more than the $150 bonus, which is about the ruling market rate—for it is known that many of the "brokers" or the runners who furnish the subs from abroad, pay very much less than they get for them,—say from $100 to $250. One would suppose there must be plenty of good patriotic men, not far off, who would be glad to avail themselves of the liberal bounty offered by the city oven,—especially in the present state of the rebellion.

☞ Of the three newspaper editors drafted in this city—one was exempted as being "2d class," (and many folks would not rate him so high as that, even) another was exempted for "disability," and the other, being accepted, will probably send a substitute.

In this connexion we would ask any of our friends, if they can tell us where we can procure a copy of a short poem commencing

"This stick of type hath more of might
Than warrior hosts and fortress walls;
And it shall batter towers to dust,
Which laugh at hosts and cannon balls."

We may need the verses to knock down some "laughing" fortress of iniquity.

☞ The frame for the extension of the Rockingham Mills, in this city, (late "Sagamore," —what a pity to change that pretty name, wasn't it?) is now all up. The erection of the building has been delayed on account of the difficulty in procuring carpenters, and at last a draft has been made upon Boston for the purpose of getting men to do joiner work upon the building.

☞ In Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening a committee of three, with the Mayor added, was appointed, to confer with Messrs. Rollins, Hackett, and Hatch in regard to the legality of the city considering a substitute mustered into the U. S. service when accepted by the Provost Marshal.

☞ The soldiers at Fort Constitution have commenced the publication of a small paper, to be issued on alternate Saturdays, and to be "devoted to literature, local and general intelligence." Terms, $1 per year in advance. From the initial number we glean the following items concerning Fort Constitution and its garrison:—

Schooner Kossuth arrived on Wednesday from Washington, having on board two rifled 100-pound Parrott guns, and about 5 tons of ammunition for the Fort.

Regularly appointed religious meetings are now held at the barracks near the Hospital.

The members of the company occasionally have "grand, social gatherings" at the commodious mess room, generally on Friday evening, when the presence of fair ladies, and graceful movements on the light fantastic toe, cause the brief hours to fly swiftly till "taps," when a "superb overture on the violin, trombone and tambourine" closes the festivities.

The Observer expresses its good wishes for the "Newcastle girls," and has its joke at the expense of the private who recently ate at supper four men's rations.

☞ The U. S. school ship Marion, on a cruise, arrived at the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Thursday afternoon, and exchanged salutes with the Yard. The Marion brings with her the famous yacht America, captured while attempting to run the blockade, and now serving as tender to the Marion.

☞ The conscripts' substitutes from Portsmouth, who have been accepted thus far, are to be mustered into the service at Concord, this Friday morning.

The Boston Traveller says, "the new steamer Wawa, designed to run between Dover and Portsmouth in connection with trains on the Eastern Railroad, until the completion of the Dover and Winnipisseogee Railroad, will be in readiness to go on her route this week."

The above appeared in the Traveller some two weeks ago, but neither the Wawa or any other steamer has yet made her appearance in these parts. It is a pity, however, that they don't, and it does seem that a boat of some kind, not wholly dependent on wind and tide, ought to pay on our river. Large parties from the interior frequently go down to Portsmouth for the purpose of an excursion down the harbor or to the Shoals, and are compelled to return disappointed for the want of a conveyance.—Last Thursday, a party of 300 went down from Nashua, and after getting on board a schooner and drifting about the docks an hour or two, unable to get anywhere, they were forced to give it up. A large party from Concord a week or two ago were similarly entertained—Dover Enquirer.

☞ The pay of mechanics in the Charlestown Navy Yard has recently been increased by order of the Secretary of the Navy, as follows, taking effect from 1st of August:

The first class of ship carpenters, who have been receiving $2 50 per day to have $3; the 2d class increased from $2 26 to $2 70; 3d class from $2 to $2 26; the first class of joiners increase from $2 26 to $2 76; the 2d class from $2 to $2 50, and the 3d class from $1 76 to $2 26; in the machinists' department an increase of from $2 50 to $2 76 per day. The whole number now employed in the yard is 3300.

☞ 145,000 bushels of potatoes, the crop of 1862, have been shipped from Bangor since the opening of navigation. The average price was forty-five cents, making $65,250. The amount shipped last year was 289,550 bushels which were sold for $130,297.50. Thus it will be seen that there were shipped from Bangor, of the crop of '62, 434,550 bushels of potatoes, which brought the handsome sum of $195,547.50.

That was a bad mistake a contemporary made in describing a recent camp meeting as strictly sexual. Textual was intended.—Post.

☞ Hon. Benj. M. Samuels, one of the most able Democrats in Iowa, is dead. He was a candidate for Governor in 1857, and was a prominent Douglas delegate in the Charleston Convention. He was forty years of age, and leaves a wife and four children.

☞ Mrs. Basger, who had lost all her children, had sacrificed her husband on the altar of the country, and had been ordered out of her house for non-payment of rent, died in Washington Square, Philadelphia Thursday evening, from the effects of laudanum.

Some wit affirms that military buttons are very attractive to a woman, especially if they are also bachelor's buttons.

PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER,

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.

We have iron framed Wringers at a lower price, that the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, which is filled throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

THE STARS.

They are all up—the innumerable stars—
Each with their place in heaven. My eyes have been Searching the pearly depths through which they spring
Like beautiful creations, 'till I feel
As if it were a new and perfect world,
Waiting in silence for the word of God
To breathe it into motion. There they stand,
Shining in order, like a living hymn
Written in light, awaking at the breath
Of the celestial dawn, and pealing Him
Who made them, with the harmony of the spheres. —WILLIS.

Even in the humblest weed. —ANON.

☞ A loyal Union Democrat in Bangor, says the Times, when called on to aid in raising a fund to relieve drafted men from going into service or furnishing substitutes, refused to contribute a farthing to such a fund, saying his purse was open to the extent of $1000 or $5000, to aid the soldiers who respond to the call of the country, or to assist their families in their absence; but, said he, I have not a dollar to bestow upon a movement whose purpose is to prevent the Government from getting the services of the men it needs in this trying emergency.—No, sir, you have mistaken your man! I am a Democrat, but a Union Democrat, clear through.

☞ The Portland Press states that John Hale, the horse thief, and Ephraim Gilman, the murderer, who escaped from the jail at Paris, Me., a short time since, were taken to Portland on Tuesday, and placed in jail, preparatory to being sent to Thomaston.—Hale is an old offender and has spent many years in jail and prison. He has four years to serve under an old sentence. Gilman is sentenced to the death penalty.

☞ Mayor Opdyke, of New York, has sent in his veto to the N. Y. City Council, of the three million exemption ordinance.—He proposes to provide for the exemption only of policemen, active firemen and active militia men who may be drafted, and to provide for the destitute families of citizens who may also be drafted. The message is quite long, and discusses the merits of the question involved.

☞ The editor of the Nashville, Tenn., Union says "he would not give $18 a head for 100 of the best slaves in the State.—They are worth a great deal more as compensated laborers, but they are not worth it as slaves. Slave property is fast losing its value, and all who are not purblind with prejudice see it and feel it. The question of emancipation is a living, practical one in this State; it is upon us and we must settle it. We are as well convinced that the people of Tennessee will pass an emancipation ordinance before twelve months, as we are that they ought to do it."

☞ They are selling a machine in Paris, for family use, which enables every man to make his own ice, every day, at a small cost. A peculiar vessel is filled with water, and then sea-sawed for seven or eight minutes in a mixture of sulphate of soda and muriatic acid. The "peculiar vessel," or machine, is small, and sells at from five to twenty-five dollars. Good bye to the ice man when that machine reaches this country.

☞ Some New Yorkers suspect the large number of troops disposed through that city, are not simply to look after the rioters.—As many of the soldiers are veterans and have their camp equipage along, they are supposed to have another destination.

☞ In the cars from St. Louis to Chicago the other day, the conductor shook a passenger to awake him into a sense of delivering his ticket. The man was stone dead, upright and cold. Disease of the heart.

☞ Mr. P. M. Jordan has sold $115 worth of cucumbers and tomatoes from his garden in Auburn, Me., within four weeks. He is also putting up cucumber pickles which are worth $12 per barrel. An acre of land can be made a source of a very respectable income.

☞ Mrs. Alice Bradley Haven, a popular authoress in the department of fiction and juvenile literature, died at her residence in Mamaroneck, Westchester County, N. Y., on Sunday, August 23, aged 35. She was a native of Hudson, N. Y., her maiden name being Emily Bradley.

☞ Francis Chase, Esq., of Augusta, Me., has been appointed Superintendent of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad, John Russell, Esq., who, has filled that position for fifteen years, having resigned.

☞ The guerilla Morgan had no "belt filled with gold, greenbacks and confederate notes," when he was captured. His valuables amounted to twenty-three dollars and a butternut breastpin.

☞ By a trick upon a smart enrolling officer of Maryland a jackass was enrolled as "Billy Bray," and stands now on the list of drafted men forming the quota of Maryland.

☞ Col. Roberts, of the Maine Second, is not killed, as was reported. The loss of the regiment was only 75, including the wounded and missing.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds in families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the mighest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this will be, that the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume its own smoke, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to a great extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, so when Rhubarb in the mouth presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

TARRY WITH ME.

There is great beauty in these lines. They are said to be the production of a lady. An exchange recommends that they be read before you go to church on Sunday:

Tarry with me, O my Saviour,
For the day is passing by;
See! the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh;
Tarry with me! tarry with me!
Pass me not unheeded by.

Many friends were gathered round me,
In the bright days of the past;
But the grave has closed above them,
And I linger here the last;
I am lonely, tarry with me
Till the dreary night is past.

Dimmed for me is earthly beauty;
Yet the spirit's eye would fain
Rest upon Thy lovely features;
Shall I seek, dear Lord! in vain?
Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
Let me see Thy smile again.

Dull my ear to earth-born music;
Speak Thou, Lord, in word of cheer:
Feeble, tottering my footstep,
Sinks my heart with sudden fear.
Cast Thine arms, dear Lord! around me,
Let me feel Thy presence near.

Faithful Memory paints before me
Every deed and thought of sin;
Open Thou the blood-filled fountain,
Cleanse my guilty soul within!
Tarry, thou forgiving Saviour,
Wash me wholly from my sin.

Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
Paler now the glowing west;
Swift the night of death advances—
Shall it be the night of rest?
Tarry with me, O, my Saviour!
Lay my head upon Thy breast.

Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on Thee;
Tarry with me through the darkness—
While I sleep, still watch by me,
Till the morning, then awake me,
Dearest Lord, to dwell with thee!

☞ The New York Times proffers the following suggestion to the Department:

"Now that the Miantonomah is well launched, why not name the next gunboat to come off the stocks, the Benedict Arnold. The one was the first red traitor on the continent, the other was the first white one. The difference between the two was only skin-deep, and we don't believe in discriminating against our own race."

☞ Mr. David Butler, seventy-seven years of age, living at Whitehall, New York, was killed by the cars while attempting to cross a railroad track in a wagon.—Mr. Butler, during the war of 1812-'14, was Gen. Scott's Private Secretary.

☞ It is a mooted question whether the turreted iron-clads built in England for the rebels will be allowed to leave port. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:

The decision in English courts in favor of the Atlanta, which, as it is known, had been appealed to, was made upon the ground that she was built as a merchant or commercial vessel. But about these iron-clad there can be no mistake: they are for warlike purposes.

☞ A correspondent of the London Daily News says it is well known that one iron-clad ram has been launched at Birkenhead and another is soon to follow, for the service of the rebel States, with which to make war upon the United States.

☞ The learned Agassiz declares that facts will force us sooner or later to admit that the creation of man lies far beyond any period assigned to it, and that a succession of human races, as of animals, have followed one another upon the earth.

☞ A special "peach train" between Baltimore, Wilmington and New York carries some three thousand baskets of fruit daily.

That was a brilliant idea of the scientific gentleman in New York to connect his door bell knob with an electric wire and so shock mischievous little boys almost to death.

☞ There is a field of tobacco in Western Massachusetts for which the owner has been offered forty thousand dollars.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Quantrell's guerrillas have abandoned all their spoil, and most of the goods and money stolen at Lawrence, Ks., have been recovered. About 80 of the guerrillas have been killed. No prisoners have been taken and none will be. All the houses in which stolen goods were found have been destroyed, as well as all the houses of known guerrillas, wherever our troops have gone. Gen. Ewing intends to destroy the houses of all persons in the border counties, outside of our military stations, who do not remove by the first of September, in obedience to the General Order.

The N. Y. Commercial says:—

By the arrival of the Arago we have the somewhat extraordinary statement, on good authority, however, that Gen. Gilmore's advanced fortifications are within a stone's throw of the rebel Fort Wagner. It is said upon the same authority that our forces will carry their parallels to the rebel works, and through them, notwithstanding any efforts its defenders may make. The position is such that Fort Wagner can be taken at any moment.

We have a report from Charleston via Wilmington, that Forts Sumter and Wagner were occupied by our troops on Monday last. Gen. Gilmore officially reports, 24th, that Sumter is a shapeless and harmless mass of ruins; and that his projectiles entered the city, Beauregard himself designating them as the most destructive missiles ever used in war.

CHARLESTON.—The N. Y. Herald's letters from off Charleston give interesting details. They give dates to the 24th. No offensive powers are left to the rebels, the capture of Sumter and the passage of the fort by our iron-clads being regarded as practicable. Two blockade runners ran into Charles on Sunday night. The rebels are taking advantage of Adm. Dahlgren's delay, to strengthen and enlarge their old batteries, build new ones, and mount heavier guns at points where they will be effective. The shot thrown into the city evidently set buildings on fire, and a panic was evident from the ringing of bells from every steeple, and the screeching and screaming of locomotive whistles.

During the seven days' bombardment, our men have been steadily at work with pick-axe and spade on Fort Wagner, until they were at last wielding their implements under its very parapet.

Other letters state that the 300-pounder Parrott burst on the 20th, after the seventh fire. The gunboat Mahaska also burst her 10-inch rifle on Friday afternoon, but no one was injured. Both of the Whitworth guns of the naval battery are also disabled.

☞ The imprisonment of John Morgan and his officers in the Ohio penitentiary has brought the rebel authorities to terms, and it has been agreed that Col. Streight and the officers of his command, who have been so long similarly imprisoned, shall be placed on the footing of other prisoners of war. This will probably be responded to by the restoration of Morgan and his officers to a similar status.

Gen. Neal Dow has been turned over to the civil authorities. A rebel Brigadier General will immediately be placed in close confinement as a hostage for him. The employees of the Sanitary Commission who were captured in Maryland during Lee's last campaign, will be immediately released.

A REBEL PROPHECY.—With the present light, it may not be unprofitable to recur to one of the remarkable boasts with which the leading Southern traitors began this war. On the twelfth of April, 1861, Jefferson Davis and his Secretary of War, L. P. Walker, were serenaded at Montgomery, Ala. The former did not respond to the calls of the crowd, but the latter,—having the prophetic mood upon him,—put himself upon the record, in the following unfortunate utterance:

"No man, he said could tell where the war this day commenced, would end, but he would prophesy that the flag which now flaunts the breeze here would float over the dome of the old Capitol at Washington before the first of May. Let them try Southern chivalry, and test the extent of Southern resources, and it might float eventually over Faneuil Hall itself."

"Southern chivalry" has been effectually tried by the events of the last two years. It has not marched triumphantly into the Capitol at Washington, leaving old Faneuil Hall out of the account altogether.

But it has been confined within the borders of the openly traitorous States. Several of them have been recovered from its tyrannical grasp, and the power of the Union has just levelled the stronghold, which as it passed from Federal hands in 1861, caused such a shout of rejoicing throughout Secessia.

☞ A characteristic letter from Garibaldi, dated Caprera, Aug. 6, is published. It is addressed to Abraham Lincoln, Liberator of Slaves in the Republic of America, and rejoices at his noble efforts in behalf of freedom and human progress.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Amherst Cabinet publishes the following:—

The three Companies of Sharpshooters from New Hampshire are to be filled up if possible with "Veteran Volunteers." Men who have seen not less than nine months service can join the Sharp-Shooters by forwarding to Lieut. George A. Marden, Mount-Vernon, N. H., an affidavit made before any Justice of the Peace,—that they have made the target specified in General Order from the War Department for Sharp Shooters, viz: A "string" of five consecutive shots not to exceed 25 inches; distance 200 yards at rest, with a "target rifle," or 100 yards with open sights. They will be mustered in as Sharp-Shooters, and will receive the bounty offered by Government of $402, besides the State and town bounties, and will be credited to the quotas of the towns from which they enlist. The Sharp Shooters are armed with splendid breech-loading rifles. This branch of service is less dangerous than any other, the men always fighting as skirmishers and Sharp-Shooters, taking advantage of all cover. Men desiring to re-enlist will find this a good opportunity—and others desiring to enlist as Sharp-Shooters will receive the usual State, town and Government bounties.

—— The Boston Journal says that a letter received by Surgeon General Dale states that Lewis Dunn of Co. I, 20th Mass. regiment, who died at the Devol House, Boston, on Monday, does not belong in Barrington, R. I., as supposed, but somewhere in New Hampshire, at present unknown. It is desirable that his friends be informed of his death.

—— At Franklin, on Thursday of last week, a Frenchman named Joseph Latouch was shot by the wife of his brother, and fatally injured. The trouble between the two families grew out of a spring of water used by both parties, but which the woman claimed exclusively. Joseph went to the spring to procure some water, when his sister-in-law attempted to drive him away by throwing stones at him. Not succeeding in this, she procured a gun heavily loaded with buck-shot, and fired at him, the charge lodging in his head and body. The murderess was arrested.

THE ROCKINGHAM ASSOCIATION of Universalists held their annual session in East Kingston on Wednesday and Thursday—26 and 27. The copious rain of Wednesday morning postponed the public exercises till afternoon, when the public worship was opened with prayer by Br. Ellis, of Boston, and the occasional sermon was delivered by Br. Miller, of Portsmouth, to a good congregation.

Col. French, of East Kingston, was elected Moderator, and Br. Eaton, of Dover, Scribe.

The evening was fine, and was occupied by a Conference Meeting, fully attended. A similar Conference was attended at an early morning hour, when many speakers took part. At its close, a resolution was passed, that it is our duty as men and christians to stand by the government in its endeavors by all proper means to put down the rebellion, secure liberty and restore peace.

The exercises of forenoon were prayer by Br. Chambre, chaplain in the U. S. army, and sermon by Br. Johnson, of Baltimore, who deemed it the duty alike of the christian and patriot to be decided; neutrality is impossible; "he that is not for me is against me."

In the afternoon, the sermon was by Br. Chambre; at the close of which the Lord's supper was administered by Brs. Patterson, of Portsmouth, and Ellis, of Boston, to a large body of communicants. The house was densely packed and overflowed with hearers, who remained attentive to the close.

Twelve ministers were present, including two army chaplains, and many friends from neighboring towns. The singing was congregational throughout, and sacred songs abounded.

The Association voted to meet at South Hampton next year.

☞ Last Saturday brought the heaviest sea at Newport ever known during the bathing season. The dressing houses were removed back several feet, but the sea came on, dashing the doors from their hinge, and the occupants, male and female, rushed out in terror, some half dressed and others not dressed at all, making the scene quite dramatic.

☞ Rev. J. T. Goodrich, recently of Canton, N. Y., has, with his family, removed to Philadelphia, and assumed the pastoral charge of the Eight Street Universalist Society in that city.

☞ U. S. war steamer Kearsarge chased and took possession of a vessel named the Juno, off Fayal, but after a strict search the Juno was released and allowed to proceed.

☞ The Maine Wesleyan Seminary has sent about four hundred of its students to the war. One hundred and fifteen went during one term.

☞ The Hartford, Providence and Fishkill Railroad has been sold to the Boston & Erie road for $240,000.

☞ Mr. Elliott has in his garden at Greenfield, Mass., the anomaly of white blackberries.

☞ La France asserts that the acceptance of the Mexican Crown by the Arch Duke Maximillian is not doubtful, and believes that negotiations have been entered into to obtain the adhesion of England.

The La France does say the present Government of Mexico will administer affairs for a year to organize the country, but the consent of the Arch Duke will probably be forwarded to Mexico in November.

☞ The New York Tribune's Washington dispatch says the Navy Department has decided to build another fleet of iron-clad vessels. They will be larger and more formidable than any now in the service of this or any country. In order to render them unexceptionable in every way, they are to be built at the Navy Yards of New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Portsmouth, naval constructors alone superintending them.—Work on the vessels will soon commence.—Each will have two turrets of enormous thickness, and the side armor will be some feet in thickness.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

[L. S.] Concord, August 19, 1863.

For the information of all interested, it is hereby announced, that the draft is made according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, and districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The District Provost Marshals have nothing to do with the claims of the different towns for men heretofore furnished. But, when the Governor shall make it appear to the Provost Marshal General, that particular towns have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a number of men enlisted into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged before leaving the state.

He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hazard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not fear oil nor ever frowning, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished, by forwarding One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but from it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber. And as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made twenty-three rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes in the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended in the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines caused her to be benefited in the slightest degree. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by its use. I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

Dr. SWETT—Your Panacea has testify, as I feel it my duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. SWEET, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. mav26o

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill.

JOHN S. GODFREY,
Capt. and Provost Marshal 1st Cong. Dist. N. H.
Portsmouth, Aug 28, 1863.

☞ A sad accident occurred at one of the islands below the New Castle bridge, on Friday morning, occasioned by the careless use of cannon by the contraband garrison at Sullivan's Island, Portsmouth harbor. The island at which the accident occurred is frequently resorted to by persons residing in Newcastle, for the purpose of picking berries. About 11 o'clock on that day, such a party had just taken their places in a boat, on their return home, when a shot from the Fort passed over the bridge, on which several persons were standing, and struck the boat, shivering it to atoms. The boat contained seven persons, all of whom were thrown into the water. Of these, a son of Mr. William Trefethen, jr., of Newcastle, was instantly killed, his body being frightfully mangled. He was about 12 years of age. Another son, about 10 years of age, was seriously injured in the head, possibly by a piece of the boat. He may recover. Mrs. Trefethen, who was in the boat, rescued him from drowning, and also took out the lifeless remains of the son who was killed. A son of the late Samuel Batson, was slightly wounded, and also a son of Capt. Elias Todd, jr. These all reside in Newcastle. Dr. Smart, Surgeon at Fort Constitution, was called to attend the sufferers.

We are informed that there have recently been numerous instances of narrow escapes by persons sailing on the river. It should be remembered that the contrabands at the fort are under the control of white officers. We give the above report from information gathered from citizens of New Castle, not having received from the officers any account of the accident, or explanation of the apparently heedless conduct of the garrison.

Since the above was in type we have been told (not by the officers stationed there) that, in pursuance of orders from headquarters, the garrison are daily practised in firing at a target, and that it was thought every precaution had been taken to guard against accident; that the boat, at the time of the accident, could not be seen by the gunners; and that the shot took an unexpected and unusual course, passing far beyond where it was expected it would strike. It is also stated that the contrabands did not fire the gun.

☞ The Kennebec Journal, in speaking of the appointment of Francis Chase, Esq., as superintendent of the P. S. and P. Railroad, says: "this is an admirable selection, and, while we regret to lose Mr. Chase from our city, we congratulate the company on having secured a first class officer. By education as Civil Engineer, and by long and intimate connection with Railroads and Railroad companies, Mr. Chase has acquired a most perfect mastery of his profession; and we predict for him a most successful career in his new and important position."

☞ Rev. Mr. Whiting, of Providence, is expected to preach at the North Church to-morrow.

☞ Emperor Napoleon has of late introduced the fashion of removing his hat with his left hand when saluting, if we may believe the latest foreign fashionable advices.

☞ Punch says he never could see that Canada was of much benefit to England; for all the mother country ever got from those provinces was wars, and fights, and rows,—except the Canadian boat song, and even that commences, "Row brothers, row!" However correct Punch may be—we have not to do with rows or fights now, but only wish to refer to the verses we give herewith, — from a lady champion of that drowned-out Shoals party, the other night —one who was there, too.

Written by a lady—one of that boating party who were caught out in a thunder storm.

Row, brothers, row, the night shades fall,
And fleecy fogs are settling o'er us;
The storm-cloud gathers like a pall
O'er "Shoals" behind, and "Fort" before us.

"Row, brothers," thwart the turning tide
Which strives to bear us back to ocean;
Our peril'd bark must bound and ride
The ebbing wave, with gallant motion.

"Row, brothers, row," the lightnings fly!
And thunder tones are loud above us;
Heed paling cheek and anxious eye
Of those we love, and those who love us.

Speed, brothers, speed, ere warning bell
From old Whale's Back makes solemn pealing;
Ply tireless oar, the surf clouds swell
And toss, the hidden rocks revealing.

Haste brothers, haste;—ah, not in vain,
The Fort Light gleams o'er blacken'd billow;
Give steady stroke; we gain! we gain!
No wave to-night shall make our pillow.

Haste, bear away! nerve stalwart arm!
Mark breakers! Heed the surges sounding!
The eddying gust! the treach'rous calm!
Ha, one stroke more! The point we're rounding.

Pull, make the Fort! The wild rain falls!
List, hapless crew; what joy! what joy!
To hear from o'er the sullen walls,
The pacing sentinel hail "ahoy!"

Safe landed on the slipp'ry steep,
Eager to gain a friendly portal;
Shall salads dripping from the deep,
Seek shelter at the gate of mortal?

Yes, here 'mid burnish'd bayonets' gleam,
Made bright to shine where foes endanger;
From swarthy faces kind eye beam
A general welcome to the stranger.

Ah, noble hearts and friendly hands
All gen'rous aid and greeting lend us:
Take hope for our war stricken land
When gallant souls like these defend us.

E. P. C.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.
We have iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.
The Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.
It is now one of the "Domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.
SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR.
(Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.
We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, finished throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.
The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

TRIP TO THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

JOTTINGS ON THE WAY.—By J. H. H.

Messrs. Editors:—My last letter left me on the road to the town of Bartlett, en route for the White Hills. The rain is still falling, and there is not much of a chance to see the many beautiful views which are had from the road.

The stage stops at Jackson, where we change horses and have a chance to visit Goodrich Falls, 105 feet long, near by.—They are a part of Glen Ellis river. They come leaping down over a long, terraced cliff, foaming and sparkling, hissing and roaring in their descent. The cliffs in the vicinity are piled up in rough grandeur, and above are the crowning woods. Leaving this charming spot we retrace our steps to the hotel. The mountains rise up on every side. The clouds are breaking and leaving their resting place among the summits, and float slowly away in the distance, unveiling new views and fairer prospects.—The coach is ready, and we are off again. The road now runs through the wild forest, with deep ravines, dark gorges and chasms on each side. Through those rush foaming torrents full of sublimity and grandeur.—On we speed and soon enter Pinkham's Notch. Wild mountain flowers and mosses of every hue of green fill the woods on each side. The trees are dressed in mountain moss, hanging down like silken tassels. We reach the top of the Notch and behold the White Mountain range on the left and the Carter range on our right. The view from this spot is extremely grand. We stop for a short time near Peabody and Grand Ellis river, that the driver may go in search of a missing trunk. These two rivers are but ten rods apart and run in different directions. We are 2500 feet above the level of the sea, and have a delightful view of the country for a circuit of a hundred miles. We soon rein up in front of the Glen House, which I find to be the most stylish hotel on the route. Here I met Charles L. Frost, Esq., and family.

From the balcony is had a fine view of the highest mountains of New England.—From the balcony one can watch with a glass the progress of the horseback parties ascending the rugged ledges of Mt. Washington. The house is overflowing, and one hundred persons slept on the floor the night before we arrived. There are views of the mountains to be had at a little greater distance, that will give more pleasure to the artists eye, but no view of the range can be had from a hotel that is comparable with that which the Glen House offers.

The carriage road leads from this House to the summit of the mountain: it is 8 miles long, and as smooth as any road in your vicinity. 50 cents is the toll for every passenger. About 100 per day ride over it; but few persons walk and less ride horseback. Handsome six, four and two-horse teams run from the house at all hours of the day. It takes four hours to ascend and one and one-half to descend. The road cost $50,000, and pays about 7 per cent.

White Horse ledge, on the road from Conway to North Conway, rears its tall head about one mile from the roadside, and takes its name from the figure of a white horse seen on the side, galloping along at full speed, his mane and tail streaming in the wind. It is formed of the limestone which crops out in the granite cliff. Starr King very prettily refers to it in his White Hills.

The Kearsarge House is situated in a broad plateau. It has received frequent additions since it was first built, and now is the largest hotel in the vicinity. Board for transient visitors, $2 per day. On the opposite side of the road are a number of smaller houses, all filled to overflowing, with travellers. In fact, every house within two miles is filled with pleasure seekers.

On the morning after we arrived our party procured single teams at a very moderate price, and visited the places of note. We first drove to Diana's Bath. The White Horse is in full view on our route, seeming ly endeavoring to outstrip us on the road. Pretty cottages, around which are seated pleasure seekers, are passed on every side. Now we arrive at the fords of the Saco,—three in number—each about fifty feet wide and three feet deep, with brown pebbly bottoms. Soon we reach the bathe—a grand sight. A mass of rocks are thrown together in every conceivable shape, covering many acres. Over them dashes the mountain stream, forming cascades, cataracts, rapids, and waterfalls of many varieties. At the foot of these cascades are found the baths, formed out of the solid rock by the action of the waters for ages. Little streams run into each one of them, and there are outlets at the foot, so that the water is constantly changing, and cold as ice. We bathed our heads and hands in the sparkling waters, and drank from the fountains that poured down from the cliffs. Then away we sped to the Cathedral, which we found at the foot of a cliff five times as large, but very much resembling Bald-head cliff. The Cathedral is 150 feet wide and 60 feet high; trees grow from the crevices of the rocky floor, and, touching the roof, resemble columns. A flight of steps, of nature's building, leads up to a dais at the rear. We seated ourselves on this elevated spot, and with a large party of visitors, joined in singing old Balerma and Greenville. The sweet tones echoed through the lofty vault, gathered and rolled back upon us, and then were lost among the darkling woods that grow at the foot of the cliff. A few years ago a wedding took place here. The parties' parents not being willing that they should enter into the holy bonds, they made a tour to the White Hills, and were united in this romantic spot.

Hence we drive to Echo Lake. A little boat with paddles conveys us to the middle of the transparent sheet of water—where are the centres of the most marvellous echoes. We shouted, sang and whistled, and the sounds were returned like sweet music in dreams. It was twilight when we arrived here: the waters seemed to be sleeping, the mountains were silent and solitude reigned on every side; the purple glow was on all the trees and rocks. On our way back to the house we stopped at the Devil's Den and Eagle Cliff.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing for exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being harder, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and open fire heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so that no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the costliest pipe for carrying off heat.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert H. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Meadum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL.

Excellent Wine for Females.

The Great Remedy for Kidney Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

As A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs, very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY AUG. 31, 1863. NO. 51.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fear to will;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

THE POOR MAN'S WAR.—The concluding paragraphs of the New York Mayor Opdyke's Message are as follows:

This war, above all other wars of which history makes mention, is a war waged on our part in the interest of poor men. The rebellion was plotted, begun and prosecuted in the interest of the owners of slaves. Whether the man who labors with his hands should be a free man or a slave, should own himself or be owned by another, is the ultimate question which this nation is now deciding, in the assemblies of the people, in legislative halls, in executive cabinets, and on many fields of battle.

The rebels maintain that that is the best condition of society where the land is divided into great plantations and their owners own also the laborers who till them and the artisans who make their implements: and this condition of society the rebels are striving to fortify and extend. The free and loyal people of the land maintain that the laborers and the artisans should be as free as the owners of the soil.

Thus, of all the people in the country, the laborers and the artisans are the most interested in this question. We are taking their side, seeking to bring universal opinion to their favor, writing and speaking for their cause, and fighting for it by sea and land. Would it not seem incredible blindness and fatuity, if they whose interests are thus involved, and whose cause is stirring the blood of true men all over the world, should themselves hold back and leave others to defend their rights?

☞ "Hot Corn" stories used to create a sensation, and the Philadelphia North American localizes one now that will have the same effect. Policeman Brown has been accustomed to indulge o'nights in the piping hot ears and oily butter vended by a female African on the steps of the Station. Searching for a culprit, the other day, he came upon a woman in the backyard of a shanty, boiling her corn and the neighbors' dirty clothes in the same seething cauldron. Being asked if that was her usual practice, the venerable Ethiopian indignantly responded: "Why, of course. Can't afford to buy coal to bile de close an' de corn separate." The dulcet strains of "hot corn" have lost their appetizing melody for Policeman Brown.

☞ Miss Lizzie Emmons, a well known and popular actress, died at Winchendon on Thursday, at the age of 24 years. She was for two seasons a member of the Boston Theatre company under Mr. Barry.—She first appeared at Lowell as a danseuse in 1854, but soon afterwards assumed speaking parts. She had been ill for about a year, though the immediate cause of her death was congestion of the brain.

A NEW CAVALRY COMPANY.—A cavalry company, under the new militia laws, is being formed in Charlestown, Mass. A meeting was held, at which there were over fifty signers to the roll of the company.—They agree to serve in the militia five years, and cannot be called out for a longer term than thirty days. This is the first company that has been formed under the new militia law. A movement is also on foot in that city to form an infantry company under the new law.

☞ Dr. Henry J. Childs and James Dixon, both Englishmen, have been arrested in New York for circulating hand bills of a treasonable nature. The bills were headed "Sons of Liberty," and called upon the citizens of New York in highly inflated language to subscribe $50,000, to test the constitutionality of the conscription law.—The prisoners were handed over to Gen. Canby.

☞ A gentleman residing in Dayton, Ohio, has received a letter from a friend in San Francisco, from which the following is an extract:

"We have daily morning and evening telegrams of all the war news up to the hour of going to press. The Evening Bulletin, issued at five P. M., contains news from your side up to eight P. M., same day!"

MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The gunboat Satellite, and the tug-boat Reliance, Capt. Duncan, with the crews of both vessels, were captured on Tuesday by the rebels at the mouth of the Rappahannock river. The captain of the Satellite was reported killed and the captain of the Reliance wounded.

A Mobile paper reports much activity on the part of our forces at Pensacola. There are ten U. S. war vessels in the harbor and six transports. It is also stated that two immense hospitals are in process of construction.

All the rebel steamers which sought safety on the Yazoo, have been destroyed, the rebels themselves having destroyed the last fourteen during a panic.

The rebel army in Arkansas is concentrating at Brownsville, to make their line of defense on the Bayou Meto. Gen. Price is there; Kirby Smith is at Little Rock.

The rebels are reported to be evacuating Chattanooga and all East Tennessee. Deserters report that they are moving guns and useful and important machinery from the foundries at Chattanooga to Atlanta, Ga. The rebel cavalry is reported to be concentrated at Rome, Ga.

Late information from Vicksburg confirms the death of Gen. Pemberton. He was shot by a Texan soldier. No particulars of the affair are given.

The 14th Army Corps has been transferred by Gen. Grant to the Army of the Gulf. Preparations were making at New Orleans on the 19th inst. for a move in some direction.

A despatch to the Boston Merchant's Exchange announces the death of the Guerilla Mosby at Leesburg, on Wednesday, of his wounds.

Four rebel war vessels have run into Wilmington, N. C. within six weeks,—the last a large sloop-of-war, of ten guns.

The steamer Florida, from off Charleston reports that Fort Sumter and Battery Wagner had fallen and were occupied by the Union troops, and that the Stars and Stripes were triumphantly waving over both Fortresses: [this statement is given on the authority of the Baltimore American, but is somewhat doubtful.] The N. Y. Herald's dispatch states that Gen. Butler will, probably, be appointed Military Governor of South Carolina, as soon as Gen. Gilmore and Adm. Dahlgren have completed their work.

Rebel papers say that Jeff. Davis has decided to call out half a million black troops, who are to receive their freedom and 50 acres of land at the close of the war.

One John Adams, a loyal man, writes the National Intelligencer that he has made a trip through Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee, and has conversed extensively with the people and most of the leaders of the rebellion, all of whom regard their defeat as inevitable, and desire peace, but think the President should hold out the olive branch of peace. The writer suggests a proclamation from the President, after the fall of Charleston, offering protection to all who will at once lay down the weapons of rebellion. The Intelligencer says that the statements of the writer are entitled to full credit as facts.

FROM NASSAU.—The steamer Corsica, from Nassau 24th inst., has arrived at New York. Quite a riot took place at Grant Town between the inhabitants and soldiers, during which two or three on both sides were killed.

Several blockade runners had returned to Nassau from unsuccessful attempts to get into Southern ports.

An arrival at Nassau from Havana states that the U. S. gunboat Juniata sailed from Havana on the 12th inst., in pursuit of the rebel steamer Nita, which had sailed the same day for Mobile.

REBELLION RECORD, Part 34.—This number of this valuable publication contains fine portraits of Gens. Sedgwick and O. O. Howard; and brings the record of the war down to Jan. 1, 1863. We notice by an advertisement that the publisher is issuing a Companion Volume, containing important documents, illustrative of the rebellion, not included in the regular issue of the Record. This also is illustrated.

☞ The Tribune's despatch says the notorious Belle Boyd has been again arrested and lodged in her old place in the old capitol. She was sent to Richmond some months since with orders not to come back. She returned about two months since and went to Philadelphia, where she lived in a house of ill-fame, dressing in male attire.—She went from there to Martinsburg, Va., where she has been for some time, and where she was arrested.

☞ The new gunboat Saco was launched at the Charlestown Navy Yard on Friday afternoon.

☞ Greek fire is naptha, pitch, arsenical alcohol and assafœtida.

The furniture was saved, but all farming utensils and carriages were destroyed. Insured for $4500 at Portsmouth. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The buildings were elegant, and very valuable.

☞ The iron-clad Ozark, at St. Louis, is to be completed for sea service immediately. ☞ A dispatch received by Gov. Seymour from his agent in Washington, announces that the President will credit on the draft all volunteers mustered into service up to the day preceeding the draft.

☞ A superb sword was presented to Gen. Meade, on Friday afternoon, by Brig. Gen. Crawford, commanding the Pennsylvania Reserves, in the name of the Division. The sword was presented to Gen. Meade in a brief and appropriate speech, to which the recipient responded, and was followed by Col. Roberts, Gov. Curtin and others.

DANA'S MANUAL OF GEOLOGY.

Friend Miller:—It is nearly five years since I passed in careful review, in the columns of your paper, the merits of nearly all the works on Geology that had ever issued from the American press. There was none even approximated to what the text book of an American College should be. I then announced a forthcoming work from Prof. Dana, of Yale College, which I predicted would mark an era in the study of Geology in this land. This I did because I knew the man, his attainments and his views.—But the gestation of the book proves to have been beyond all my calculations: ill health and extreme solicitude for its perfections kept it back till this spring.

I have just finished a careful perusal of it, and sit down to report upon it. In many respects the book is different from what I anticipated. It is much larger. It is not one continuous history entirely, but the "Historical Geology" is preceded by 40 pages of "Physeographic Geology," i. e., Physical Geography; and 50 pages of "Lithological Geology," containing Mineralogy, and a description of the kinds of rocks, cleavage, stratification, &c., &c. Then comes the grand work with a whole system of Zoology, split up and put in as it is needed. This occupies 478 pages. It is followed by Dynamical Geology, and the effects of fire, water and life; and six pages of Cosmogony, chiefly in explanation of the First Chapter in Genesis.

Such is its arrangement. I took it up to read for others. I expected but little new, who had long conversed with the science. But in this I was greatly disappointed.—No: only were old facts presented in a new and more natural order, but an immense number of American facts gathered out of all the Geologic Surveys and Pacific R. R. Explorations, and Boundary Surveys, were collated to their places, and I here first read American Geology.

Europe is a broken country. The Pyrenees, Alps, Appenines, Carpathian chain, Dovrefield and Ural Mountains; to say nothing of those of Central France, Germany, Wales and Scotland, are in strange contrast to the few vast chains in North America—which Dana considers a continent entirely distinct from its southern twin. We trace it back to a vast island in the shape of the letter V—having Hudson's Bay within its arms, and extending no further south than the Great Lakes and northern New York. Gradually it grew to the S. E. and the S. W., till two rivers emptied into the Mexican Gulf at Cairo, while an immense sea occupied the place of the Rocky Mountains. So the Upper Mississippi is older than the Missouri, and is fairly entitled to the name. Still later two forces pushing from the Atlantic and Pacific crushed in the shores, and the land had no place without rising in huge wrinkles, increasing gradually in height for a few millions of years, perhaps, but not without some terrific convulsions, in one of which the broken rocks were crushed about 10,000 feet out of place. After this comes the mysterious Drift Period, rasping down the sub frigid and cold temperate parts of all lands by some unknown agency, which Dana inclines to think was that of glaciers of almost continental dimensions.

I am curious to know the effect of this book on the Geologists of Europe. About 1836 they obtained a few copies of the Geological survey of Massachusetts by a man then almost wholly unknown to them, Prof. Hitchcock, of Amherst College. It brought back from Germany a compliment in English, beginning with "Egregious Professor." Next came a large work on New York about 1840, and others in rapid succession. But they were something like the separated parts of a Chinese Puzzle, till Dana's Manual gives them the key and puts them together, a stupendous whole such as they hoped their children would live to see. We are amazed ourselves to see the immense field of America more thoroughly spaded up than the small garden of Europe, with more time and the munificence of regal governments to help.

I have now about a dozen works on Geology, that I could as well give away as not. Lyell's Principles and Elements I cannot spare. Mrs. Hillside's Geology is a good one to lend to any one who is pressed for time; but Dana promises an abridgement of his manual that may supercede this, too. Hugh Miller's Testimony of the Rocks is precious to me. I value the local surveys I have been able to obtain, but all else I have than above mentioned is now mere rubbish.

Dana has 984 engravings, and all of them different. Most of them are new to the readers of American Text Books. I miss that Dinotherium lying quitly down on his left side, that I have in ten or twenty books, including Webster's Pictorial. I hardly know how a Geology would be complete without that ancient fellow. Restorations are rather daring, but I like them. Dana gives us one fine one, but with no animals in it. I wish in his abridgment he would give us that reptilian fight I have seen in some English work. But of the enormous number in the manual there are none I wish to spare. Dana is sound on the unity of our race, and the permanence of species. So are most true naturalists, but none has done so much as he to establish the latter point. I would rely upon him to meet the assaults of the whole of them, from Lamark down to Darwin, including the author of the Vestiges of Creation, of course. But I can add no more. The book of 1863, in my opinion, is DANA'S MANUAL OF GEOLOGY—published by Theo. Bliss & Co., Philadelphia, 798 pp 8vo; price $4. Yours,

I. F. H.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hazard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not fear of our ever frowning, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

STARTLING! BUT TRUE.—The Volunteers are braving the dangers of Fever, Scurvy, Wounds and Cholera. Many a gallant fellow will leave his bones to bleach, who, by the aid of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, would have returned to his family strong and healthy. Soldiers, try them! Only 25 cents per box or pot. 22

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be sold in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

[L. S.] Concord, August 19, 1863.

For the information of all interested, it is hereby announced, that the draft is made according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, or sub-districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The District Provost Marshals have nothing to do with the claims of the different towns for men heretofore furnished. But, when the Governor shall make it appear to the Provost Marshal General, that particular towns have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued directing a credit to the service of the United States a number of men called into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged before leaving the State.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose sold on exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

Probate Advertisements.

The language of the law relating to the publication of Probate Notices is:

"The party required to publish any notice ordered by the Judge of Probate to be given in a newspaper, may select the paper therefor."

Will our subscribers remember this, and when they have occasion to do business at the Probate Office, if agreeable, request that their notices may be ordered for the Chronicle or the Gazette; otherwise a different paper may be selected.

Our terms are as low as those of any other paper.

Local.

☞ The examination of drafted men is daily going on in this city—the general results appearing in Capt. Godfrey's advertisements in these columns each morning.—It will be seen that a considerable portion of Rockingham County has been gone through with; and to complete this and Strafford County, will doubtless occupy nearly all of September—as we infer, from the fact of Dover conscripts being ordered to appear in Portsmouth for examination, on the 15th, Wakefield on the 21st we believe, &c.

All goes on smoothly and quietly, though the Provost Marshal's office is usually thronged with men from morning till night, and more or less of a crowd waits outside. Many subjects are surprised at being "passed" as seaworthy, or war-worthy; and others give sign of equal astonishment, that they are not accepted—which only goes to show, probably, that it is not every man who is qualified to be an examining surgeon, especially for himself.

☞ It is a matter of astonishment to most people, that so many of our young men are unfit for soldiers, on account of "disability" in one form or another—and all right-minded persons, must regret it, for themselves or others. The ladies evince the most interest in this matter—and well they may, for "none but the brave deserve the fair," and it might not make so much odds, after all, save in the principle of the thing, whether a man's moral or physical knees or arm failed him in the hour of trial.

We heard a group of unconditionally-loyal ladies talking the matter over the other evening. Says a married one, "I am ashamed of the present race of Americans, that so few of them are sound in body, not to mention mind." "So am I," says a younger maiden—"I don't think disabled exempts ought to be allowed to marry." "Oh, dear, but," says another charmer, "where then shall any of us get husbands, at least until 'this cruel war is over?' How few of us girls can get married!"

We came away just at that interesting point of the debate, and so can't tell what the decision was; but we could but think that "change" must be very scarce or very precious in any true man's pocket, who would not be willing to pay $300 for the consciousness of being a whole man—no matter what his ideas of politics or war.

☞ In order that as full and satisfactory an explanation as possible may be given, of the sad accident on Friday morning last, we willingly insert the following:—

FORT SULLIVAN, Aug. 29th, 1863.

Editor of the Portsmouth Chronicle,

Sir:—Having seen in your paper this morning an account of the accident which happened yesterday, by which the son of Mr. Wm. Trefethen was killed, and two more boys slightly wounded, I beg to give you a true statement of the case. I sent an officer over to inquire into the particulars, who reported that the mother said she did not know we were firing shot until the third one struck the boat, at the time they were just shoving off to come home. At the time of firing no boats were to be seen anywhere about the island, as an officer was constantly on the look out with a spy-glass. I am sure none of the officers knew of the island being frequented, or we certainly should not have fired.

We fired nothing but shot, and an interval of at least twenty minutes was given after each shot to enable any persons or boats to get out of the way. At the time the boat was struck, she was completely hidden by the point.

Every care and precaution was used to prevent any accident. Reports sometimes are exaggerated by too frequent repetition, and I think by your publishing a card in your paper contradicting the statement that the accident occurred by the careless use of the guns (which was in your paper this morning) it may allay some of the ill feeling which has already shown itself towards this post. All the officers here deeply sympathize with the friends of the deceased.

By noticing the above you will greatly oblige, Yours truly,

W. H. SMITH, Act'g Master, Comd'g.

By request of the Selectmen of the town, John Bennett, Esq., of this city, (who, as a Justice of the Peace and the Quorum, is authorized by the laws of this State to act as Coroner,) held an inquest at New Castle on Saturday. The boy who was killed was William J. Trefethen, son of Wm. Trefethen, and was about 11 years of age. The jury consisted of Messrs. Thomas Tarlton, Thomas J. Tarlton, and John W. Bickford, of New Castle. The evidence went to show that the deceased was shot by a cannon ball fired from the battery on Seavey's Island; that his younger brother was severely injured by the effects of the same shot; that four shots were fired, the third striking the boy in the side, just above the hip, and, passing across the body, nearly cutting him in two, at the same time shattering the boat and throwing its occupants into the water; that the fourth shot struck very near where the boat lay; and that the shots were all fired directly towards Pest Island, at a time when there were many persons upon it,—it was stated by some, as many as fifty persons. The verdict of the jury was to the effect that the boy was killed by a ball fired from the battery on Seavey's Island, by some person to the jury unknown.

☞ It has been easy enough to procure substitutes for drafted men here—and but few have commuted with the $300, and we have not heard of a single case where a drafted man must enter the service against his will, notwithstanding all the hue and cry.

The great and vexing question has been whether a substitute is fully enlisted, or mustered in, when the Provost Marshal has accepted and sworn him. And the decision seems to be that he is—and that no further examination or ceremony of any sort is necessary—but that when a substitute is "sworn in" by a Provost Marshal, he is really and fully in the service of the United States. So, we are told, Gen. Hinks, at Concord, decides; and so, it would seem, must everybody decide who examines the matter. And this being the case, of course there is no risk in advancing to substitutes the city or town bounty, $300, which must be repaid, in the ten days specified, by the towns themselves; and if a substitute deserts, the principal is in no way responsible. The difference of opinion has, doubtless, arisen from confusing the former volunteer recruiting, by the State, and the present drafting by the United States directly.

☞ Mr. Henry N. Danielson, of this city, and his son, 8 or 9 years of age, were drowned on Sunday morning, about half-past 11 o'clock, while sailing in his whaleboat. The boat was seen suddenly to capsize, between Fort Constitution and Wood Island, fill and go down. There were several other boats and vessels near by at the time, but those on board saw nothing of Mr. Danielson or his son after his boat capsized.

☞ The whole number of drafted men examined at the Provost Marshal's office in this city on Thursday was 40. Of these, 14 were accepted; 26 were exempted, and 13 furnished substitutes.

The whole number examined on Friday was 97. 43 were accepted; 54 exempted, and 6 furnished substitutes.

The whole number examined on Saturday was 100. 55 were accepted; 45 were exempted, 16 furnished substitutes, and 5 paid the commutation.

☞ Two of the gentlemen sent on by Gov. Gilmore to look after disabled soldiers of the 15th and 16th N. H. regiments have returned and report, among others the following:—

At Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 25, John Higgins, Co K, 16th, Portsmouth; nearly well; and Hiram French, Co K, 16th, consumption; may get home.

At Albany, N. Y., Aug. 26, Isaac C. Drew, Co. K, 16th, Portsmouth; doing pretty well.

☞ Bachman & Co. advertise for cloakmakers. They have remodeled and refitted their store for the fall business; and will keep a good stock of ladies' outside garments ready manufactured, or cloths and trimmings for the same, for sale or to make up to order.

☞ Thomas J. Whittle, of Manchester, late a member of the 1st N. H. Battery, has been commissioned a 2d Lieutenant in the second company of heavy artillery to be stationed at Fort Constitution, and to be under the command of Capt. Ira McL. Barton, formerly of the 5th regiment.

☞ The Dover Conscripts have been notified to report at the Provost Marshal's Office in this city, Sept. 16, and intend to come in a body, accompanied by the Dover Cornet Band.

☞ Mr. John Shaw, a native of England, and a member of Company K, 16th Regiment, N. H. V., died in this city on Saturday evening.

☞ Those two negro chimney sweeps, a man and a boy, from Wilmington, Del., appeared in our streets on Saturday.

☞ The Board of Aldermen have authorized the Mayor to cause the North Bell to be rung daily at 12 o' clock, M.

☞ Maj. Sayles, of the 2d N. H. Regiment, was in town on Saturday.

☞ We have a letter, at the Chronicle office, awaiting the call of "M. L. P.'s." advertisement a few days since.

☞ The Bath Times states that a man in that city, who thought lobsters were not good except in months in the names of which the letter r occurred, immediately purchased one when the dealer spelt August, O-r-g-u-s-t.

☞ Capt. Thos. F. Craven of the Navy has been promoted to the grade of Commodore from the 16th of July, 1862.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.

We have kept a few Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR.

(Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

[For the Chronicle.]

ON LIFE'S THRESHOLD.

The way looks very long and dark and drear
That leads through this strange life to life immortal.
The great world's din is filling me with fear,
As I stand trembling at its awful portal.

For I have walked till now in quiet places—
With Nature, in her woods and fields and dells;
The flowers look at me with familiar faces;
I know the story that the wild bird tells.

I've watched the Autumn sun's transcending splendor
Flood heaven and earth and sea at day's decline;
I've watched the harvest moon rise, calm and tender,
And fair June mornings wake, with smiles divine.

With low sweet melody of running water,
With wild leaf music, song of bird and bee,
Has Nature welcomed me, where I sought her,
And never discord marred her harmony.

O! bone of earth's sad sounds and sights have ever
Disturbed the quiet of these blessed years.
And must I bid these joys farewell forever,
To walk henceforward in a vale of tears?

The world looks very cold and dark and dreary,
As I stand trembling at its open gate—
I hear within the sighing of the weary—
If I must enter, let me longer wait.

I hear, from out its dark and frowning portal,
No sounds but those of sin and woe and death,
No yearning prayers for life and light immortal,
But only cries for bread that perisheth.

And through the open gate of that sad city,
Are strange, dark faces gazing out on me.
Oh! how my heart revels with a shuddering pity
For those, whose life is one long misery!

For women, with sick still and hopeless faces—
For men, whose passions live, whose souls are dead—
For childhood, without childhood's sunny graces,
For age, without the glory round its head.

Are these the sights for which I leave the mountains,
The dark 'ld meadows, and the blossoms fair?
Must I exchange the song of birds and fountains
For this dread wailing of the world's despair?

O, selfish soul! the peace which God has given,
Which keeps thee safe amid temptation's fires,
The living bread that cometh down from heaven
And satisfies thine infinite desires;

With these go bravely forth to meet thy duty.
Within those gloomy gates that duty lies.
Fear not the darkness—it will change to beauty
When Christ of Nazareth shall anoint thine eyes.

Beneath the weight of this unending sorrow,
Behold Him bending—Him who died for thee.
Hear how these moans of human anguish borrow
The pathos of His pleading agony.

No time remains for dreams nor for complaining.
Childhood is past—put childish things away.
Christ calls thee by his spirit's sweet constraining,
Arise and work for him, while it is day.

O World! thy darkness can affright no longer—
Within its depths the living God doth dwell.
Evil is mighty, but His Love is stronger—
Stronger than pain and sin and death and hell!

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are suspended with plasters which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the top of the broiler is a large copper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the disagreeable use of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be kept burning night and day for weeks together, thus saving the expense of rekindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other stove. We refer to families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive double arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pots, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off in a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 40 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sides, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully announce to his patrons and the public that VULCANIZED RUBBER as a base for artificial Teeth promises all the advantages of Gold, at costs only half as much. My experience has been highly satisfactory in its use, and I have no hesitation in saying it is A RAVENING PERFECT SATISFACTION in all respects.

Teeth inserted on Gold and Silver, and all other operations performed as usual.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. BREWSTER, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. DENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect ease, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.

All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. TUESDAY SEPT. 1, 1863. NO. 52.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

SURINAM.—The Surinam Courant gives the following account of the proceedings at that place on the 1st of July, the day of the emancipation from slavery in the Dutch colonies:

"Paramaribo, July 1.—At six o'clock this morning, on the occasion of the termination of slavery, a salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the Fort Zeelandia, and flags were at the same time hoisted from all the vessels in the harbor, as well as from the houses of the inhabitants of the city. At 8 o'clock, A. M., came a great many of all classes, who went to the different churches to be present at the thanks and prayers for this occasion. The Moravian church was handsomely decorated with flowers and festoons, and was as full as it could possibly be. After divine service, the emancipants went to the Governor's residence, and there offered their thanks for the boon thus granted to them; after which they sang some verses pepared for the occasion by the Moravian Brothers, and also returned thanks to the King in the air of 'Wien Nederlandsch bloed.'" Thence they went to the residence of the Procureur General, government secretaries, and the commissary who has superintendence over them. The day passed quietly and pleasantly, and the emancipants showed such good conduct as makes them deserving of all praise, and proves that they highly value their freedom and that they will show that they are worthy of it."

The Workingmen of Surinam will hereafter have the right to work for themselves, or for pay,—not for somebody else to eat the fruit of their unpaid toil.

ARMING SLAVES AT THE SOUTH.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger learns "through trustworthy sources that the South has, as yet, taken no measures for the equipment and drilling of the slaves for active service in the field, though should it be really driven to this necessity, their services will undoubtedly be brought into requisition. Altogether, it is computed that the South has at its command from eight hundred thousand to one million able-bodied slaves which it could place in the field as soon as armed, but it is not calculated to draw out, say one-fifth of this number, the remainder being requisite for their accustomed labors on the plantations.

When the measure is fairly forced upon the South, we shall probably witness a levy of about 200,000 of her slaves, which will leave not far from 700,000 able-bodied hands (not including the females) to carry on the agricultural pursuits necessary for the maintenance of both the white and black population."

Well, says Uncle Toby, when the skies fall we shall catch larks.—There is no telling what men may do when they become desperate: but it must be desperation indeed that can drive the rebel leaders into a general arming of 200,000 slaves, thus turning them into soldiers. The rebel aristocracy made the war to secure their complete dominion over the workers of all colors, especially black: and now, they are to claim 200,000 blacks to aid in their own contrived enslavement, and put arms into their hands to do it.

The rebels can enforce this claim, if they see fit to run the risk: but the threats to do it show the weakness of the confederacy; and if it were done, it would at once show and hasten the downfall of slavery. When they do it, we will make a note of it.

☞ Gen. Ewing, commanding the Department of Kansas, issued an order on the 18th inst., directing that the slaves of disloyal men in the counties of Missouri in his district should, if they wish to leave the State, have a military escort into Kansas. A negro regiment is also to be raised in Kansas. These movements will hasten emancipation in the western part of Missouri.

☞ The Government has realized sixty thousand dollars from the sale of horses left by Morgan along his route through Indiana.

☞ Mr. L. Clay offers in the Gardiner, Me., Journal a reward of $10, for the recovery of an old umbrella, valued mainly for its antiquity, he having carried it for thirty years, never having any other.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1863.

THE REBELLION

Fort Wagner has not been taken, and cannot be at present. It will be left to Gen. Gilmore, while the fleet will go ahead, Sumter being knocked to pieces.

Gen Rosecrans' Army crossed the Tennessee river at four points on Sunday. Gen. Burnside is near Kingston, Tenn., intending to attack that place soon.

Floyd died at Abington, Va., last week.

The rebels are taking convicts from their prisons and putting them in their army.

Gen. Banks, it is said, will soon occupy Texas. Reinforcements sent down the river to him, are to make a land attack on Mobile, Pascagoula being the base operations.

It is repeatedly asserted that a native army of resistance to the rebel government, made up of deserters from their armies, is rapidly springing into existence in the South. Skirmishes between the deserters and soldiers are frequent.

Five deserters were executed at the Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac on Saturday.

The number of prisoners taken at Vicksburg, as shown by the rolls at the War Department, was 33,000.

It is not believed at Washington that Jeff. Davis is about to arm half a million slaves.

Charleston papers say that Gen. Gilmore's shells generally struck in the centre of the street. There was no serious fire caused by them.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Dr. C. W. Hunt, Assistant Surgeon of the 12th Regiment, died of fever at Point Lookout, on Tuesday the 25th. He belonged in Lawrence.

—— A dispatch has been received at Concord, announcing the death of Maj. Geo. W. Everett of the 9th regiment. He belonged in New London, and was a lawyer by profession.

—— Capt. Whipple, not Col. Whipple, as reported, of the 12th regiment, is ordered to show within fifteen days why he should not be dismissed from the army for absence without leave.

—— The American states that the annual meeting of the N. H. Conference of Congregational Churches closed its session at Haverhill on Friday morning last, having commenced on Monday. Prof. S. G. Brown, of Dartmouth, presided; Horace Webster, Esq., of this city, was Scribe. The President preached the Educational Sermon and Rev. Mr. Parker, of Concord, the Communion Sermon; Mr. Quinby, of New Ipswich, spoke in behalf of the Christian Commission. Addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Cook, of Hopkinton; Rev. Mr. Holbrook, of Dubuque, Iowa: Rev. Mr. Merrill, of New Ipswich, and others. A Committee was appointed to take into consideration the propriety of establishing a paper devoted to the interests of the denomination. The Conference passed a series of patriotic resolutions in support of the government, and also resolutions in regard to the action of the Trustees of Dartmouth College in declaring their fidelity to the government, and their determination to make the College in all respects worthy of the patronage of patriotic men.

THE MEN RAISED BY THE CONSCRIPTION.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says, that daily telegraphic reports are now made all over the country to the Provost Marshal General, of the number of men obtained, so that an approximation of the final result can be made. It is not thought that a hundred and fifty thousand men will exceed the number. Unless the brilliant Union successes continue rapidly, there must be more men raised, continues the correspondent.

☞ Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means of Congress, has given a written opinion that the payment of the $300 commutation and the furnishing a substitute have precisely the same effect. Either of them frees the drafted man from further draft for three years. He is in effect in service either by himself or another.

☞ A number of persons in the country who own bees say that there has not been, during the present summer, a single case of swarming within their observation. They do not pretend to give a satisfactory reason for the fact, but it is suggested that the great quantity of rain which fell during the swarming season, may possibly have interfered with the operations of the bees.

☞ $15,000 in Confederate bonds, certificates, &c., of various amounts, recently captured by a Pennsylvania regiment, have been sent to the Treasury Department, to be kept as specimens and mementoes of the currency of the Confederate States.

☞ Of nineteen thieves, substitutes in the Potomac army, who tried to desert a few days ago, ten were shot dead and three drowned.

BLOOMERISM OR EXTERMINATION.

Friend Miller:—Rarely have I been so saddened as by this extract I send you from that Irish Romanist Jesuit Copperhead paper, the Boston Pilot. There is too much truth in its boastings, albeit fecundity is the attribute of the lowest races of animals and plants, and the element of power by which insects, otherwise contemptible, become a resistless scourge.

"The native stock of New England is rapidly diminishing. According to the birth reports, there were born in 1861, in Massachusetts, of American parents, 16,097 children; and of foreign 16,125—leaving a balance of 28 on the foreign side. * * * * Thus run the currents, the Irish stream flowing in with great health, vigor, strength and purity, and the old Puritan race slipping rapidly away under the impulse of FOUR VICES. This is a startling fact. It is impossible to deny it. Our people come here with nothing: look at the grip they have to day on the soil! The settled Puritan and his vices is melting away before the emigrant Irishman and his virtues.(?)— This is no invention of ours. It is a fact attested by the statistics of the State, and by the statistics of the medical faculty of the State. We have the majority. By the report of 1861 we have it in the clearest manner. If none but purely Puritan were given in that report, it would appear that we had a surprising majority. Thank God we have not decreased in the land of our adoption! There was, and there is yet, detestable national and religious bigotry before us. But what have they effected against the poor emigrant Catholic of Ireland? We have spread our faith; we have spread ourselves—and nothing can restrain us. We are now greatly predominant in birth. How long will it take us to be equally predominent in everything else? Not long. The Catholicizing and Hibernicizing of the land, and the disappearance of the Puritan, are progressing with swiftness."

I suppose, with the editor of the Pilot, that the facts are more against us than would appear from the statistics; for hundreds of the "American parents" are as pure Irish as if born in Cork. But how comes this to pass? The old men who died forty years ago were fathers of not less than ten children each on the average. Five children is rather a large family for genteel parents now. Whence the change? About the middle of the last half-century, it became fashionable to compress the chests of young ladies to improve their form!— This custom did not cease till it had told fearfully in the bills of mortality. In certain circles in New York city, it was said that a healthy mother was scarcely to be found. Since then, dress, though inflicting less pain and less positive violence, has steadily repressed the increase of population. Styles of dress condemning the wearer to an in-door life, or rendering activity difficult, have one followed another. The stock grower would not breed from animals so degenerate, nor could he secure a large increase from a flock so debased in physique.

But choice has more to do with smallness of families than I would willingly believe.— Although the law of nature is that large families should be happier than small, yet in the present state of society a family of twelve, like my mother's, is hardly desirable. Children were not then the semi-cripples, the helpless, whining things we now see. If they had less brain and nerve they had more bone, muscle and lung. Nor did it cost more to dress two girls in hand-woven, than it does to array one little lady in the products of the power-loom. The two girls come at length to pay their way: the deficit against the little lady grows with her growth and strengthens with her growing helplessness. Now I do not wish the child's muscles should be taxed with more useful labor than the least that will completely develop them; nor more of a girl's mind taken for household duties than is needful to acquire wifely skill.

But there is another consideration weighing on this point more than the mere cost of a large family. How shall I approach it with delicacy? The wife has not the bodily vigor of her mother, and says truly that she cannot bear so much. Under circumstances in which her mother was hearty and happy, her life is a burden to her. Unless the voice of nature be strong in the poor creature, what her mother would have regarded as a sad calamity, is hailed by her as a speedy relief from sufferings she cannot endure. How can she be made to comprehend the price she pays for her deliverance from a half-year's living martyrdom? She little dreams of the influence the events of a week exert on her health through all coming years. But she sometimes is more than willing to escape from the regular course of nature. A woman confesses that dreading the future, she sets about her housework with the utmost energy; she overdoes, and is sick in consequence. My comment on the transaction is, that had she administered strychnine to that rant of a boy she now has, and been more careful of herself, it might have been better than it is. On the comparative sin of the two transactions, the Spartan and the modern 'Puritan' would be unable to agree.

But the "four vices." Were I a Romish priest I could tell you all about them, and about every other vice or sin ever known to mortal; but being only a Yankee quill-driver, I could but guess if I would. Childless wife, can you tell what that Jesuit means by his four vices? If you can, tell it not even in the Fejee Isles. But there is yet another aspect of this matter. The temper and character of this debilitated and artificial race cannot be the same with that of their grandmothers. I speak from speculation merely, and not from observation, when I say that they must often be fretful and peevish, in many cases a life long burden to themselves and their supporters.— To the knowing young man, matrimony has not the inducements that it had a hundred years ago.

Lastly: It is only in a highly civilized state of society that men find themselves too poor to marry. There are men with $1000 clear annually in this predicament exactly; and Miss Flora McFlimsey is an old maid in consequence. Time was when a young man who could maintain himself decently, could also maintain a family. If his two hands could supply one mouth, four hands could supply two, three or more. Verdant youth, dream not of that Arcadia. It is as extinct as Boalbec or Palmyra. Now for the remedy. Let us make the tyrant Fashion recede a few steps. Make Physiology her prime minister. Call Philosopy and Finance to her Council of State. Vain project! There is no remedy but in revolution. "But do you really think that the Bloomer dress is as becoming as crinoline?" I beg your pardon, Madam; you wander from the point. The question is not between crinoline and bloomerism but between bloomerism and extermination. Whose shall be this broad and beautiful land only fifty years hence? Shall a majority in twenty-four States, gained by mere porcine prolificness, change our constitution and make the Romish religion the only one to be tolerated? Or shall we rely on distilleries to save our liberties by the deadly power of their milk and their whiskey? No, let human nature assume in the hearts of our daughters the place now usurped by fashion; let their bodies be disenthralled and invigorated, and let the Bible secure the liberties of their numerous progeny.

WACAWANDA.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hazard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot but tell to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not fear of our ever frowning, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

STARTLING! BUT TRUE.—The Volunteers are braving the dangers of Fever, Scurvy, Gangrene and Cholera. Many a gallant fellow will leave his bones to bleach, who, by the aid of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, would have returned to his family strong and healthy. Soldiers, try them! Only 25 cents per box or pot. 22s

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking questions of the long catalogue of cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHITAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

HUNNEWELL'S TOLU ANODYNE.—This most wonderful and reliable preparation which has earned its true name and fame, by results which had baffled every other attempt at relief in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Nervous Head Ache, Tooth and Ear Ache, Bowel Complaints, Hysteria, Distress after Eating, Loss of Sleep, General Nervous Debility, Paroxisms in Whooping Cough, and Asthma, which fully cure to be largely Nervous, and also declared to be one of the most important points in Materia Medica.

This valuable preparation should be in every Family, as no description equals its real necessity, or its splendid results.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26y

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those who want a good clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

For the information of all interested, it is hereby announced, that the draft is made according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, or sub-districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The Current Provost Marshal have nothing to do with the claims of the different towns for men heretofore furnished. But, when the Governor shall make it appear to the Provost Marshal General, that particular towns have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a number of men called into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged, before leaving the State.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged due to the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill.

LAUNCH ON DRY LAND.—The nice little steamer "Firefly", belonging to E. A. Straw, Esq., of Manchester, was lowered to the street on Monday afternoon, from the shop of Mr. John W. Townsend, on State street, where the craft was built. The Firefly is 32 feet long, 7 feet beam, and 4 feet depth of hold; and goes to Manchester per mail, for her machinery. We believe they call her about ten tons burthen; and if between her builder (who has had considerable experience in modelling fast yachts &c.,) and her enterprising owner, (who ought to know how to run almost any sort of a machine by this time) they miss of getting out a clipper which will astonish our inland friends, then we miss our guess.

And speaking of Mr. Straw,—we observe that he is greatly improving and embellishing his cottage and grounds at Rye Beach, near the old Ocean House.

And we also learn that other cottages are to be built there this fall, for private families' private use.

☞ A schooner, bound from Bangor to Salem, put into our lower harbor, and during the absence of her Captain on Sunday, the mate (who is said to have learned that he had been drafted) ran away with the vessel. The Captain observed that he was spreading the sails, and came up to the Navy Yard for assistance, and the yacht America, tender to the Marion, went in pursuit of the runaway vessel.

Some state that the vessel was bound to the Navy Yard, with lumber, and that there had been some dispute between the captain and the mate. We have been unable to learn her name.

☞ A building at East Boston, in which the Atlantic Iron Works were constructing the turrets for the iron-clad being built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, was burnt on Monday. It is not known how much they were injured: they were insured for $2500 each.

☞ Mr. William Denton will give a series of lectures on Geology, at the Temple, commencing on Thursday evening next.—His lectures will be illustrated by fine oil paintings. Geology is an attractive and important science, and Mr. Denton comes highly recommended.

☞ We regret to learn that Mayor Dearborn is seriously sick.

☞ Russell, the former correspondent of the London Times, says that it requires "immense faith to believe that the South can continue her resistance to the North in the field."

THE SPEAKERSHIP.—We understand that the Republican members of Congress from the West are agreeing, with singular unanimity, to present the name of E. B. Washburn of Illinois as Speaker of the House on meeting. We are glad to know that this is so. Mr. Washburn is pre-eminently a true man. Long experience has made him perfectly familiar with parliamentary rules and usages, and he has that undaunted courage which will enable him to enforce those rules and make those usages respected.—Chicago Tribune.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials bel ow given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend those desirous to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

CLOTHES WRINGER.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. ...o family should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR.

(Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to pro ure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

PARODY.

We find the following outrageous parody upon McKay's "Tell me, ye winged winds" going the rounds:

Tell me, ye winged winds,
That round my pathway roar,
Do you not know some spot
Where women feel no more?
Some lone and pleasant dell,
Some "hotter" in the ground,
Where babies never yell,
And crabies are not found?
The loud wind blew the snow into my face,
And snickered as it answered—"Vary place."

Tell me, thou misty deep,
Whose billows round me play,
Knowest thou some favored spot,
Some island far away,
Where weary man may find
A place to smoke in peace,
Where crinoline is not,
And hoops are out of place?
The loud waves, sounding a perpetual shout,
Stopped for a while, and spattered,—"You git out!"

And thou, serenest moon,
That, with such holy face,
Dost look upon the girls
When they their beaux embrace,
Tell me, in all thy round,
Hast thou not seen some spot
Where mosquitoes are not found,
And collies bite?
Behind a cloud the moon withdrew in woe,
And a voice, sweet, but sad, responded—"Yah!"

Tell me, my secret soul—
Oh! tell me, Hope and Faith,
Is there no resting place
From women, girls and death?
Is there no happy spot
Where bustles are not allowed;
Where females never go
And man may dwell in peace?
Faith, Hope and Love—best boons to mortal given,
Waved their bright wings, and answered—"Yes, in Heaven!"

☞ The rebel paper, the Richmond Examiner, disapproves of the "Yankee" institution of fast days. It says:

"Fast days and thanksgiving strike the Southern ear with a puritanical sound, always disagreeable, and now pre-eminently hateful. They smack of Latter-Day sanctity; savor of the nasal twang, and recall disagreeable reminiscences of Praise God-Barebones, the Pilgrim Father and their Yankee descendants."

It is also 'down' on political preachers. It says:

"This revolution should secure us social as well as political independence. We should get rid of Yankee manners as well as of Puritan laws; and one of the most obnoxious is the vice of political preaching.
* * * * Let not our preachers discourse of Lincoln, or of Seward, of Davis, or of Lee. Let them fulminate against Pharaoh and Holofernes, and exalt Gideon and David. We have broken asunder from Yankee statesmanship and government; let us eschew their morality and manners. We have lowered the portcullis, and manned the battlements against the assaults of Seward, Greeley and Lovejoy. Great will be our mortification and sorrow if Beecher and Cheever should slip in by the postern."

RECONSTRUCTION.—In a leading article upon the subject of a Reconstruction of the Union, the New Bedford Mercury remarks that "it is easy to say slavery can never be re-habilitated; it is better to say it never must or never shall;"—

The loyal men of the disorganized States must rest them for the Union. But they must understand what that Union is to be, to which they are to return. If the old days of tarring and feathering men for the simple expression of opinion are not to return; if the time is to be ended, when in a Democratic republic the general government could more easily protect Martin Koiza in Austria, than a citizen of Massachusetts in South Carolina, then the cause of these outrages and of that weakness must be removed. It is to be a Union of free men, to which free men are invited to return.

☞ One of the Pennsylvania regiments styles itself "The old Sanguinaries." These men have been armed with smooth bore muskets, but on the morning of the battle of Gettysburg they shouted to their neighboring regiments that the "old Sanguinaries" would be armed with rifles before night. Their prediction was fulfilled. At nightfall nearly every man had supplied himself with a rebel English rifle.

☞ A lady was prosecuted in Perth, Scotland, recently, for keeping too many cats.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable article.
Descriptive Circulars
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are forced up by the admission of cold air through the fire-work, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases or the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best caloric, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer, them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Jr.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Lion, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular it can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all respects it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. WEDNESDAY SEPT. 2, 1863. NO. 53.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exist the right, though everyism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

EARLY RISING AND PRAYER.

When first thy eyes unveil, give thy soul leave
To do the like; our bodies but forerun
The spirit's duty; true hearts spread and heave
Unto their God, as flowers do to the sun:
Give him thy first thoughts then, so shalt thou keep Him company all day, and in Him sleep.

Yet never sleep the sun up; prayer should Dawn with the day: there are set awful hours
'Twixt heaven and us; the manna was not good
After sun rising; far day sullies flowers:
Rise to prevent the sun; sleep doth sins glut,
And heaven's gate opens when the world's shut.

When the world is up, and every swarm abroad,
Keep well thy temper, mix not with each clay;
Dispatch necessities; life hath a load
Which must be carried on, and safely may;
Yet keep these cares without thee; at the heart
He God's alone and those the better part.

—HENRY VAUGHAN.

HOPE.

Hope's the top window of that ark
Where all God's Noahs do embark;
Hope lets in sky light, else how dark
Were such a season!

Wouldst thou not be engulphed or drowned
When storms and tempests gather round,
Ere thou cast anchor, try the ground;
Hope must have reason.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of the most practical experience of unlimited extent, DR. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed, and that, if administered them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases ruined by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. None of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to the habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the married life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied unto him, broken down in health, to now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1862. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the sale chum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands so badly. Since then, I have had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's PANACEA; and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 21, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and that, previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may29ly

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1863.

THE REBELLION

Over a hundred of Quantrell's guerrillas have been killed.

It is stated that officers of the Wilmington blockading squadron regard the attempt to blockade that port with 8 gunboats when 30 are required, as a great farce. They also state that regular lines of packets, with advertised hours for sailing, are established between Nassau and Wilmington.

Richmond was frightened by the approach of 600 Yankee cavalry up the Peninsula on Thursday, and the Governor deemed it expedient to arouse the citizens before dawn, by causing a general ringing of the alarm bells for two hours.

A rebel dispatch reports that an assaul by the Federal troops on Fort Wagner, on the 26th, was repulsed. The citizens are recommended to keep a constant supply of water on hand to extinguish fires caused by the incendiary shells.

Jeff. Davis has written a letter to the citizens of Mobile, appealing to them to stand by him. It is said they are anxious to surrender the place.

Guerrillas are again operating in Kentucky to some extent.

A fleet of gunboats, with a monitor, have gone up the Rappahannock to recapture the gunboats recently taken from us.

The steamer Alice Vivian, from Mobile, with cotton, and the Crescent, from Havana for Mobile, with a full and assorted cargo of merchandize, have been captured by the U. S. steamer DeSoto.

Advices from the army of Gen. Rosecrans indicate the success of his forward movement.

The Government at Washington anticipates that a great and decisive battle will take place in Arkansas during the early part of the present month.

WHY GOV. SEYMOUR DID NOT RESIST THE DRAFT.—Abbe McMasters, of New York, addressed a copperhead meeting at Dubuque, Iowa, on the 22d inst., in which he is reported to have said that Gov. Seymour had done all it was prudent to do in opposing the draft. "It is not safe," said the speaker, "to oppose the draft now.—New York is full of Federal bayonets. We had a riot, but the tax-payers, many of whom are Democrats, will have to pay for the destruction of property, and it will come hard on them. As a question of brute force it is not policy to make war on the government now. We tried it once and it did not pay."

SINGULAR FREAK OF LIGHTNING.—The Detroit Advertiser, after stating that during a thunder storm of Sunday afternoon last a young lady named Dunn was killed by lightning, adds:

About the time of the occurrence a flash of lightning struck the bayonet of a gun in the hands of a soldier in a sentry-box at the barracks, running down the barrel and splintering it into several pieces, without doing any injury to the soldier except to stun him rather severely. After having his gun so unceremoniously snatched out of his hand, the soldier stepped from the sentry-box and called out, "Corporal of the Guard! post No. 3." Pretty good soldier to stand such a "fire" as that, and coolly perform his duty in calling his officer. He had joined the service only a few days before as a recruit for the 27th regiment. He'll do to fight rebels.

☞ Reports from Texas state that there are at least one hundred vessels loaded with contraband cargoes for the rebels, off the Rio Grande. Several of them are British steamers, waiting for cotton which the rebel Government have contracted to deliver at Matamoras, to the extent of nine thousand bales, during the month of August.

☞ Capt. Edward M. King, of Charlestown, formerly in the merchant service, is now an acting master in the navy, and in command of the iron-clad gunboat Key West, of the Tennessee river flotilla. Capt. King is a brother of the Rev. T. Starr King.

☞ Two boats' crews from the U. S. bark Fernandina, were employed in dragging in the river, for the bodies of Mr. Danielson and son, on Tuesday—we believe unsuccessfully.

☞ About twelve o'clock, Monday night, an attempt was made to break into the Post Office at Newburyport. The burglar had cut through a window at the back door, when he was frightened away, leaving a ladder and chisel behind.

☞ W. Carter, the clerk of Paymaster McFarland, who recently stole $40,000 from the latter, has been tried by a military court, found guilty and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the Albany Penitentiary. The money has been recovered.

☞ It is announced that no draft will be made in Ohio. Officers of the army sent home to secure drafted men are instructed to open recruiting stations for enlistment.

☞ That five thousand dollar story about John Morrissey has been dwarfed down to the fact that he paid his $300.

GEN. DIX AND GOV. SEYMOUR.—The New York Express having made some remarks reflecting on the conduct of the Government, in withdrawing so many troops from the seat of war to New York, and having also stated that the conquest of that city seemed of much more importance to the Administration just now than the conquest of Virginia, Gen. Dix forwarded to that paper, the correspondence between him and Gov. Seymour, explaining the reasons why he asked a military force from the War Department while the draft was in progress in New York.

[Here let us remark (says Uncle Toby) that the murderous rioters of New York are faithful allies of the rebels, and their action has really drawn a small army and a small squadron to New York, to keep traitors in awe, when the army and squadron are wanted to put down the rebellion elsewhere. But to the correspondence.]

In a communication dated July 30, Gen. Dix wrote to Governor Seymour, inquiring whether the military power of the State could be relied on to enforce the law, in case of forcible resistance to it, and expressing the wish that there should be perfect harmony of action between the Federal Government and the State of New York on the subject. To this Gov. Seymour replied, on August 3, that he had written to the President in relation to the draft, and that his answer might relieve both parties from "the painful questions arising out of an armed enforcement of the conscription."

On the 8th of August Gen. Dix writes to Gov. Seymour again requesting an affirmative answer to the question already put to him, and repeats his desire to have the assurance that the military power of the State will be called out to support the law, "because under a mixed system of government like ours, it is best that resistance to the law should be put down by the authority of the State in which it occurs."

On the 13th of August Gov. Seymour writes Gen. Dix that the final answer of the President had been received, and Gov. Seymour talks about enforcing the State laws, but does not answer the question directly.

In a letter dated 18th of August, Gen. Dix informs Gov. Seymour that, not having received an answer to the question, whether the military power of the State of New York could be relied on to enforce the execution of the conscription law, he had applied to the War Department, and been furnished with national troops, and would be ready to meet all opposition to the draft.

A letter from Gov. Seymour, dated Aug. 20, winds up the correspondence, in the whole of which he is very careful neither to offend his "immediate constituents," nor promise to put them down if they break the laws of the United States.

He shows very clearly that Gen. Dix needed a good army to keep the traitors still.

ANOTHER LETTER TO JEFF. DAVIS.—The Chicago Tribune says the following letter was found in the house of Jeff Davis' brother Joe, in Jackson; the original is in the hands of an Illinois soldier. It is printed just as it is written:

PLATTE CITY, May 29th, 1853.

HON. JEFF. DAVIS:—Permit me to introduce my friend Judge Saml Treat, of St. Louis in this State. Judge Treat is a Gentleman of Talent and a politician of the Nullification, Secession and High Treason school to which I belong. He understands the true position of parties and men in this State, I desire that you will receive him with kindness and courtesy, listen to him and act as you think best.

Yours truly, D. R. ATCHISON.

Atchison it will be remembered, was formerly U. S. Senator from Missouri. In 1856 he led the border ruffians in their attack upon Lawrence, Kansas.

BEAUREGARD AND THE GREEK FIRE.—The Greek fire was first used against the fleet of the Saracens, in the seventh century. Its chief properties are, that it burns more briskly under water, and therefore cannot be extinguished by common appliances, and that its spread, or diffusion, is very rapid.

Beauregard objects to the Greek fire, on the ground of its inhumanity. The first shot fired at Fort Sumter, in 1861, was a most impudent challenge, from the South to the Union. The acceptance of this challenge was unavoidable, and, by the known laws of duelling, the party challenged has the choice of weapons.

Once, upon a time, a little Frenchman challenged an old-fashioned farmer, without any just cause. The Frenchman was very expert, with the small sword. The farmer appeared upon the ground; and, having the choice of weapons, had selected his trusty flail. The Frenchman made a pass—the first whirl of the flail knocked his weapon out of his grasp; and the second struck him on the side of his head—down went Parlez Vous, exclaiming with his last breath—a la mode de Beauregard—inhumanity!—Transcript.

☞ Fraudulent five dollar bills, greenbacks, purporting to be on the Government Bank, Washington, and signed G. Harvey Potter, President, and J. Winslow, Cashier, were circulated in Boston on Friday.—There is no such bank at Washington.

☞ The Rev. A. M. Haskell, pastor of the Barton Square Society in Salem, who was drafted, has been examined and passed, and is going to the war.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see Act of 1857.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove this. None is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and no SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he reasonably thinks that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. If the immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can safely employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, upon EIGHT OF WHICH patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability in his part I feel do recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

He is the happiest who does most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man in existence, for we hasard nothing in saying that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not hear of our ever frowning, as long as she can get the genuine Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if every body knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

STARTLING! BUT TRUE.—The Volunteers are braving the dangers of Fever, Scurvy, Wounds and Cholera. These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those who want a Calendar Clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the the clock. [L. S.]

For the information of all interested, it is hereby announced, that the Provost Marshals have, according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, or sub-districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The District Provost Marshals have nothing to do with the quotas, but have been before for men herefore furnished. But, when the Provost Marshal General, that particular town have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a sufficient number of men enlisted into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged before leaving the State.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in the development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy; and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, INFLUGRANS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

ALMOST A SUBSTITUTE.—Quite an amusing circumstance occurred yesterday, at the Provost Marshal's Office, in this city. As Lawrence D. Sanborn, of Epping, entered the examining department, he was accompanied by his father, Peter Sanborn, of Concord, State Treasurer, and by his substitute, (who, by the way, was a very good-looking man.) As is generally the case, the principal was seated upon the sofa, and Mr. Kent, the clerk, ordered the substitute, as he supposed, behind the screen to undergo examination. In a moment or so he was informed that he had taken the State Treasurer instead of the substitute. He soon rectified the mistake, and apologized to the Treasurer, but the circumstance caused no little merriment at the time.

☞ Six men charged with being deserters, who had enlisted and secured handsome bounties at Woodstock, Vermont, as substitutes for drafted men there; and who are said to have deserted and come to Portsmouth to re-enlist as subs,—were arrested here on Friday, by the Provost Marshal's guard, at the instance and information of the broker who carried the men from Boston to Woodstock. They were of course returned to the U. S. authorities—and such scoundrels ought to be tried by drum-head court-marsial, like other deserters.

☞ At a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen, the city clerk reported the following as the names of persons exempt from taxation to the amount of U. S. Stocks held by them:

Heirs of John N. Sherburne,	$3,000
Samuel Lord,	6,300
Heirs of Matthew S. Marsh,	2,000
" William Rice,	1,000
Jonathan M. Tredick,	5,000
" " Guardian,	6,000
Matthew B. Vennard,	2,500
Samuel D. Green,	500
Heirs of Henry P. Salter,	3,000
W. H. Y. Hackett,	6,000
William Lambert,	2,000

Voted that the Committee on Fire Department be authorized to terminate the rent of the barn on Warren St. occupied by the Department.

The Mayor, in accordance with a vote passed some time since, reported that the quota of the city under the first call for three years' men was 455, nine months' men 152; that the whole number of three years' men sent was 341, nine months' men 117; making a deficiency of 114 three years' men and 35 nine months' men; that the number in the Navy was 204; making an excess of 35 men, which should be credited on the present draft.

☞ We notice that in the Board of Aldermen reference has been made to "Jones' Lane." All right enough,—but we wish to call the attention of the Aldermen, the Mayor, Street Commissioner, Committee on Streets, or other proper officer, to the manner in which somebody has laid out another Jones' Lane—the continuation of State street, above Case, near Mr. Jones' new malt house. There is a very abrupt and bad crook in the street, which should not be allowed—and we should think it would have received the attention of our acting and active Street Commissioner ere this, from his near residence, and thus particular personal interest in the matter.

☞ The demolition of the Old South Meeting House brings to view some things long hidden. Among them is the old Bindge tomb, containing the dust of a distinguished family. The only door of the tomb is in the south wall of the cellar, inside the porch: and it is probable that porch was erected some time after the house was built. It is certain that the original gallery stairs were inside the house, in the two front corners, and not in the porches.

It appears from "Alden's Account," that Rev. Mr. Shurtleff's remains, as were those of his successor Mr. Strong, "were deposited under the communion table of his church."

As yet we see no tomb in that spot; but the removal of the floor in a day or two will probably disclose their grave—which has been covered from view for more than a century, as Mr. Shurtleff was buried in 1747, and Mr. Strong in 1751.

☞ Mr. Davis' Singing Schools this (Wednesday) afternoon and evening. See advertisement on the first page.

☞ Mr. William Denton will give a series of lectures on Geology, at the Temple, commencing on Thursday evening next.—His lectures will be illustrated by fine oil paintings. Geology is an attractive and important science, and Mr. Denton comes highly recommended.

☞ Many of the Public Schools in this city, commenced the Fall and Winter Session on Tuesday.

☞ Acting master Charles A. Boutelle, of Brunswick, Me., has been ordered to side-wheel steamer Sassacus.

☞ The name of Auburn street has been changed to Richards' Avenue.

☞ A new cross walk is to be laid from High street to the North Church.

☞ Naval Constructor Isaiah Hanscom has been detached from Portsmouth (N. H.) Navy Yard, and ordered to report at the Norfolk Yard. It is reported that Constructor Samuel M. Pook has been ordered to succeed him at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

☞ "The last rose of Summer has faded and gone," no doubt—for Autumn is with us—and comes in all loveliness, too. But Mr. Shores, at his bookstore, has a Japan Lily, in pot, in full flower, which is almost as beautiful and fragrant as the sweetest rose. Eight lilies are in full bloom,—there have been others, and are yet more buds—and this splendid flower is perfectly hardy. Mr. Shores also has superb specimens of astors.

☞ The turrets for the monitor at Portsmouth Navy Yard, in the building at East Boston, which was burnt on Monday, were nearly completed. They were not much injured, it is said, but work on them must be stopped for some time, as the machinery used in their construction was mostly destroyed. The machinery was very valuable and cannot be replaced for months.

☞ The price of substitutes, Saturday night and Monday, was about $100 bonus over the city bounty of $300. It will be seen that a large number paid commutation Monday—partly, no doubt, because of fear of employing deserters as substitutes, and it may be also that some preferred to pay more money, rather than aid the Government and nation with men.

The funds for commuting in Greenland, were raised by private subscription. In all the other towns, we believe, by public vote—and there may yet arise some question of the legality of such town action.

☞ We learn with pleasure that our scientific and worthy citizen, Mr. Alfred M. Hoyt, has been appointed Assistant Engineer at Fort Constitution, and we would congratulate the Chief Engineer on so valuable an aid to assist him in his important duties.

☞ The annual session of the Rockingham Christian Conference commences in the Court street Christian Church this (Wednesday) morning at half past 10 o'clk. There will be a sermon in the evening, at half past seven. The session will be continued two days.

SENSIBLE CONSCRIPTS.—Samuel Batchelder, drafted from Hampton Falls, has the honor of being the first Conscript in this District to report for duty. William H. Maxwell, of this city, is the second. Like sensible young men they prefer going into the army themselves, to sending substitutes. As neither of them is obliged to go, being able to procure "subs", we think they are entitled to no little credit. A company of such men would be worth a whole brigade of skedaddling substitutes. X.

☞ We hear reports of a lady being drowned at Rye Beach a day or two since, but have no particulars.

☞ The new steamer "Firefly" is a snug little craft, but can hardly be accommodated in the "mail," to Manchester, as our item had it yesterday—instead of rail.

FOUND DROWNED.—A man named Edwin Jones, a native of Liverpool, Eng., was found drowned in the dock at Portland on Monday afternoon. It is supposed that he accidentally walked off the wharf a week ago last Monday. His feet were firmly imbedded in the mud, but at low water his hands were seen near the surface, which led to the discovery of the body.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer speaks rather contemptuously of Beauregard's protest "on the ground of humanity," and thinks that his protest will be of little use unless he can disable the batteries that throw shells five miles. The Enquirer thinks that Sumter can never be surrendered.

☞ The pirate Florida was off Queenstown on the 18th ult. It was thought she wished to effect some shipments of men, and notices were posted warning the public against any breach of the foreign enlistment act.

☞ The Secretary of the Navy has left Washington for a tour of inspection through the New York, Boston and Portsmouth Navy Yards, and will visit Philadelphia on his return.

☞ It is announced from the Navy Department that the guns which fire the shells into Charleston are one hundred and fifty pound Parrotts. It is not practicable to land the fifteen-inch Dahlgren and Rodman guns, nor can they throw a ball or shell five miles. So small rifled guns as twelve pounders have thrown shells near Yorktown within a fraction of five miles.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.
This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.
It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.
We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than any other store sell.

TRIP TO THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

JOTTINGS ON THE WAY.—By J. H. H.

Tip Top House, Mt. Washington, Aug. 22.

Messrs. Editors:—After a good night's sleep at the Glen House, our party started out to visit Glen Ellis Falls. This cataract is one of the interesting features of the wild scenery in the vicinity of the hotel. The fall is four miles from the house, near the road to North Conway. The morning was a lovely one, and we were all inspired with the potent effects of sunshine and mountain scenery. Arriving at the walk that leads to the falls, we leave our carriage and pass through the woods, which resound with the roar of the cataract. The forest path suddenly opens and we find ourselves at the top of an overhanging precipice, down which we look and view the falls. A deep gorge is seen stretching down into the dark forest, with huge walls of rocks, 100 feet in height, at the sides and upper end. The Ellis river, gathering the streams of its various brooks into a liquid cable, has worn a deep groove in the granite sides at a very sharp angle, for some twenty feet, and then makes a leap of sixty feet more and falls into a large basin beneath, from which it finds its way in crystal cascades to the forest. Huge boulders are strewn at the bottom of the gorge, and the tall cliffs are crowned with wild forest shrubbery. This spot is said to combine more of the elements of loneliness, unfamiliarness, lawless beauty and strong contrasts, than any other spot in the whole White Mountain region.

Leaving this elevated spot, we descend to the basin over flights of rude stairs, some of which are cut out of the solid rock. The view is sublime. The cataract appears like a wide belt of satin ribbon. Mosses and vines are hanging in masses from the sides of the rock, and the sun's rays turn the water drops into crystals and give a variety of shades to the luxuriant verdure. Looking out of the mouth of the gorge you see Carter Mountain rearing its verdure-clad head to the skies. The woods above the falls are filled with charms. Veteran trees lie here and there in wildest confusion. Boulders and quartz rocks are strewn around, and all covered with bright green moss of different species. The sun's rays penetrated the woods and threw in delicate shades, making one almost believe he was standing on enchanted ground.

Half an hour's walk brought us to the crystal cascade. It pours down from heights rising from a deep ravine. Its descent is eighty feet. If it is wildness and the spirit of strong, bounding, unruly life that fascinates in the spot we have just left, here it is delicate and exquisite beauty.—Some seventy feet above we see the brook pouring in a narrow stream around a bend. Then the rock takes the form of a staircase, with easy slope, widening at the top, over which the spreading water dances in broken sheets, showing now and then through its silken texture the luxuriant green moss.

We reach the hotel in time for dinner, and at 3 o'clock we take our carriage and start for the top of Mount Washington.—This clothes are laid by and warm woolen garments put on. We pass over the first mile and a half very quickly. Our horses walk the remainder of the way, at times stopping for rest. Deep gorges are on each side of the road, along which are walls of granite built up to sustain the road.—Through the vista of the trees we see Mts. Adams and Jefferson from their base.—They sweep up from the enormous gulfs at the right hand of the path, and fascinate the eye by their colors and imposing appearance. We are now at the half-way house, and a view filled with grandeur is unfolded to our gaze. Spread out before us for many miles are many mountain ranges. The slanting light of the setting sun streams between the peaks and burnishes the sides of their rugged pyramids.—The "Gulf of Mexico" gapes with more terror from the ledge farther up, and as we reach that point of the road, Mt. Jefferson, the neighboring peaks, and the Glen House Valley are seen in all their splendor. A cold wind comes driving across the mountains. The clouds keep us company, and the shadows of night are coming on. We pass the spot where Miss Bourne died from the cold, and then comes the chilly frozen forest. Two miles farther on we haul up at the stable of the Tip-top House. It is quite dark and we grope our way up the path over rugged rocks to the hotel. There are two buildings about one hundred feet apart, both of which are constructed of rough rocks and contain ample room for accommodating 60 persons over night. Board is $4.00 per day, cigars 25 cents, letter paper 10 cents per sheet, and ale 25 cents per glass. A good table is set here and clean beds are found in the rooms, but all parts of the house are moist and damp.

The night brought on a fierce gale of wind which beat in demoniac fury about the buildings, but iron cables cross the roof at every point, and we felt secure. The night passed, and the Sabbath morning has come, cold, rainy, and dreary. The wild notes of Heaven's organ are surging in solemn grandeur for a moment around us then dying away in plaintive notes about the cliffs; anon they come swelling back again to join us in our melody. A Sabbath spent among the clouds of Heaven! Memory will treasure up the event, and the heart will cling to it in after years, when the scenes have passed from our sight.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the casting being heavier, and the iron much better than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and also a heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, sufficient to produce a change in the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former machines, while others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them, and they pass off in the cool, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the one can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off, with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

THE RECONSTRUCTION OF THE UNION ON A SLAVERY BASIS.—Our readers have heard the story of the cunning wharf thief, who was the terror of all honest merchants, by contriving to plunder their vessels year after year without being detected in the act. At last one of his victims, on the arrival of a ship with a valuable cargo, offered to pay him a certain per centage on it if he would promise not to exercise his peculiar talents on the remainder. The thief took the offer into careful consideration, and at the end of a few hours returned a negative answer, remarking that "he thought he could do better."

The story, however, does not go on to say that, after the thief had been detected and imprisoned, he claimed the benefit of the merchant's first offer, received his per centage, and was set free to practise his old profession of pilfering, amid universal plaudits from the mercantile community. Such, however, appears to be the claim set up for the rebels by their Northern allies. The President, on the 22d of September, 1862, issued a Proclamation giving the States in insurrection the choice between submission to the Government and the liberation of their slaves. They were granted four months to meditate on the proposal, and weigh its advantages and disadvantages. They deliberately chose rebellion, thinking "they could do better" out of the Union than in it, slavery or no slavery. From the first of January, 1863, they have been fighting with the knowledge that if they were beaten their slaves would be free.

Now that they are exhausted by their efforts, the proposition is brought forward to give them the advantage of the original offer, and let them come back, with slavery, to begin anew their old intrigues and foment new wars. The ground is that they have forfeited nothing by their crime, not even the object for which and the weapons by which they committed it.—Transcript.

☞ A great deal having been said in regard to the valor and courage of the negro troops at Port Hudson, we gave, a few days since, an extract from an account of the siege, written by an officer of the garrison. The Cairo correspondent of the Chicago Times thus states the opinion of Col. Greenleaf, of the 52d Massachusetts Volunteers, recently arrived at Cairo:

We have had pictures in some of the weeklies, illustrating the desperation with which they fought and the heroism with which they suffered. Col. Greenleaf, who was present during the whole action, declares such representations entirely false. He says the officers reposed no confidence in the men, and the men evidently had no confidence in themselves, and the consequence was an exhibition of cowardice on the part of the entire gang, instead of that courageous and valiant spirit of which so much has been written.

Col. Greenleaf is of the opinion that "American citizens of African descent" would be better employed in handling currycombs, driving teams, digging with spades, and performing other kinds of labor, than shouldering muskets and endeavoring to play soldier.

☞ Volunteering in New Jersey is proceeding very briskly. About 5,000 men have been obtained since Gov. Parker's proclamation was issued. Three new batteries are complete, and one regiment of cavalry and two regiments of infantry will be completed during the week. Almost every township in the State is at work, and it is expected that in a few days the quota of New-Jersey will be filled by voluntary enlistments.

☞ Lieut-Col. Lockwood reports a series of robberies of the mails of the 3d Division of the 2d Army Corps, running from the 8th to the 25th of August. Several thousands of dollars in Government and private drafts, checks, and funds, have been purloined, and the letters covering them found along the route. The mail carriers are under arrest.

☞ Gen. Collamore, Mayor of Lawrence, Kansas, was suffocated to death by damps in his well. When he first discovered the guerillas in town, he went into the well, and his hired man, named Keith, covered it up; after the trouble was over the man went to the well and found the General at the bottom. He went down and unfortunately met the same fate. A neighbor, named Lowe, passing along, went down to rescue both of them, and was also suffocated.

YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in Connubialis, a Tablet, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to him a broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜
RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1863. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
Dr. Swett: Feeling it my duty to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1863.

CITY AND HARBOR OF CHARLESTON.—Charleston is built upon a low and level land, rising but a few feet above the sea.—Viewed from Cummings' Point the shore line is quite indistinct, and the buildings seem to emerge from the water. The place, therefore, is very vulnerable. The city institutions are numerous, embracing, besides the City Hall, municipal courts, &c., several charitable establishments, of which the Orphan Asylum is the most noted. There are also hospitals, dispensaries, and poor houses.

The city covers a considerable extent of territory, the dwellings generally being isolated, with open grounds and gardens on every side. The streets, from east to west, extend from the Ashley to the Cooper river, and running in a straight line, and intersecting others at right angles, open prospects every way. King street, running from south to north, is the most busy street in the city, and is closely built, extending two miles in length. The beauty of Charleston is very much marred by low and dingy looking houses, which give the place an ancient appearance. Meeting street, however, which is a broad avenue, sixty feet wide, compares favorably with that of any city in the country. In 1800 the population of Charleston was 17,712; in 1807 it was 28,000, of which it was supposed 17,000 were colored people; in 1860 it was 42,985; in 1860, 40,578.

The harbor of Charleston has six entrances—Maffit's channel, with eleven feet; the North channel, with eight feet; the Swash, with nine feet; the Overall channel, (not used;) the main ship channel, with eleven feet; and Lawford's channel, with eleven feet. The passage is defended by three principal fortresses—Fort Sumter, Fort Moultrie and Castle Pinckney.—The largest of these is Sumter, a work of solid masonry, octagonal in form, and pierced on three sides with a double row of portholes for the heaviest guns. It stands in the middle of the harbor, near the edge of the main ship channel. The armament consists, or rather consisted, of one hundred and fifty guns, many of them being the formidable ten inch columbiads. Fort Moultrie is an enclosed water battery, having a front on the water side of three hundred feet. It is built with salient and re-entering angles on all sides. The outer and inner walls are of brick capped with stone and filled in with earth, making a solid wall about fifteen feet in thickness and twenty feet high. It is situated on Sullivan's Island, about half a mile distant from Sumter. Castle Pinckney is an old and not very formidable work, one mile from the city of Charleston. It cost about forty five thousand dollars. It mounts thirty or forty heavy guns. Besides these main works the rebels have numerous batteries on the islands, while the harbor is said to be full of obstructions. The city is also fortified in the rear from Ashley to Cooper river.

ELECTIONS.—The Vermont State Election took place on Tuesday. John G. Smith, Republican, was elected Governor by over 20,000 majority, over Redfield, Democrat. Three republican members of Congress were elected—by majorities from 6000 to 8000.

The entire state senate elected are Republicans, and nearly every member of the House.

At the city election in Wilmington, Del., on Tuesday, Mayor Gilpin (Union) was re-elected. The Unionists carried all the wards and precincts. The City Council is unanimously Union.

THE PATH OF PEACE.—Gen. Meade, in the speech made by him last week, on his being presented with a sword, said:

I have to request of you, gentlemen, who are in civil life, that, when you return home, you will spare no efforts to make the people understand that all we want are men to fill up our ranks. Send these to us. Give us the numbers, and the war will soon be concluded. I think the rebels are now satisfied that their struggle is only a matter of time, as we have the force on our side; and that as soon as they see that we are bringing out that force in earnest they will yield.

A GOOD RECORD.—The N. Y. Independent says that when Paymaster Northrop was in New Orleans, he asked Col. Bissell, of the 25th Conn. Volunteer Regiment, whether there was any swearing in his regiment. "You may go through the regiment," answered Col. Bissell, "and I'll give you five dollars for every oath you hear from it." The Paymaster hunted diligently after his reward, with good hope, but be searched in vain. That is a noble record for old Connecticut. What other regiment will take rank upon that page of unstained honor?

☞ Lieut. Woodbury, with 60 men of the Invalid Corps, left this city on Tuesday for West Lebanon, the headquarters of the draft in the 3d district. They took along with them their camp equipage, rations, &c. They are to look after the draft, which commenced on Wednesday.

THE REBELLION.

Advices from Fort Gibson to the 25th ult., state that Gen. Blunt with 6000 men and twelve pieces of artillery, crossed the Arkansas river on the 22d, but the enemy, estimated at 25,000, declined a battle and fell back. Subsequently there were rumors of a fight and Union defeat.

The rebel force at Little Rock is stated to be 40,000 strong. Many of them were conscripts from 16 to 60 years, only half armed, and commanded by Gens. Kirby Smith and Price.

The N. Y. Times' Washington dispatch says the best attainable information locates Lee in Richmond and his army scattered from the line of the Blue Ridge in the west to Port Royal, Rappahannock river, in the east and, south as far as the line of the Va. Central Railroad. His troops are so scattered to facilitate subsistence.

☞ It may be true, or it may not, "that Jeff. Davis is about to issue a call, by advice of the Governors of the Southern States, for half a million of negro troops, to whom, their freedom will be guaranteed and a bounty of fifty acres of land will be given at the expiration of the war,"—but such a statement has been made in rebel papers. If true, it shows two things, viz., 1, that negroes will fight, or at least that those who live among them think so: and 2, that they love freedom, or else their masters don't understand them.

Mr. John Adams, jr., the Southern man who recently wrote in behalf of the rebels, in the National Intelligencer, speaks as follows of the emancipation proclamation, and the drafting of former slaves into the U. S. army:—

This one single fact bears more heavily upon them than anything else connected with the war; and to escape this now apparently inevitable fate, they express a willingness to accede to any terms which shall not humiliate and degrade them.—They affirm (in fact, they expect, they hope, they pray for it) that it is not for them to beg for peace, but for the President to hold out the olive branch.

We don't see why the rebels should not beg for peace. U. T.

☞ Typhoid fever is quite prevalent in the returned 22d Connecticut regiment.—There were five interments on Saturday from the military hospital in New Haven. The disease was generated in the marshy lands above New Orleans, and appears to be aggravated by change to a northern climate.

☞ While the fire at East Boston was at its height, the firemen and spectators were astonished by the discharge of a cannon and the whizzing of a cannon ball over their heads. The cannon, it subsequently appeared, was on a wharf and was discharged by being heated.

☞ The Cairo News is responsible for the story that a lady some six months ago came to Cairo with the corpse of her husband, intending to take it to his old home in the interior of the State, and actually forgot it. She telegraphed back from the station to have it forwarded.

☞ A gossip writes from Saratoga: Mrs. Banks cannot be called a handsome woman, but she is "comely," dresses well, and has wit as keen as her husband's sword. Some stupid fool ventured to ask her what she would do if the General was killed. "Go and work for my living, as I did before I married him," was the ready reply of the lady.

☞ Frequent threats were made on the passage from Long Island, Boston harbor, to Alexandria, Va., by the substitutes on board, of whom there were about 1000, to burn the steamer Forest City, but no attempt was made to execute them. One man attempted to escape after arriving on the Potomac, by jumping overboard, but he was shot by the guard.

A Scottish advocate, who in his broad Scotch pronounced the word water "wattar," being asked in court by the Chancellor, if he spelled water with two t's, replied, "No, my lord, but I spell manners with two n's."

☞ The Labrador fishery is said to be very encouraging. The catch of codfish is good—many boats averaging 200 quintals each.

An old lady, when she heard her minister say there would be a nave in the new church, observed that "she knew well who the party was to whom he applied such an opprobrious epithet."

☞ A Washington letter says C. Edwards Lester, who was arrested on a charge of treason, has been released, the charge having little or no foundation.

We are informed that the late William Sprague, of Phipsburg, had twelve children, all of whom are now living, the youngest being 45 years and the oldest 80 years of age. We question whether the like is true in the history of any other family.—Bath Times.

☞ The supply steamer Bermuda will leave the Philadelphia Navy Yard on the 12th inst., for the West Gulf Blockading Squadron, touching at Port Royal, Pensacola and at all the stations of the squadron. An opportunity is thus offered for sending letters.

BE CAREFUL OF YOUR BIRDS.—The Press says that a bird, probably of the butcher species, has been committing destruction among the canaries in Portland. Two belonging to different families were killed in their cages on Tuesday afternoon, the cages hanging from windows. The operations of the butcher bird were witnessed from an opposite dwelling.—The fellow flew on the cages containing the Canaries, and trust his long, pointed bill at them, striking wherever he could hit.

POOR PRIOR, the doughty Virginian champion, who once declared himself in Congress, "the peer of Presidents and Cabinet Counsellors," and compared himself to "Alexander the Great, who would only contend at the Olympian games if Kings were his competitors," has faded from the military service of the rebels like an expiring tallow candle.

☞ The Portland Courier has heard of two ladies in that city who have had the courage to appear without hoops. The Boston Journal says there are hundreds of ladies in Boston who have repudiated a stupid fashion in the same way.

NAVAL.—The U. S. sloop-of-war Tuscarora, from Boston on a cruise, was spoken Aug. 12, in lat. 43 03, lon. 58 19, and again on Aug. 30, in lat. 43 50, lon. 48 50. This was several days after the terrible hurricane of the 21st and 22d, in which the Bainbridge foundered.

While over life's wide darkling plain
Unheeding as we roam,
Through many a path of joy and pain,
God's leads his children home.
And though sometimes, in prospect viewed,
The winding way seems dark and rude;
Ah! who the backward scene hath scanned
But blessed his Father's guiding hand.
—BOWDLER.

☞ Fred Law Olmstead, late Secretary of the Sanitary Commission, has been appointed Superintendent of the Mariposa Mining Company of California, at a salary of ten thousand dollars per year.

☞ The two escaped prisoners from Fort Warren, recently captured by the revenue cutter from Portland, are to be sent back to Fort Warren.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

(late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity of any of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has been successful in securing, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense number of the prescribers during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, on any question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

GOOD TALK.—Gen. Rosseau, a Kentuckian by birth and a pro-slavery man by education, recently made a speech in Philadelphia, in which he expressed his creed in a few words, as follows:—

The slaves had been the means of furnishing sustenance, strength and provisions to the rebel armies, and wherever the strength of the rebels is found it is to be hit on the head. As to equality there is no necessity to discuss that. It makes no negro a white man to free him. It does not make a mule a copperhead's equal because he lets him out of the stable. The speaker did not come there to fight with negroes, but if placed where they could whip the rebels, he deemed them quite as good as secessionists or copperheads.

☞ Mr. John S. Whidden, of Co. K, 16th N. H. Regiment, died recently in the hospital at Memphis, where he was left when the regiment returned home. He was a native of Stratham, where his friends reside.

☞ The editors of Vicksburg have been a pugnacious set. The town was laid out in 1812; since then, seventeen editors have come to an untimely end by the duello, street-fights, or suicide.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Concord, August 18, 1863.

For the information of all interested, it is hereby announced, that the Provost Marshals according to the quotas assigned to the several towns, or sub-districts, by the Provost Marshal General.

The Selectmen of Provost Marshals have nothing to do with the claims of the different towns for men heretofore furnished. But, when the Governor shall make it appear to the Provost Marshal General, that particular towns have heretofore furnished a surplus of men over their quotas, "An order will be issued discharging from the service of the United States a sufficient number of men called into service by the present draft, from said towns, equal to the surplus proved to have been furnished heretofore. Towns will thus get credit actually for their excess on former calls."

It is therefore necessary for such towns as claim to have furnished a surplus of men, to present to the Governor satisfactory proof of such surplus having been actually furnished, and if this proof be presented in season, the men may be discharged before leaving the State.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously imputed to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

Local.

☞ Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy, will arrive in this city this morning, and visit the Navy Yard. He is accompanied on his tour by William Faxon Esq., Chief Clerk of the Navy Department, Maj. Calvin Day, M. F. Merritt, Esq., of New York, and Edgar T. Welles, his son. They will return to Boston this evening.

☞ The Assessor of the Excise Tax for this District has made some changes, reducing the number of Sub-Districts. Newington has been taken from Mr. Haley's, of New Market district, and added to Portsmouth, and likewise New-Castle and Gosport are added to the District of the Portsmouth assessor.

Maj. A. P. Blake, of Exeter, has resigned the office of assistant assessor, and Jewett Conner, Esq., of Exeter, has been appointed to the position.

☞ The excursion over Lake Winnipisiogee to-day, by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, cannot fail to be productive, if the weather is favorable, of the most delightful experiences to those who avail themselves of the opportunity. A trip across the beautiful Lake in the fine steamer Dover is alone sufficient to satisfy one for weeks of dreary routine in the city. The cars leave this city at 8 o'clock.

Gen. McClellan visited the U. S. frigate Sabine, lying at Portsmouth, last Saturday. He was honored by a Major General's salute.—Portland Argus.

The frigate Sabine has recently been stationed at New London, Conn. Gen. McClellan has not visited Portsmouth. No one was honored here with a Major General's salute on Saturday. We think the Argus must have been misinformed.

☞ The members of the First Congregational Society at Concord, Rev. Dr. Bouton, made an excursion to this city, on Wednesday, accompanied by a band.

They were, however, no more fortunate than our friends from Nashua, who recently visited us, as the same misfortune prevented their going across the river to the Navy Yard, &c., in the schooner, as had been proposed.

TOLLING THE BELLS FOR FUNERALS. Messrs. Editors:—Being present at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening last, I was glad to see a petition handed in, requesting the Board to take action for the suppression of the continual sounding of the bells for funerals, or for limiting the custom. This petition has been circulated by one of our enterprising young men, who has resided in other places and has the good of this city at heart; and was signed by many of our most "sensible" citizens, including almost every physician. This custom has been discontinued in many cities, and all observing people must know it has an injurious effect.

There are many evil results proceeding from it,—in the impression it gives strangers, unused to the tolling of the bells, that our city is unhealthy, whereas, as a general thing, this is untrue; and also in many other ways. But such reasons, weighty enough of themselves, are small compared with the injurious effects the bells are believed to have, by those who have the best opportunity to know, on the minds of the sick who hear the death knell of others perseveringly and continually sounded in their ears.—It is well known that this has as depressing an effect upon the anxious sufferers, as anything to which they can be exposed.

When there is more than one sick person in a house, family, or immediate neighborhood, it is well known how necessary it is to keep such knowledge from those who are prostrated, especially if they are dangerously sick. This care is admitted to be necessary—but does it seem worth while to take it on so small a scale, if the patient is to have the sound of all the fatal sickness in the city, day after day, and sometimes several times in a day, sounded in his ears? We sometimes see tan spread in the street to prevent noise; but such noise seems a trifle compared with the sounding of the church bells giving notice to the sick person, who may be suffering perhaps from the same disease, and his life hanging, as it were, in a balance to which a small matter, even, might give a fatal turn.

We hope the City Government will give this subject the consideration it deserves, abolish the highly injurious custom and receive the grateful approbation of nine-tenths of the people. B.

☞ Mr. William Denton will give a series of lectures on Geology, at the Temple, commencing on this Thursday evening.—His lectures will be illustrated by fine oil paintings. Geology is an attractive and important science, and Mr. Denton comes highly recommended.

FORTIFICATIONS.—When it was proposed that the prominent parts of the New England coast should be fortified by the United States, in 1793, the surveys were made by Mr. Becket Rochefontaine, then an acting engineer, and nearly all the locations recommended by him for defensive works are now being made the sites of earthworks.

☞ The jury of inquest in the case of the Cohoes disaster, censures the proprietor of the building for not having provided means of egress, the only means of escape on the fourth and fifth floors being a narrow "block" stairway.

A PRODIGY.—There is a young man in this town who is the prince of radicals in all sorts of pleasure going, who has tended a bar for several years and presided over a drinking saloon for some time, yet who never smoked a cigar or pipe and never drank a drop of intoxicating liquors, ale or strong beer during his life.—Lewiston Jour.

☞ The head master of Harrow School, England, has ordered that the trousers side pockets of his pupils shall be dispensed with, his reason for the prohibition being that the boys continually had their hands in those pockets, and thereby contracted a lounging and stooping habit.

At this season of the year Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and other affections of the Throat and Lungs prevail. MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is a certain and immediate cure. No Family should be without a bottle in the house. It is only 25 cents, and will be found worth as many dollars for the cure of the above complaints. It is for sale by N. P. Thacher, Druggist, of this place.

"Be thou chaste as ice and as pure as snow, thou shalt not escape using unhealthy compounds in your food," was a true maxim, until Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus came to our relief. Since using it, we feel that there is one article in the way of Saleratus that all can use with healthy results. We have almost cured our dyspepsia, and thanks to the Gold Medal Saleratus for it. Try it, and you will say with us, that perfection has been obtained, and the inventor has immortalized his name forever. Most of the Merchants have it.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.
THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR.

(Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without—

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

THE SABBATH.

How still the morning of the hallowed day!
Mute is the voice of rural labor, hushed
The ploughboy's whistle and the milkmaid's song.
The scythe lies glittering in the dewy wreath
Of cocked grass, mingled with fading flowers.
That yester-morn bloom'd, waving in the breeze.
Sounds the most faint attract the ear—the hum
Of early bee, the trickling of the dew.
The distant bleating midway up the hill.
Coolness sits throned on you unmoving cloud.
To him who wanders o'er the upland leas.
The blackbird's note comes mellower from the dale;
And sweeter from the sky the gladsome lark
Warbles his heaven-toned song; the lulling brook
Murmurs more gently down the deep-worn glen;
While from yon lowly roof, whose curling smoke
O'ermounts the mist, is heard, at intervals,
The voice of psalms—the simple song of praise.
—GRAHAME.

'Tis sweet to hear a brook, 'tis sweet
To hear the Sabbath bell,
'Tis sweet to hear them both at once,
Deep in a Wood by dell. —COLERIDGE.

So on he sears to mortal life latter end,
Angels around befriending virtue's friend;
Sinks to the grave with unperceived decay,
While resignation gently dopes the way;
And, all his prospects brightening to the last,
His heaven commences ere the world be past.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Henry Giles, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA for years, and have heard of cases which fulfilled the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As far as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine in use so much like a specific for Scrofula.

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to the publicity of the wonderful virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an affecting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane N. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady, of New Bedford, Mass.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled Paper, Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it discovered my features and became an entire wreck of misery. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It loosened the humor from my system, and in time it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and eventually cleared my face as sound as any body. I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purity the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Steele, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied us. Impoverished blood it seems to purify and vitalize."

From J. E. Schasten, Esq., Wheeling, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me, and I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Seidler, Esq., the able editor of the Thaddeus Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any improved effect. For fifteen days we watched his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you directed. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and we kept them on till we finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any child. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hewes Sloud, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy in Secondary Syphilis than any other. I use it and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effected in some cases results which I cannot attribute to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a power ful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., lost dreadful ulcers on his leg, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated, for years, for which every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the powerful use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Five cases only had healed when he finished taking this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Corruption, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in addition to the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrell, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and I believe we have that do not when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A long, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this GREAT SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacturers and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this highly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason of this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the cone, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Stice, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when fitted the whole surface and contour piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. FRIDAY SEPT. 4, 1863. NO. 56.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every sun fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

THE HOUSE OF SIR WALTER RALEIGH, AT YOUGHAL, IRELAND.—The house and garden of this famous individual, at Youghal, (pronounced You-all) will especially interest the stranger. The house has not undergone much alteration—the interior is in its original state; wainscotted throughout with fine old Irish oak, in excellent preservation. The pannels in some of the rooms are richly carved, especially in the drawing-room, the chimney-piece of which presents an excellent specimen of the elaborate work of the day, being enriched with various grotesque figures and emblems. The roof being also of Irish oak, has remained untouched, having apparently suffered nothing from the hand of time. This interesting place derives its present name—Myrtle Grove—from the many beautiful myrtle trees which still flourish luxuriantly here; some of them having attained a height of nearly twenty feet. The strawberry arbutus, also, and many other delicate shrubs, afford abundant evidence of the mildness of the climate.—These remind one strongly of the refined taste and feeling exhibited by Raleigh, in the cultivation and adornment of this, for some time, his favorite retreat from the turmoil and storms of Court life. In these gardens, we are told, he first propagated the potato, which he brought from America. Tradition says, that the person to whom he entrusted the care of those first planted, "imagining that the apple which grew on the stalk was the part to be used, gathered it, but not liking the taste, neglected the roots, till the ground being dug afterward to sow some other grain, the potatoes were discovered therein, and to the great surprise of the planter, vastly increased; and from those few this country was furnished with seed."

LETTER OF THE PRESIDENT TO GEN. GRANT.—We find the following letter in the Washington correspondence of the Tribune:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, July 13.—To Maj. Gen. Grant.

My Dear General—I do not remember that you and I ever met personally. I write this now as a grateful acknowledgement for the almost inestimable service you have done the country. I wish to say a word further. When you first reached the vicinity of Vicksburg I thought you should do what you finally did—march the troops across the neck, run the batteries with the transports, and thus go below; and I never had any faith, except a general hope that you knew better than I, that the Yazoo Pass expedition and the like could succeed. When you got below and took Port Gibson, Grand Gulf and vicinity, I though you should go down the river and join Gen. Banks, and when you turned northward, east of the Big Black, I feared it was a mistake. I now wish to make a personal acknowledgement that you were right and I was wrong. Yours very truly, A. LINCOLN.

HON. JOSEPH SEGAR'S POSITION.—One of the New York papers having assigned this gentleman the "conservative opposition" in the next House, he writes to repudiate the arrangement. He says that at the last session he voted for nearly every measure which the "conservative opposition" voted against. Without any promises respecting the future, he says;

"But this I may say, that I was re elected to Congress as an outspoken Union man, without a pledge—to n a twenty five years public service I never gave a pledge—and that I shall do the best I can, under the circumstances that shall surround me, to put down the rebellion and to put up the Union, the Constitution and the Federal laws. It would not, therefore, be accurate to assign me any party position beyond that of a simple, unshackled Union man. And such I believe to be the position of my gifted colleague and friend, Mr. Chandler.

☞ A letter from Springfield, Illinois, says:

"The Copperheads of the southern part of the State are fast bringing on a perilous crisis. A battalion of the 16th Illinois Cavalry, who has been arresting deserters in Fayette and adjoining counties, were last night attacked at Vandalia, by four hundred armed Copperheads, who attempted to release the deserters in their charge. They were led by an officer formerly in the United States service. The Copperheads were repulsed with a loss of several killed and wounded. The cavalry force is fully able to protect itself. Accounts from other parts of the State show that the Copperheads are ripe for any movement against the United States Government."

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜
RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c. &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's for removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1863.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
Dr. Swett:—I feel it my duty to notify, as I did in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26d

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Steele telegraphs from Devol's Bluff, Ark., Aug. 26: "Our advance, under Gen. Davidson, has driven Marmaduke's cavalry, about 3000 strong, out of Brownsville, capturing Col. Burbridge and some privates. At last accounts Gen. Glover's brigade was pushing the enemy toward Bayou Meloria." A dispatch from Pilot Knob says that deserters from Burbridge's command report that Gen. Price's forces were driven across the Arkansas on the 29th ult., that the rebels were in full retreat, and that Gens. Steele and Davidson were in hot pursuit. Marmaduke's command was completely routed and scattered, and Little Rock within grasp of the Federal army.

Gen. Burnside on the 22d had passed Jamestown, Tenn., and through the gaps, and was marching on Kingston. His object then will be to tap the Virginia and Tennessee railroad, thus cutting off the rebel retreat toward the West, while another force which had proceeded eastward of the Cumberland Gap would cut off the road above, and thus capture or drive the rebels out of the Valley. Gen. Burnside is soon expected to enter Knoxville. Rosecrans was expected to cross at the lower end of the Valley, thus seizing the Tennessee between Knoxville and Florence.

It is generally conceded by the best military authorities that Lee must commence offensive operations this month or disband his army. It is believed that to this end he is concentrating another large army for an invasion, which is his only hope and is to be attempted as a last resort.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S LETTER, addressed to the Union and Republican State Conventions in Illinois and New York by the President, is a plain, practical document, worthy to command the attention of the people. "To obtain peace," he says, "there are but three conceivable ways. First, to suppress the rebellion by force of arms.—This I am trying to do. Are you for it?—If you are, so far we are agreed. If you are not for it, a second way is to give up the Union. I am against this. If you are you should say so plainly. If you are not for force, nor yet for dissolution, there only remains some imaginable compromise. I do not believe that any compromise embracing the maintenance of the Union is now possible. All that I learn leads to a directly opposite belief. The strength of the rebellion is in its military—its army."

No truth can be plainer or more clearly enforced upon every citizen, than the fact that while the rebel armies dominate the Southern States, and spurn openly and defiantly at every proposition for negotiation which is not based upon the acknowledgment of their independence, we must support the military and naval power of the national government, or else submit to a separation of the States.

The President deems it proper to employ the negro to fight, as well as the white man; he claims that his Emancipation Proclamation is constitutional, and means to stand by it; if unconstitutional and should be so pronounced by the U. S. Supreme Court, it needs no retraction—if not, adhere to it.—Any recantation or recall of that proclamation would be childish and absurd, and call forth the ridicule of those who now demand its revocation only to embarrass the Government.

☞ A Tribune special Washington dispatch states that "the official report of Gen. McClellan was received at the Adjutant General's office, about a month ago. It is very voluminous, comprising from 700 to 900 folios foolscap, and the accompanying documents cover nearly three times as much more paper. The pressure of more important business has thus far precluded the possibility of its examination by the proper officials. Its publication, with accompaniments, will undoubtedly require a special appropriation by Congress, and its appearance in print, at present, is not to be thought of."

A NEW ELEMENT FOR WEST POINT.—It seems that the President has determined to fill the cadet-ships at West Point, that are left vacant by the operation of the rebellion, by the appointment of deserving youngmen from the army. Gen. Grant has received orders from Washington to send in the names of soldiers in his army who are of the proper age and qualified for the position; and examinations of candidates are being made by Gen. Sherman. This is an excellent idea.

☞ Further search on the wreck of the steamer Reth, recently destroyed by fire on the Mississippi river, has brought to light a portion of the $2,000,000 in Government funds supposed to have been burned. The packages taken out were burned to the depth of an inch and charred to the centre. The agent will continue work with the divers.

☞ The Mobile Register states that Alexander H. Stevens, the rebel Vice President, is at Nassau.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— An adjourned meeting of the trustees of Dartmouth College will be held in Concord on the 21st inst.

—— The horse presented to Col. Henry O. Kent last fall, has been sold to the manager of a circus, for his private carriage and use in the ring.

—— It is said that one family in Goffstown threatened resistance to the draft, and provided themselves with arms. Four members of the family have been drafted.

—— A few days ago Mr. Daniel Randlett, of Manchester, received word that his son-in-law was dangerously ill at Chicago. Before he could reach him, the son-in-law died. Mr. Randlett also fell sick of fever, and died, and his body is being brought back to Manchester.

—— The Cocheco Manufacturing Co., Dover, after a year's suspension, will commence running one of their mills next Monday. It is probable that the others will resume operations as soon as the repairs which have been in progress for several months, are completed.

—— The Coos Republican states that the settlement of Rangely, situated above the Umbagog chain of Lakes, consisted of one house, occupied by a Mr. Kimball and family, and 20 miles from any neighbor.—A fortnight since, as Mr. K. and wife were absent from the house, it took fire, and with three children who were in it, was entirely consumed. Mr. K., who is a cripple from an accident, lost everything, and with his wife managed to make his way to Lancaster on foot.

—— The Dover Enquirer states that the four-year-old and expensive law suit, between S. F. Hayes and J. W. Waldron of Farmington, in relation to alleged damages to low land on the Cocheco river by sawdust, shavings, &c., from a mill, is settled. This case has had two jury trials and was sent back from the law term for another, when both parties being wearied by the uncertainties of law and juries, asked the aid of J. D. Lyman, who soon effected a settlement satisfactory, all things considered, to both.

—— There are suspicions of foul play in regard to the death of Maj. George Everett, of the Ninth New Hampshire, at Cincinnati, on Friday. The Gazette, of that city, says that the Major was on the sick list, having leave of absence to visit his family in New Hampshire. He was at the Gibson House and was gaining strength rapidly, so that he proposed to immediately resume his journey, when he was suddenly seized with mortal illness and died almost immediately. Two hundred and seventy-five dollars belonging to the Major were found hid upon the person of a negro servant, a "contraband," and it is supposed that he robbed his master while in the agonies of death.—There are some suspicions that the Major was poisoned, but as the body had been sent forward to Concord no examination could be made. The servant is under arrest.

[For the Chronicle.]

WHAT SHALL BE DONE WITH THEM?

There appears to be intense anxiety in many people here at the North, as to what shall be done with the working population of the South, after the rebellion is subdued. The questions which they raise are, some of them, important, and all of them are interesting,—but they are easily answered, in the light of common sense and experience. The answer is—Give them work, and pay them honestly, fair wages.

But they will not work, says one objector: then let them take the consequences, as St. Paul says, "if any man will not work, neither should he eat." He makes no exception in favor of dark complexion or light.—Experience, however, shows that they do work, when the proper motive is offered; in our own country and in the West Indies.

The questions really difficult, are, What shall we do with the idle and vicious aristocracy of the South, who never did any work, but always lived on the toil of slaves? and what shall we do with the Snobs of the North, who have been the tools of this aristocracy, and who wish to be honored in that way again?

The aristocracy do not like to lose their power, nor to go to work and earn a living; but it would do them good. If they will not work, neither should they eat. Paul makes no exception in their favor; but says, any man who will not work should not eat.—Paul was a workingman himself as well as a preacher, and understood his subject perfectly.

The Snobs, also, ought to work or starve, but they will not do either, so long as they can live by lying and cheating, which vocations they pursue with great zeal at the present time. U. T.

☞ At Vicksburg the rebels used incendiary balls, which exploded after entering the body. Gen. Grant found a number of these balls, of English manufacture, among the fruits of his victory. How much more "civilized" is it to use missiles of this sort than to employ "Greek fire," as Gilmore has done at Charleston?

☞ The Massachusetts Democratic State Convention nominated Hon. H. W. Paine, of Cambridge, for Governor, on Thursday.

A white-livered fellow placed his hand on the track of the Central Ohio Railroad, in front of a car wheel a few days ago, and allowed his wrist to be severed in order to exempt himself from the coming draft.—This was paying rather dear for the whistle. Exchange.

It is a mistake to call such a man white-livered. It requires more courage to do what that fellow did than to march into battle, whatever we may think of his indiscretion or folly.—Portland Courier.

If this be courage, then the man whom fear of death drove to suicide, was an uncommonly courageous man.

ACCIDENTS and errors may happen any where; and some of them, in printing offices, are laughable enough. Not many days ago, we wrote that a certain extract might amuse the reader: but it was set up and printed amaze: a slight error, but it made nonsense of the suggestion. On Saturday morning of last week, at Portland, by accident a very loyal article appeared in the Advertiser, and prompt apology was made as a matter of course. An article had been prepared and put in type for the Christian Mirror—which is printed at that office—an abstract of an able article in the Atlantic Monthly from the pen of Judge Davis, and by an accident of the printer it got into the Advertiser forms, where it seemed out of place.

Gen. Howard, in his speech at Farmington, Me., in speaking of those who are crying peace, asks, "Do their bloated countenances, blasphemous language and murderous conduct indicate affiliation with the Prince of Peace or the Prince of Darkness? How much weight can we give to the peaceable professions of such men as in New York murdered and robbed the loyal and law-abiding citizen? Their professions are a lie! They "immediate peace" means perpetual war! They cry "peace" in order to produce conflict malignant, exterminating, eternal"—Press.

☞ Mr. Calvin Clark, of Groton, Vt., met with a fatal accident on the 18th ult., by the upsetting of a load of hay. He was so buried beneath the load that before the boy accompanying him could procure assistance and get the hay removed, life was extinct, probably through suffocation.

A little fellow, three years old, was discovered on one of the wharves at Newport, stripped for a swim, and about diving into the water. He had seen other boys do it, and didn't see why he couldn't. "Mamma's darling" was dressed and taken home.

☞ In Providence, one conscript sought exemption on a certificate, duly sworn to, that he was the only son of his grandmother, who is dependent upon him for support.

While the Masons were en route for Greenfield the other day, an inquisitive countryman at one of the stations, after eyeing the Knights Templars for a few moments, inquired with much concern, "whether all them Brigadier Generals were goin' home on a furlough?"

A miner at Pike's Peak writes that the miners are very much discouraged. They have to dig through a solid vein of silver, four feet thick, before they can reach the gold. Awful trying, isn't it?

The quality of Beeves at market was not so good as last week. The trade was active, but the rates ruled nearly the same. The trade in Milch Cows was dull, while in Sheep and Lambs it was active, with prices well sustained.

☞ The Tribune's dispatch says it learns the President has received a letter from Gen. Grant, in which he not only pledges himself to aid Adjutant General Thomas in his labors, but also heartily endorses the emancipation proclamation and the raising of colored troops, and earnestly expresses the opinion that with the latter great results can be obtained.

At this season of the year Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and other affections of the Throat and Lungs prevail. MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is a certain and immediate cure. No Family should be without a bottle in the house. It is only 13 cents, and will be found worth as many dollars for the cure of the above complaints. It is for sale by N. P. Thacher, Druggist, of this place.

"Bo thou chaste as ice and as pure as snow, thou shalt not escape using unhealthy compounds in your food," was a true maxim, until Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus came to our relief. Since using it, we feel that there is one article in the way of Saleratus that all can use with healthy results. We have almost cured our dyspepsia, and thanks to the Gold Medal Saleratus for it. Try it, and you will say with us, that perfection has been obtained, and the inventor has immortalized his name forever. Most of the Merchants have it.

☞ The horrors of war can be greatly mitigated by that sovereign remedy, HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, as it will cure any wound, however desperate, if it be well rubbed around the wounded parts and they be kept thoroughly covered with it. A pot of ointment should be in every man's knapsack. Only 25 cts. per pot. 237

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street—opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered. In all matters touching the validity of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, and ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Commissioner's bill on oath prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities to inventors for Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse"

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sureof having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

Local.

☞ Sec. Welles, and party, arrived in this city by the noon train from Boston on Thursday, and repaired immediately to the Navy Yard, where they were received with ceremony, the officers of the Yard and of the U. S. vessels there, being in full uniform: a salute of 17 guns was fired. The vessels, afloat and on the stocks, as well as the other points of interest to the head of the Department, were visited, and their condition afforded him much gratification. He returned to Boston in the evening.

☞ Gentlemen in whose judgment we have the greatest confidence, inform us that Mr. Denton's introductory lecture on Geology, at the Temple last evening, was replete with interest, embodying a large amount of valuable information, given in language intelligible and in a manner attractive even to those who had previously paid little or no attention to this fascinating branch of natural history. Perhaps no greater success than this can be achieved by a popular lecturer. As a speaker he is represented to us to be easy, fluent, and graceful; he speaks without notes, and is deeply versed in the mysteries of the science. The second lecture will be given this evening at the Temple, and those who attend will, we are assured, determine to hear all the rest.

☞ Commander Bowers has been detached from the Naval rendezvous at this station, and ordered to the command of the receiving ship Vandalia.

Lieut. Commander Robert Boyd, Jr., has been detached from the receiving ship Ohio, at Boston, and ordered to the Powhattan.

Boatswain William Black is detached from the Charlestown Navy Yard and waiting orders.

Supply steamer Norwich, Lieut. Commanding T. A. Harris, sailed from the Brooklyn Navy Yard on Wednesday, for the North Atlantic blockading squadron.

☞ There were reports in town on Thursday morning that a fishing schooner was captured and destroyed by a rebel pirate steamer near the entrance of our harbor, on Wednesday night, and that the crew had been sent ashore. We were unable to trace the report to any definite source, and it was, doubtless, unfounded.

☞ It will be seen by his advertisement that Mr. E. D. Coffin has renewed business, as a house, ship and sign painter, at No. 18 1-2 Congress street, over Mr. Freeman's Oyster Rooms. Mr. Coffin is well known as a tasteful and skillful handler of the brush, and those who employ him may confidently anticipate the most satisfactory results.

☞ Mr. Samuel W. Walden, of this city, a member of Co. K, 16th N. H. V., died in hospital at Memphis, Aug. 16th.

THE SMALL STEAM YACHT, which for some months past has been in process of construction at Portsmouth, for E. A. Straw, Esq., of Manchester, has been completed, and with the aid of steam came safely to Manchester (on a freight car) a day or two since. We understand it is designed to ply up and down the canals, in the winter months, to keep them free from ice. Anchor ice usually proves quite troublesome, requiring a strong force to keep it clear, and often making it necessary to suspend operations in the mills. Hence this little steamer has been constructed to aid in keeping the canals free.—Mirror.

A SMART OLD MAN.—Mr. William Morris, of Vershire, Vermont, whose 80th birthday was last week, arose in the morning and started for a long walk. He actually walked a circuit of forty-eight miles, arriving home in the evening. His son, fearing he might give out, followed a mile or two behind. He once overtook him and asked him to ride, but the old gentleman refused. In the morning he arose about 5 o'clock and found the old gentleman unloading hay.

PANAMA HATS.—Guayaquil is the great depot for Panama hats, $800,000 worth being sold annually. The grass of which they are made is found chiefly in the neighboring province of San Cristoval. They can be braided only in the night or early morning, as the heat in the daytime renders the grass brittle. It takes a native about three months to braid one of the finest quality, and I saw some hats which looked like fine linen, and are valued at fifty dollars apiece, even here.—Three Years in Chili.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.

—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, which has great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest treedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To present such attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

HUNNEWELL'S TOLU ANODYNE.

—This most wonderful and reliable preparation which has earned its true name and fame, by results which had baffled every other attempt at relief in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Nervous Head Ache, Tooth and Ear Ache, Bowel Complaints, Hysteria, Distress after Eating, Loss of Sleep, General Nervous Debility, Paroxisms in Whooping Cough and Asthma, now declared to be largely Nervous, and also declared to be one of the most important points in Materia Medica.

This valuable preparation should be in every Family, as no description equals its real necessity, or its splendid results.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

DANIEL S. DICKINSON, of New York, declines a renomination as Attorney General of that State. In his letter he says:

I entertain the same opinion of the Rebellion to-day that I did on its outbreak—that it must be put down absolutely and unconditionally, by force, if we would preserve the Government of our fathers, and save our name from becoming a synonym for cowardice and baseness, wherever the history of American Revolution has traveled or its fruits been realized. From the commencement of the Rebellion I have urged the union of all true men, irrespective of political organizations, to aid the Administration in crushing it. * * * * And I will oppose all, whatever they may have been at other times, or may be called now, who are giving aid or comfort to the Rebellion, whether boldly, with arms in their hands, or through the cowardly and more insidious process of fomenting partisan strife, and encouraging resistance to the Administration in the prosecution of the War.

The Rebellion has received its death-blow. It has now little power for mischief, save in its spasmodic struggles, as it gasps out its ignoble existence. It may, by galvanic applications from its friends in the loyal States, once or twice rise to its feet and stagger on a little further; but this will rather hasten than postpone the hour of its final dissolution. As it passes away, and the law is preparing its halters and dungeons and banishment for conspiring leaders let us pray for the forgiveness of the deluded masses who have been cheated or driven into this wholesale murder to minister to the unholy ambition of some of the most fiendish monsters who have ever desecrated earth. As for the mole-eyed politicians amongus, whose poverty of intellect has not enabled them to comprehend the magnitude of the crisis, when they shall cease to encourage the murderers of our sons and brothers, let us endure their exhibitions of depravity and the ebullitions of their spite without murmur, and in sheer pity measure out to them, as an antidote to their ineffectual virus, that scorn which is made most emphatic by expressive silence.

CORRECT EXPLANATION OF THE GHOST. The great novelty in the theatrical world is the Ghost. Wallack's theater is nightly crowded by many hundreds of our citizens to witness this truly wonderful and startling apparition.

An actor in the character of a murderer is seen asleep on a lounge in the rear of the stage, which is dimly lighted. Presently he rises in his sleep and begins to rave under the tortures of remorse for his crime. Instantly there appears at his side a bright image of a skeleton, so luminous that it sheds some light on the obscurity around. Though startlingly distinct, it is seen to be only the image of a skeleton, as objects on the stage are visible directly through the bones. The murderer strikes his sword through the grisly horror, but it is as impalpable as air. After a brief space the apparition vanishes as suddenly as at came. It makes no movement up or down or to either hand, but simply disappears.

The plan is exceedingly simply. A very large plate of glass is set at an angle on the stage in front of the actors; an opening is made through the floor of the stage in front of the glass, and the skeleton is placed beneath the opening. As soon as a strong light is thrown upon the skeleton the light passes upward through the opening in the floor, and is reflected from the glass producing an image in the rear. The glass is an invisible mirror, producing its image directly among the actors who are seen through it.—[Scientific Amer.

Farmer B. was sitting in the country church. He had been working hard in the harvest field. Hands were scarce, and farmer B. was dozing. The loud tone of the minister failed to arouse the farmer, until at length, the time waning, the good man closed the lids of the Bible, and concluded as follows: "Indeed, my hearers, the harvest is plenteous, but the laborers are few." "Yes," exclaimed farmer B., "I've offered two dollars a day for cradlers, and can't get 'em at that."

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be confined day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity, for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The cause of this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, without passing off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. It can be made to six times the amount of suction or adhesion than by other means.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a silver, as when lashed the whole plate is one whole piece.
6th While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 KNEDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreative, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, tumors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston

Boarding and accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1866. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so bad as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swayne's PANACEA, and two bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. Mr. Swayne's medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and we heard many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with disease at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may20

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The expedition up the Rappahannock to recapture the Reliance and Satelite, returned, being unable, in consequence of low water, to get higher up than Rappahannock.

Accounts from Matamoras of late date say that the rebel conscription has made a pretty clean sweep of able-bodied men in Texas, especially the poor ones. The loss of one eye is not sufficient cause for exemption.

A Washington correspondent states that the veteran troops in New York are under orders to leave for Charleston as soon as it is ascertained that all danger of rioting is over. They will constitute part of a large army corps that will be ready for inland movements whenever victory and cool weather shall prepare the way.

The N. Y. Times' special Washington dispatch says: "A distinguished officer in the Army of the Potomac has sent in word that Gen. Lee has not given the slightest evidence of a purpose to move his forces.—On the other hand he is waiting for the result of operations of Rosecrans, Gilmore and Burnside. The opinion prevails among the most intelligent of our officers at headquarters, that if these operations are successful, Lee will propose terms of surrender, and bring the war to a close."—When he does so, we will promptly publish the good news.

We have Charleston dates, by steamer, to Aug. 31. At 3 P. M. on that day, the iron-clads moved up towards Sullivan's Island, abreast of Fort Moultrie, and commenced the attack on that place. The fort and a battery on the island, together with Forts Wagner and Gregg, replied. Gen. Gilmore's batteries also opened on Wagner. Sumter was silenced; four guns had been got in position on Sumter the day previous, but they were at once dismounted by our artillery. The rebel flag still floats over the ruins of Sumter. The result of the attack of the iron-clads on Moultrie was not known when the steamer left.

☞ It seems that Admiral Dahlgren has been sick for some time past, and has either been confined to bed or able with difficulty to crawl on deck or into the pilot-house on critical occasions at a sad expense of ease and comfort. The abominable atmosphere of the iron clads has taken hold of his system, and nothing but his high resolution, and the necessity he is under of vindicating the action of the Navy Department, which placed him in command, can long sustain him under his present debility.

☞ An association has been formed in Delaware, of which Gov. Cannon is President, and which reckons among its Vice-Presidents and Directors others leading citizens of the State. The direct object of the association is "the improvement of the State by the introduction of agriculturists, artisans, manufacturers and tradesmen from other States," and generally the development of its abundant resources.

☞ The London Times notices the launch of four large war steamers, simultaneously, on the river Tyne. The same builder has 16,000 tons of iron shipping on the stocks, besides orders on hand nearly reaching 40,000 tons.

☞ Albuqueque, New Mexico, papers of Aug. 29th, state that on the 28th of July Col. Kit Carson with a part of the First New Mexico regiment had a fight with the Navajoe Indians beyond Fort Canby. The Indians were defeated with a loss of 13 killed and over 20 wounded, and many prisoners.

☞ The Shoe and Leather Reporter states that two or three shoe dealers from Nashville, Tenn., are in Boston this week, trying to adjust their indebtedness. One of them has settled outright at ninety cents on the dollar, and others are paying fifty to sixty per cent. on their accounts.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune's Washington dispatch states that it is understood that Gen. McClellan has applied to the War Department for leave to print his voluminous report at his own expense; and that permission will probably be given to publish the same as a private work—the War Department disclaiming any responsibility in the matter.

☞ The English have got another war on their hands in New Zealand. The natives of the northern island have begun hostilities, which threaten to be more extensive and formidable than any before encountered.

☞ On the 15th ult. Gen. Banks was presented with a silver salver, tankard and goblet, by the Union school teachers and school girls of New Orleans, at Lyceum Hall, in that city; the occasion being described as interesting.

NAVAL.—The U. S. steamer Vanderbilt was at Rio Janeiro July 31. U. S. steamer Mohican sailed July 31 on a cruise in search of the pirate steamer Georgia.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated,—By UNCLE TONY.

North Parish,—South Parish,—Newington,—1713-15.

The fixing of a site for a meeting-house, has frequently been the source of warm contention. The meeting-house in Portsmouth situated on the south side of the mill-dam, had been standing upwards of fifty-eight years, and was much out of repair. The majority of the town had voted to build another on the north east corner of the glebe, which was nearly completed, but a large party in town were opposed to it. On the 7th of January, 1713, the church authorized and directed Mr. Rogers "on the next Sabbath come sen'night to preach in the new meeting-house, and to continue preaching there as formerly at the old meeting, and to perform all other offices which appertain to his function."

The opposition consisted principally of the inhabitants at the south end, of whom Captain John Pickering took the lead. On the 9th of September, 1713, they held a town-meeting and chose Captain Pickering moderator, and for the sake of giving him more influence and some agency in the business, they likewise chose him a selectman. The other selectmen objected to him because he was one of the assessors. Great disorders and tumults ensued. The selectmen desired the justices present to dissolve the meeting to prevent further disorders; and they accordingly declared the meeting dissolved and forbade all further proceedings. Notwithstanding which the moderator put a number of votes, which were passed by the party adhering to him, of which he kept the minutes, as the town clerk refused to act. The purport of the votes was, "that the old meeting-house, built by the town about fifty years ago, shall continue the town-meeting-house forever; and when out of repair, so that it cannot conveniently be repaired, to build a new one on the place. That the glebe land formerly given by the town for the use of the ministry, shall all wholly remain to the use and benefit of the minister that shall continue preaching and supplying the place of the ministry in said house, or such an one as shall be built in that place." And a committee was chosen "to discourse with Mr. Rogers and know whether he will continue the town's minister in preaching in said house during his abode in town, according to former agreement with the town; and if he refuses to supply the place of the ministry in said house, then said committee to use their influence for procuring an able minister to supply the place of the ministry in said house, and to agree with such person for his salary, which agreement so made with such person, the town shall and doth engage to make good in all respects, to be done by way of rate on all persons and estates in equal proportion, by the selectmen that shall be chosen from year to year."—These votes were entered on the town-book, and certified by John Pickering as moderator to have been legally passed in town-meeting by a majority of the inhabitants.

Mr. Rogers followed the directions of his church and officiated at the new meeting-house. The inhabitants of the south part of the town continued to meet for worship in the old house, and the committee appointed at the above meeting invited the Rev. Mr. Emerson, formerly the minister of New Castle, but who had been dismissed from that parish the last year, to settle with them, and offered him one hundred pounds, the strangers' contribution and the parsonage house, which Mr. Emerson accepted.

The inhabitants of Bloody Point, with "a few of the outskirts" of Portsmouth, petitioned the General Assembly to be made a separate and distinct parish from Dover and Portsmouth. The parties were heard on the 16th of July, 1713, and it was "ordered that the petition be granted, and the place made a separate parish by themselves, and that they forthwith establish an able, orthodox, and learned minister among them, and be henceforth acquitted from the support of the ministry of Dover and Portsmouth." His Excellency, Governor Dudley, named the parish at Bloody Point, Newington.

Queen Anne died August 1, 1714, and George I. became King of England.

As the town considered the proceedings of meeting held the 9th of September, illegal, at a general town-meeting held the 7th of June, they chose a committee of five persons for calling and settling an orthodox and learned minister on the south side of the mill-dam; and voted to allow him one hundred pounds per annum out of the town stock, and to provide a house for him at the public charge.

The Rev. John Emerson was installed on the 28th of March, 1715, to the pastoral charge of the parish which assembled at the old meeting-house near Pickering's mill-dam. Rev. Christopher Toppan of Hampton, in presence of Rev. Caleb Cushing and Rev. Theophilus Cotton, gave him the customary charge. Mr. Rogers did not assist in these services, and it is said that he and his church were dissatisfied with Mr. Emerson's being settled there.

—— The draft for the cities of Manchester and Nashua will not take place for two or three weeks.

—— The Claremont Agricultural and Mechanical Association held a business meeting on Friday evening last and voted to hold a Town Fair early in October.

—— Lyman J. Brooks, Esq., of the legal firm of Colby & Brooks, of Claremont has been appointed Clerk of the Supreme Court for Sullivan County, vice W. H. H. Allen, Esq., appointed Clerk of the Board of Enrolment of that District.

—— They have a man in Claremont whom it must be very convenient to have about. The Eagle thus states a couple of incidents, to prove the same:—

Our old stand-by for Selectman, William Clark, does not now occupy that position of honor and usefulness, but it so chanced the other day that all our Selectmen were out of town, when a "committee" from one of the districts wanted money to pay their School Mar'm. After looking in vain for a Selectman to draw an order on the Treasurer, he came across Clark and related his grievance. "O," said Clark, "I will draw you an order," which he did, and it was instantly cashed. Close on the heels of the departing "committee" came a circus agent, and hailed: "See here! last time I was here you gave me a license for my circus. Can't you make me out another? I don't find a Selectman in town." "Certainly," said Clark, and proceeded to draw up the requisite document, and so went on for the balance of the day, doing business with anybody who called having dealings with the town.

☞ The report that there will be no draft in Ohio is contradicted.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1857.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond all questions, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Special Notices.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS —The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the main study in the development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to rest them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and bowels, and as a Family Pill.

FALL FASHIONS.

MME. DEMOREST'S FASHION BOOK,

For the fall of 1863 is just out. GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY.

The subscriber, having been engaged for the last twenty years in the importation and sale of Wines and Spirits, now finds from this experience that real

Pure Bourbon Whiskey,

when made as it ought to be, from WHEAT, RYE AND CORN, is, without doubt, the most healthful and medical spirit that can be used. Having determined to make the sale of this article a specialty in his business, he has accepted the

and in future will sell, under the brand of

"Golden Sheaf,"

PURE BOURBON WHISKEY, manufactured from the BEST SELECTED GRAINS, and made in the most careful manner.

This celebrated Whiskey will be put up in cases containing one dozen bottles each, and offered to the Trade by his Travelling agents throughout the country, and also kept on hand in his warehouse in Boston, in barrels, half barrels and kegs.

Individuals desirous of procuring a pure, reliable article of BOURBON WHISKEY, at a reasonable price, have only to inquire of any respectable Grocer or Druggist for "GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKEY," or to send their orders for any quantity required to the General Depot for its sale, 91 Washington St, Boston.

Each bottle is enclosed in a neat pasteboard box, to ensure its safe transportation.

C. A. RICHARDS, General Agent.
Boston, May 19, 1863. 6mos eod

☞ Paymaster Pomeroy, U. S. A., will be in Concord on Thursday, Sept. 10, to pay those of the 15th and 16th N. H. regiments who have not received their pay.—Soldiers must take their discharges with them and be prepared to prove their connection with the regiment.

GOLD.—The opening quotation for gold in New York Friday morning, was 134 1-2. At twelve o'clock, it had fallen to 131, but an hour later had rallied to 132 1-2.

☞ The frigate Sabine has been sent to New England to enable the fishermen who have so long desired to enter the naval service to do so on board that vessel.

☞ Dan Rice's Great Show, about which everybody knows something, is to be exhibited in this city on Thursday, Sept. 17. Two exhibitions—2 1-2 and 7 1-2—will be given, and on each occasion a splendid programme is to be offered. Dan is one of the greatest humorists of the age, and of course, everybody will attend.

The new steamer "Firefly" is a snug little craft, but can hardly be accommodated in the "mail" to Manchester, as our item had it yesterday—instead of rail.—Portsmouth Chronicle

Then that per mail is not figurative.—We brought the whole force of the editorial department to bear upon the phrase and decided it to be a figure of speech, and sent it out as we found it.—Manchester American.

If it had been an iron-clad the figure might have been admissible,—it would have been a mailed boat. But it is of a different type.

☞ His Excellency, Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has re-appointed William H. Hackett, Esq., of this city, a Commissioner for the State of Pennsylvania.

NO EQUALIZATION OF THE DRAFT.—Provost Marshal Fry has abandoned the attempt to so equalize the draft as to credit towns with the excess of their quotas, and frankly admits that he has made more promises than he can keep. The Marshal says:

"In one or two instances, where this has been attempted, it is found to be a very extensive labor, and no adequate results have been arrived at, and the time which would be taken up with the claims of all who chose to make them, would cause so much delay as to defeat the object in view, and also interfere seriously with other important business.

An earnest and faithful effort has been made to carry out the plan, but the very effort has brought out so many difficulties and complications which I did not foresee, and developed so many obstacles which cannot be overcome, that I am at last compelled to abandon the idea.

While I thus frankly admit my inability to do what I contemplated, and give my reasons for it, I can at least ask and hope for acquiescence in a decision which has become unavoidable."

We suppose the above decision of the Provost Marshal General is intended for general application, and that will apply to towns in this State as elsewhere.

☞ George W. Childs' "American Publishers' Circular and Literary Gazette, published semi monthly at Philadelphia, gives a vast amount of information valuable to those interested in the progress of literature in this country, while its pleasant items concerning authors at home and abroad; its notes on books and booksellers; announcements of new books, and its accounts of rare and costly editors, combine to render it the most complete publication of the kind ever issued in America. It is published at $2 per year, in a form convenient for preservation, and should be liberally supported by the traders and men of letters. The number for Sept. 1st is the ninth of the new series.

☞ Rev. A. H. Quint, (who is known to many of our readers,) is chaplain of a Massachusetts regiment, which was lately quartered in the Park at New York, over Sunday. On Monday morning he wrote thus:—

Yesterday we had our usual Sunday services, and it seemed a luxury. Most of the city churches are closed, they say. Ergo, there is more religion in the army than in the town. Without pleasantry I believe there is.

EDWARD EVERETT, in a recent letter to a Union meeting at Circleville, Ohio, says, "Nothing but union of sentiment and action in the loyal States is now wanting to bring the struggle to an auspicious close; and any result of your election which would weaken the arm of the General Government, when a decisive blow is about to be struck, would be a public calamity.

PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.

We have iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had a tremendous sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, and throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

THANKFULNESS.

Sweet bird, although thy pleasant music be
All for thy mate, and not at all for me,
I hear thy song so gratefully as she,
And love thee still.

Fair flowers, that gaze on heaven as if to draw
Into yourselves the brightness of its blue,
My love has still a quiet place for you
Among my thoughts.

Great sun, thou dost not think to cheer my way
By the warm lustre of thy light to day,
But, kindled into gladness by thy ray,
I bless thy spell.

Green earth, that, with a gentle mother's smile,
Thy weary child so sweetly can beguile,
And soothe me still, heedless of me the while,
I love thee well.

Ocean, and thou lone lake that I see,
Ye show what time is to eternity;
And teach me, all the while ye heed not me,
Truth from above.

O, foolish heart! too low thy praises fall.
If for thy love unconscious things may call,
Dost thou not owe to Him who purposed all,
Fulness of love.

THE SHADOW KISS.

Two deep bay windows lit the room
In which we watched the evening gloom;
In this myself and Lucy sat,
Pater and maiden mute in that;
The gaslight on the flags below
And on our ceiling cast a glow.

While pater and his coterie
Talked masters parliamentary,
Or ruled, with solemn shake of head,
How prudently the young should wed,
In my committee I said: "This,
My dearest, is the time to kiss!"

Lured by the shadowy hour and nook,
The proffered pledge she coyly took;
When, lo! by our unlucky late,
In silhouette our tete-a-tete,
Noses and pointed lips were all
Obliquely shadowed on the wall!

So, when the footman brings in tea,
Sombre are they, and scarlet we;
The lamp has prematurely shown
A truth we had not dared to own;
Small thanks to light untimely cast—
And yet this kiss was not our last!

—Once a Week.

☞ The former editor of the Vicksburg Whig, Mr. F. Montgomery, who was a refugee from rebeldom because of his loyalty, has returned to that place and will establish a loyal journal, to be called the Vicksburg Union. Mr. Montgomery is Southern born and was formerly proslavery but a residence at the North has convinced him that free labor is the one thing needful to make the South as prosperous as the North. He says:

"While the Union will scrupulously avoid all counsels of fanaticism, it will, nevertheless, advocate in the most solemn and earnest manner the entire and immediate extinction of the cause of all the present troubles, and the curse of the South—African slavery."

So the "abolition" work goes on at the South irrespective of government action.

☞ "Father Taylor" is the old Friend or Quaker who presided over the democratic peace meeting in Maine, where Virgil D. Parris was one of the brethren, who have most irreverently been styled copperheads. After the meeting broke up, Father T. went to his own place; and now a writer in the Portland Press says:—

"Last Sabbath "Father Taylor" at his own Society in Fairfield, after the services were ended, requested the members to stop as he had something to say to them. One hundred and fifty favored his request and waited. When Father Taylor arose and said he wished to make some explanation of his recent political moves, they told him they did not desire to hear him, and every person immediately left the house except two."

The Courier says, "The old gentleman got up and attempted to explain his political course, but the audience left en masse; and when he got through, he had but six or seven hearers."

We infer from this, that the Friends were moved by the spirit to go home, and that they supposed Father T.'s speech would not edify them.

☞ The water works of Liverpool, Eng., are extensive. The gathering ground of the water extends over about 10,000 acres, the water from which is retained in several reservoirs. These reservoirs, when full, are calculated to contain three billion gallons. The water is passed through filter beds, six in number.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and small iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. By the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as a number of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are turned up by the combustion of the fire, and pass through the fire-pot, which renders them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect the plate.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when the base is work presents a smooth surface.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unmitted extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Painful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new principles, on reasonable, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the care of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Disease and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the professional rank than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
Dr. S. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

RYE, N.H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—so much so that she was obliged to be confined to her room, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c. &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the stubborn kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since. I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Burnside is advancing successfully. He telegraphs that he took Kingston, Tenn., on the 2d, meeting with little serious opposition. All Eastern Tennessee, except the Chattanooga region, has been evacuated by the rebels.

Advices from Charleston to the 1st, by steamer, report that the siege still continued. Gen. Gilmore had succeeded in running parallels against Fort Wagner. The iron clads had been withdrawn from the attack on Fort Moultrie and the batteries on Sullivan Island. Charleston had not been bombarded for ten days. The casualties among our troops average six per day. It is denied that Adm. Dahlgren is sick.

Letters from Charleston to the New York papers state that on the 31st four monitors engaged Fort Moultrie and the batteries on Sullivan's Island, firing occasionally at Sumter and Wagner, for about two hours, with great intensity. Many shots struck the monitors but did little damage. The heavy rifle and 15-inch shells of the iron-clads burst with effect over and in Moultrie, and sent the earth whirling in all directions.—Fort Wagner was repeatedly struck by the exploding shells, and somewhat damaged.—The rebels endeavored some days since to destroy the gunboats and transports in Stono Inlet, by sending down at least ten torpedoes, three or four of which exploded, and four of which were picked up. No serious damage was occasioned by them, but the vessels had a narrow escape. The garrison of Fort Wagner is suffering from the want of water. It is said that the dead lie so thickly around her that water cannot be drawn from the shallow wells; and though brave attempts have been made to supply the garrison from Charleston, thus far only a small quantity has been furnished. An officer from the vicinity of Charleston reports that none of our iron-clads have yet passed Fort Sumter, and that they cannot until the immense chains across the harbor are removed. To do this will require some time. He also says that after taking Fort Wagner the iron clads have much to do, as the fortifications on James Island are very strong.

Official dispatches from Gen. Gilmore and Adm. Dahlgren are encouraging, and decisive results are hoped for in ten or fifteen days.

Rebel guerrillas are seriously interrupting the navigation of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, threatening to cut off the supply of coal for Washington.

It is denied that Lee's army has been reclothed: a few regiments have been clad anew by means of private contributions.

It is stated that Maj Gen. Hunter at his own request, has been assigned to an important command in the West.

The Mobile Tribune gives a report that Gen. Lee has resigned.

☞ At half past 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, Henry C. Vanderbilt of Philadelphia was married to Miss Minnie Baldwin, a lady of New York. At fifteen minutes of 12 he died and his remains have been taken to Philadelphia for interment.

☞ The New Orleans correspondent of the Traveller, Aug. 23, states that the health of Gen. Banks' army was then first rate, as was also that of New Orleans. In the last weekly mortuary report consumption was named as the disease most destructive to life.

☞ A blacksmith at Louisville, Ky., who has been for some years deprived of the use of his legs by rheumatism, saw a few days ago that he had been robbed. He was so excited by the discovery that he burst into a general and profuse perspiration. He instantly recovered the use of his legs, and has been well ever since. Those suffering from like attacks might do well to engage the services of a professional burglar.

An Algerine Raid upon Plum Island.—The central portion of Plum Island is leased by Mr. James Small, who by the diligent labors of his family has greatly improved the property. They have cultivated cranberry vines in the sand valleys, till already they obtain a hundred bushels or more a year. They have managed also to have a good garden, and to redeem pasturage for their cows from the prevailing barrenness. They are greatly troubled, however, by intruders, as are other residents on the island. One day last week a party of seventy-five men, women and children from Seabrook, pitched their tents near Mr. Small's, and some of them, "bushwackers," at once began to plunder. They milked the cows, dug the potatoes, gathered the corn, and picked the cranberries; nor would listen to any remonstrance from the rightful owner. The sheriff and some other officers would have made arrests, but found the offenders too strong. Again they went to the seat of trouble with a large posse and prepared to capture the guerrillas, but the raiders finding the situation unsafe beat a retreat into New Hampshire—passing beyond the jurisdiction of the officers, and so escaping.—Newburyport Herald.

—— A Cornet Band has recently been organized in Nashua.

—— In Claremont, Rev. Francis Chase and Frederick C. Chase, sons of the Right Rev. Bishop Chase, were drafted.

—— Mr. David Robinson, of Hudson, has taken his turn with the mowers in the field this year, as he has done for the last seventy-seven years.

—— Mr. Benj. Wood, of Lebanon, has sixty tobacco plants in a very thrifty condition. All of them have leaves which measure 16 inches wide and 33 inches long.

—— Lieut. J. H. Hildreth, of Lebanon, originally Lieutenant in the 2d company of Sharpshooters, and for a long time on Gen. Gibbon's Staff, has resigned on account of continued ill health.

—— A "young Boston swell," who was abusive because he could not have a bed in a well-aired room at the Pavilion in Wolfborough, at a time when the hotel was crowded, was led by the landlord, who at the same time whistled for his "big dog Jack," to a bed of onions in the garden, and compelled to go to bed at once. The dog kept faithful watch over him during the night. He did not stop for breakfast.

—— An indictment was presented at the S. J. Court, Amherst, on Thursday, against John Swinburne, jr., for stealing a horse. He is a boy about twelve years old. When asked if he was guilty, he said: I am guilty of being there with my father and helped do it. The court thereupon directed the clerk to enter a plea of not guilty. But he subsequently pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to the House of Reformation for 3 years, and to pay the costs.

—— The Manchester Union states that some three weeks since the visitors at the Prospect House on Moosehillock mountain were startled at hearing a peculiar rumbling and rattling sound which seemed to come from the ground under them. There was a violent shaking of the mountain, accompanied by frequent explosions, which were heard for a distance of several miles. Fissures were made in some part of the ledge from which a volume of blue gas rose to the height of nearly fifty feet. This lasted nearly fifteen minutes.

☞ Albert Pike is said to be in obscurity in Texas, and is classed as rather friendly to the old Union.

☞ The Providence Bulletin learns that leather bonnets, trimmed with flowers of the same material, will appear in the market in a week or two.

☞ The returns of the California election, so far as received, indicate an immense Union victory. It is thought that Low's majority will hardly fall short of 20,000.

☞ Rev. J. C. Fletcher, who had engaged passage in the steamer Golden City, which sailed from New York on Wednesday, for Brazil, was unfortunately left behind, while all his baggage went with the vessel.

☞ It seems that the Rebels did not long enjoy that wonderful haul of Union gunboats in the Rappahannock—the Satellite and Reliance. On Wednesday Gen. Kilpatrick went down and quietly destroyed the boats, the enemy's cavalry incontinently skedaddling. The boats were only small tugs, of no force and no importance—yet Richmond got jolly over the "important capture."

☞ Brig. Gen. Edward W. Hinks was married to Miss Elizabeth Nichols, of Cambridge, Thursday evening, at Christ Church, Cambridge, by Rev. Mr. Hoppin. Gen. Devens, Maj. Cross, of the 5th N. H. regiment, Maj. Rice, of the 19th Massachusetts, and Lieut. White, of the 2d Heavy Artillery, acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony, a large company partook of an elegant collation at the residence of the bride's father.

The Rebels at Chattanooga.—A Stevenson (Ala.) letter says it is by no means certain that the rebels are evacuating Chattanooga. The authorities differ widely on the matter. Some apparently intelligent citizens on the south side of the Tennessee river give it as their opinion that the work of fortifying is going on at Chattanooga more actively than ever, and that the rebels have been recently largely reinforced.

"Ghosts" in the Suburbs.—A family residing not more than five miles from Boston, in one of our suburban cities, recently moved into a nice looking house. Shortly after, they were awakened about midnight by a loud stamping and a noise resembling that which would be made by a person throwing the stove covers or the dishes about the room. Search was made all over the house, but no cause was found for the mysterious noises. The noise continued each night, and at about the same hour.—Finally, a friend volunteered to sit up with the gentleman and assist him in making a search for the cause. The programme of the previous nights was enacted, and after looking over the house and finding nothing unusual, the men turned their attention to an adjoining stable where the "ghost" was speedily brought to light, in the form of a horse, who, becoming restless, kicked against the side of the stable, and the jar caused the confusion of the dishes, &c., in the house.—Boston Traveller.

TRIP TO THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

JOTTINGS ON THE WAY.—By J. H. H.

Crawford House, Aug. 27.

Messrs. Editors:—The Crawford House is pleasantly situated at the head of the White Mountain Notch. It is large, and is surrounded with wide piazzas for promenading. Spacious halls run the entire length of the building. Fine parlors well furnished are found here, and well ventilated rooms are on every floor. The house is crowded with visitors.

My last letter left me on the summit of Mt. Washington. I remained there until late in the afternoon of Sunday, but could not get a view. From the time that we reached the top of the Mount till we started down, we saw neither earth, sky, sun, moon, nor stars. Just as we were descending, Colonel Jackson and other Portsmouth friends arrived up from the Crawford side. We all dined at the Tip Top House, secured a few specimens of quartz, visited the well, and started down the mountain. Our horses speed away at a rapid rate, and in thirty minutes we were amid sunshine and summer again. Monday morning we visited the Emerald Lake,—a charming spot in a dense wood. In the afternoon we started off for the trout brooks, where we had splendid luck and returned with a fine mess of mountain fish.

In the evening an amateur concert was given at the house under the direction of your correspondent. Many fine singers took parts, and among the audience were Ex-President Fillmore and lady, Ex-Gov. Morgan and family, Governor Sprague, and Miss Chase. Gov. Sprague arrived late that eve, and was obliged to sleep on the parlor floor.

On Tuesday morning we took coach for Crawford's, by the way of Jackson, and on the way visited the Willey House, the scene of the great disaster. In our travels about the hills we miss the songs of birds. We have heard no bird singing while here.—A gent who had visited the Crystal Cascade remarked on the piazza, that he had just as lief sit on his back door step and let his servant pour a full of water [illegible] f the shed, as to visit the cascade again.

In looking over a copy of Spaulding's Historical Relics I find that the first ladies who visited Mount Washington were from Portsmouth, the Misses Austin, 1821, who were accompanied by their brother. The first horse was ridden by old Abel Crawford. The first settler through the Notch was Col. Whipple, of Portsmouth, in 1772.

Arrangements are being made for the erection of stockades for their defense, together with improvements, in order to carry out in good faith the pledge of the Government.

☞ The Pirate Retribution has recently been seized at Jersey City in the guise of a fruit ship. The Retribution was once a tug-boat in New York harbor, and went by the name of Uncle Ben. She was sold to parties in Washington, D. C., who took the machinery out of her and altered her into a fore-and aft schooner. She ran the blockade of Wilmington in the fall of 1862, went to Nassau, returned as a blockade runner to Wilmington, and went from thence as a pirate. She was recently sold at Nassau to private parties, loaded with fruit at one of the West India Islands, and went to New York. Her present captain and crew are innocent of piracy, by all accounts. There is no doubt of the identity of the Retribution, which is now called the Etta.

☞ Mr. Henry Reinish sends to the N. Y. Times a letter, in which he says that he has passed over a year in Richmond, having just returned. He says:—

During my stay there I made the intimate acquaintance of J. Lane, a captain in the Confederate army, son of Gen. Joe Lane, of Oregon, who is well informed, and who assured me that the late invasions of the North by Gens. Lee and Morgan were made upon the earnest and undoubted representation of that "true Southern man, Vallandigham, who assured President Jeff. Davis and his Cabinet, that the North was ripe for a revolution, and only awaited the appearance of the Southern army to proclaim for Jeff. Davis and forsake Lincoln. Mr. Vallandigham's representations were corroborated by the tone of the majority of the Northern Journals, who surely would not denounce the administration so boldly, except by the assurance of having the masses strongly in their favor."

☞ The Buffalo Courier learns that an immense amount of fifty cent U. S. currency notes is manufacturing in New York. The officers in that city are on the alert for the distributors of the trash. It is said that at least forty thousand dollars of this counterfeit currency was in Buffalo no later than two weeks ago.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

75 State Street, opposite Kilby St.

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and dispatch. Research made into American and foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other opinions rendered in all matters touching the validity of the claims of any Patent furnished by enclosing One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have access for securing Patents in all countries, the facilities for procuring which are unsurpassed by, if not measurably superior to, any which can be obtained elsewhere. The testimonials herewith prove that some is MORE SUCCESSFUL IN THE PATENT OFFICE than the average and SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF SKILL AND ABILITY. There is that he has abundant reason to believe, can prove, that at no other office of the country the charges for professional service so small. The immense practice of the subscriber for twenty years past, has enabled him to compile a vast collection of specifications and decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of mechanical works, and full accounts of Patents granted in the United States and European countries, place him abler, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delays are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most able and successful practitioners with whom I have official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in saying that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting applications in a form to secure for them the said favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which Patents have been granted, and that is now pending. I cheerfully bestow this unsolicited testimony of great talent and unremitting industry in the prosecution of claims, and would advise persons who may have to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful and skillful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAGGART,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

During eight months, the subscriber, in the practice of his large practice, made on twenty-eight different occasions, APPEALS TO THE PATENT OFFICE, in which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

PROF. DENTON'S LECURES ON GEOLOGY are highly commended to our favorable notice, by one of his audience well qualified to judge. The following certificate shows how his first lecture was received by several gentlemen present:

We, the undersigned, having attended Professor Denton's introductory lecture, learning that he intends to re-commence his course on Monday evening, take this method of advising our fellow citizens to attend the course, believing that the lectures will be intensely interesting and instructive. And we think that while our citizens are eminently benefitted by such lectures, it a duty we owe to ourselves and to the credit of the place, to show that such lectures are here appreciated and will be encouraged.

☞ We published an item a few days since, relative to a schooner which left our lower harbor in the absence of her captain, and in pursuit of which the yacht America was sent. The upshot of the matter appears to be that the mate was principal owner of the vessel, that the captain had been indulging in the ardent before he came on shore, and that the mate proceeded straight to his port of destination—Boston.

☞ One hundred and eleven drafted men, from Chester, Auburn and Candia, came down on Saturday morning, with the Chester Brass Band, and marched through the streets to the Provost Marshal's office. The success they met with there, will be seen by the Marshal's advertisement in another column.

☞ On Friday last, a young man named Jeremiah Decoff, of this city, was severely injured by falling from the framework of a building, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, a distance of thirty feet. He was taken to the Hospital, made as comfortable as possible, and from thence conveyed to his home on a litter.

☞ Constructor Pook arrived at the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Saturday morning, and assumed the direction of his duties as successor of Constructor Hanscom.

Constructor Hanscom leaves this morning for Norfolk, where he is ordered to report for duty.

☞ The New Orleans correspondent of the Boston Traveller, writes:—

Major Hoyt, Paymaster, from Mass., has gained so wide and so well-merited a popularity in this Department as an efficient and energetic officer, as well as a cautious and accommodating gentleman—qualities which not all having a little "brief authority" are endowed with—that he deserves, when he returns to Massachusetts, as he is about to, I understand, a hearty and sincere welcome. Good officers are so scarce, the few we have are doubly precious.

Probably the above refers to Maj. Albert H. Hoyt, of this city, as he is acting in that department and expects soon to return home. Should this supposition prove correct, the statement that he is "from Massachusetts" may be excused by those who have become accustomed, by oft-repeated instances of the kind, to the modesty which is so marked a characteristic of many writers for Massachusetts papers.

☞ Without discipline there can be no order or efficiency in a camp, garrison or military post; and laws must be obeyed or punishment must ensue, there as well as elsewhere. Any well disposed persons, therefore, who have been misled by the clamor of political pests, to blame the commander of a military post in this vicinity for inflicting a mild punishment on some of his men on a late occasion, would do well to read a communication which has been voluntarily made by one of the men to his commander, thanking him in behalf of the whole, for the mildness with which he corrected a fault that might legally have been punished severely. This communication is in the hands of a gentleman who will show it to any proper persons, ladies as well as gentlemen.

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors:—Some of the copperhead organs have been making a noise over the fact that one returned soldier, who died in this city recently, had no military escort and a very small funeral, while an officer some time before had a large funeral with military display. Having a turn to serve, they ignore other facts quite as important; viz., that other private soldiers have had military funerals;—that the military escort, in these cases, has been furnished by request of relatives or friends; that most of the soldiers, and among them some officers, who have been buried here, have had no military display whatever;—that the soldier over whose case the noise is made, was a foreigner, and comparatively a stranger;—and that, in a time when sickness abounded, and funerals took place daily, it was by no means strange that such a man should be buried without pomp or show. It would have been strange, indeed, if many persons had attended, under the circumstances.—The only wrong in the matter is done by those who make the noise about nothing.

BOB SHORT.

☞ Paymaster Pomeroy, U. S. A., will be in Concord on Thursday, Sept. 10, to pay those of the 15th and 16th N. H. regiments who have not received their pay.—Soldiers must take their discharges with them and be prepared to prove their connection with the regiment. See advertisement.

☞ Capt. Matthew M. Blunt, 12th U. S. Infantry, will take command of the Regimental Depot, at Fort Hamilton, vice Maj. Bowen, ordered to the field.

☞ A remarkably well executed counterfeit, of the denomination of five dollars, on the New England Bank, Boston, made its appearance in Boston, on Saturday forenoon. This counterfeit is nearly a facsimile of the genuine bills, and is very likely to deceive even good judges. In the counterfeit, directly over the figure Five in the right hand upper corner, are the capital letters, A. B. C., which do not appear in the genuine bills.

DEATHS.

In this city, on Saturday morning, Sept. 5, Miss MARGARET A. P. GARDNER, aged 32 years, daughter of the late Dr. John Gardner

In this city, Sept. 1, EUSTIS WINTHROP TREADWELL, aged 27 months, son of Dr. Robert O. and Marianna Treadwell.—Sept 3, JOHN W. GARLAND, aged 20 years and 7 months, son of Mr. James Garland.

COMING HOME.

Meekly with her white, white face,
Marbled by the artist Grief,
Gazing on the blackened space,
Seeking all in vain relief—

Never moved the lovely mouth,
Never tear to eyelid stole,
Sigh nor moan, oh! cruel Death!
Kissed the anguish of her soul.

Then they laid her passive hand
On his brow and locks of jet,
Whispered how, for native land,
He had died with no regret;

Named his name, with sob and prayer
That this trance of woe might break;
But the heart from its despair
Never more to life will wake.

Slowly, slowly then she bowed
Her fair brow upon his breast—
Death, within its snowy cloud,
Gave them joy and perfect rest.

☞ The New Orleans Picayune mentions the recent death, at the age of threescore, of Eliza Sickles, who for at least twenty years has been an inmate of the Workhouse, and says:

Intemperance was her master failing. If sent to the Workhouse for a month, she would get drunk and noisy as soon as she got out, when she would be re-arrested and sent back. At length she began to look upon the prison buildings on Lafayette street as her only home, and it is so happened that the police did not arrest her after she had indulged in an uninterrupted spree of a day or two, she was in the habit of going to the Recorder's office, obtaining a commitment for herself and riding "home" in the "Black Maria."

She has always claimed to be the aunt of Gen. Sickles, and at the time of his difficulty with Key she felt greatly grieved at his conduct, which did not at all come upto her idea of what honor and chivalry required.

An almost constant residence in the Workhouse for half a lifetime did not destroy within her the promptings of a better nature. She had many redeeming qualities, and only one confirmed and constant failing. When sober, she was remarkably kind, motherly and humane, and as she was always sober in the Workhouse, she was looked upon as a faithful Sister of Charity to the institution, ever gentle and constant in her ministrations to the sick and ailing, and the keys of her medical storeroom she carried at her apron with a matron's pride. The sick always grieved when Old Eliza went out for her periodical spree, and always rejoiced when she returned.

Outside of the Workhouse, she was a noisy, drunken vagrant; inside, a patient nurse and a generous, warm-hearted woman.

☞ Whiskey being declared "contraband" in the department of the Gulf, multiform and ingenious are the dodges resorted to for its introduction. Some importations are made as "coal oil" some as "hams," some as "vinegar" and some as "cider." Five barrels of whiskey were found enclosed in larger casks of vinegar, marked "vinegar" of course; 38 boxes of the ardent were marked "peaches in glass" and "pickles;" 6 barrels came down the river in tobacco hogsheads, surrounded by 900 lbs. leaf tobacco, and lots more of it came under various new fangled disguises.

☞ A Union girl of St. Louis was recently married, and within ten minutes thereafter her husband wanted her money to increase his business, which was smuggling quinine to the rebels. Disdaining the idea of becoming a female smuggler, the indignant bride complained to the Provost Marshal.

☞ At Carrollton, La., on the 14th ult., a negro soldier got into a quarrel with a white soldier belonging to the 24th Indiana, when the negro drew a pistol and shot the white soldier through the heart, killing him instantly.

☞ A Memphis letter states that people are flocking into that city from the adjoining counties to take the oath of allegiance. Hardly a day passes that less than twenty-five names are registered for the "old flag" and for the "old Union."

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler, and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meat is prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove, and so arranged that no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the sole Agents in this vicinity for the numerous and best sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given quantity of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former models, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they come off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without coming to the fire-pot.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depression—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind
Love truth, do good; live just and fear with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

PAINTS, OILS AND VARNISHES FOR SALE

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practice, experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS:

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your complaint. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotiles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to it. Female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons soon regain perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

DR. DOW, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which cause patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called "FRENCH SECRETS." Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜
EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1863. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the chills for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOVD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our home in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named.—ISAAC CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with the same, or if it not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may29

DEFENCE OF STATE RIGHTS.

BY UNCLE TOBY.

We believe in State Rights, or more properly in State Powers, and Privileges; and we wish to have preserved to every loyal State in the Union all the rights it had or ought to have had within the Union and under the Constitution of the United States.

Complete and Independent Sovereignty is not one of these rights or powers. Under the Old Confederation of 1778-81, it was so; as the second article read thus:—

Each State retains its sovereignty, freedom and independence, and every power, jurisdiction and right which is not by this confederation expressly delegated to the United States in Congress assembled.

But our fathers found this led to confusion and weakness;—therefore they formed a more perfect union, and in the Constitution of the U. S. "as it is," made in 1787, the People expressly gave away this sovereign power to the General Government, and thus put that over the individual States, in the words following:—

This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the SUPREME LAW of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

Not only so: Gen. Washington, the President of the convention that framed the Constitution, wrote a document recommending its adoption, in which, "by the Unanimous Order of the Convention," he writes thus:—

It is obviously impracticable, in the Federal Government of these States, to secure all rights of independent sovereignty to each, and yet provide for the interest and safety of all. Individuals entering into society must give up a share of liberty, to preserve the rest.

This is so plain that any unprejudiced mind would pronounce it unmistakable, and say that the General Government was supreme and sovereign, while the several States, though possessing many valuable rights and powers, (as equality in the Senate, and the right to have citizens of one State be citizens of all other States,) are subject at last to the higher power of the Union.

But yet, strange to say, in a political paper in Maine, printed Aug. 6, 1863, in a piece to defend modern State Rights, we read the following remarkable falsehood:—

According to the theory on which our Government is based, the highest power is in the municipality, not in the State or Federal Government. Next after the municipal authority comes that of the State—and after that the authority of those in possession of the national administration.

If this were true, no Sheriff in Maine could execute a precept in Kittery without a license from the Selectmen; no U. S. Marshal could exercise a precept in Maine without asking the Governor; and the condition of affairs would be anarchy. But the facts are otherwise, and the extract flatly contradicts the Constitution of Maine, as well as that of the United States.

The paper above quoted does not stand alone in its falsehood: far from it: it was the rallying cry of the southern rebels before they made war upon the democratic party and the government,—and it is the rallying cry of northern traitors now.

A body of conspirators have lately been in session in New York, under the name of the "New York State Rights Association," and have adopted a declaration, in which they say:—

The government of the United States is not a sovereignty, in the proper meaning of the term; it possesses no inherent sovereign powers, but only such as are specific and delegated, to be exercised for the common benefit.

Unless the Constitution of the U. S. is a nullity, the General Government is a sovereignty; expressly formed by the people for the purpose;—and among the delegated powers was that of sovereignty, if the words of the Constitution have any meaning whatever.

These State Rights conspirators quote the following sentence from Blackstone, as if it sustained their view, as it certainly does not:

However they begin, or by what right soever they subsist, there is, and must be, in all political States, a supreme, irresistible, absolute, uncontrolled authority, in which the jura summi imperii, or the rights of sovereignty, reside; and this authority is placed in those hands wherein the qualities requisite for supremacy are most likely to be found.—Blackstone.

Blackstone surely did not mean to say that Ireland was a State, Scotland a State, Wales a State, and England a State, and that each of these States was supreme and irresistible, while the Kingdom and Crown of Great Britain was no State at all, had no sovereignty, and was not supreme but subordinate. Yet this is exactly the copperhead view of the case in this country. But Blackstone meant no such thing: with him Britain was a State, France a State, and Russia a State. He never meant that the parts of anything were each greater than the whole.

If the extreme doctrine of State Sovereignty were true, then each State of our 30 or 40, had the right to secede at pleasure, and some copperheads now assert that the rebel States can come back in the same way.

To show that we do not misrepresent them, we quote from the doings of the Worcester, Mass., convention:

Resolved, That as our Union is composed of independent, sovereign States, no one of which has yet been wrested from the Union by force of arms, &c. * * * That whenever any States in arms against the laws of the Government shall lay down its arms and submit to the laws and the constituted authorities, the people thereof will be entitled to resume and enjoy all the rights and privileges given by the laws and the Constitution to citizens of the several States.

Dr. Loring said, in his speech:—

I say to you democrats, here and all over the land, that we are ready to meet these gentlemen upon this issue, and I declare that you go into this campaign with victory written on your banners, and that whenever a free sovereign State which has seen fit to withdraw from this Confederation presents herself once more, either by convention or by vote of her people, or by legislative act, or by her Senators and Representatives to the Federal Congress, the doors shall be thrown open and it be admitted there as a State. (Applause.)

The people of Massachusetts, Vermont, California and Maine will have a word to say about that, we think.

The doctrine of the New York Copperheads is now that each State is an irresistible sovereignty, a supreme government, higher than the United States. But we remember, that only a few years ago, when a Senator of the U. S. said in debate on the fugitive slave bill,—"I think this bill is contrary to the Constitution" of the U. S., but there is a "higher law"—the law of God—there was a general hiss from the serpentine race all over the land—and the term higher law" was used as a term of reproach by blackguards generally. Putting these things together, the new copperhead constitution would be—town meetings and mobs are supreme, under them the States are irresistible, the Constitution of the United States is not a law of sovereignty, and the Law of God is of no account.

COL. HARRIMAN,

Of the 11th Regiment N. H. V., as the reader may know, resigned his commission and came home a few weeks ago; but has since been re-appointed to the same command. The mystery that hung over these transactions has been removed, and all is made plain by a letter from Col. H., which appeared in the Manchester Daily Union of August 28.

It appears from the letter that some ambitious inferior officers demanded some investigation of Col. H.'s political action: he at once resigned, in disgust at perfidy and treachery — and he was honorably discharged. In the letter, Col. Harriman says:

Subsequent to this disclosure, and at different times, a respectable number of the officers whose names are attached to that paper came voluntarily to me and expressed their hearty regrets that their names had been thus obtained, assuring me, in several instances, that it had been done by misrepresentation and deception, practiced by designing men.

Major Farr, and one or two friends of his, obtained furloughs a few weeks since, and came on to New Hampshire for the purpose, it is alleged, of overriding Lt. Col. Collins, and making him (Farr) Colonel of the regiment. Finding that I had been re-appointed, they went to the Governor and Council and laid before them the papers, and a day was fixed for a hearing. I appeared at the time designated, ready, as I believed, to convince any fair, unprejudiced minds of the utter futility of the accusations made. The whole matter was indefinitely postponed. * * *

"I appeal, from a tribunal of two or three ambitious officers to that of the seven hundred men composing the regiment. After my withdrawal and without my knowledge or any suggestion from me, the enlisted men of the regiment, by a unanimous vote, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That our hearts have been filled with grief at the resignation and departure of our beloved Colonel.

Resolved, That his course throughout commands our respect and admiration and devoted love. * * * his bravery and serenity amid the trying scenes of our first battle at Fredericksburg; his sympathizing tear and soothing cares for our dying and wounded comrades; his constant regard for our welfare and comfort; his perfect command over our willing hearts; his virtues, marked and exemplary, * * * all these have made us love and honor him.

Resolved. That it has been the wish of our hearts that he who raised and organized us and had been our leader, and on whom we had learned to look as the key stone of the regiment, might have led back the remnant of the band he loved and who loved him, to our first camp at Concord and that then and there we might have had our parting parade.

[The resolutions were drawn up and signed by a Sergeant from each company as a committee on resolutions.]

The Colonel says:

"Be it remembered that I have nothing to reply to here except the simple statements of an individual, unsupported by any testimony whatever. * * * Satisfied that the enlisted men of the regiment, with great unanimity, desire my return to it, and that a large majority of the officers entertain the same feeling, I have acted in accordance with the advice of men of high official position whom I met at Washington, as well as that of numerous friends in this State, and have been re-appointed by a unanimous vote of the Governor and Council, Col. of the 11th regiment."

THE REBELLION

Five gentlemen composing the Relief Committee of Lawrence, deny the report that a large amount of goods and money, and a number of horses taken by Quantrell, had been recovered. Of the horses stolen only three have been returned, and the value of the merchandize recovered will not exceed $100. Gen. Schofield telegraphs to Lieut Gov. Hall from Kansas City that there will be an invasion of Missouri by the people of Kansas.

Deserters report that the people of Charleston are anxious to surrender the city, but Beauregard is determined that it shall first be destroyed. Gen. Gilmore, last Tuesday, dug out and captured 75 rebels from their rifle pits in front of Fort Wagner. Fort Sumter is to be blown up if we attempt to take possession; yet is "completely demolished," according to the reports.

Sept. 1, there was a general engagement between the iron clads, Sumter, Wagner and Moultrie. Great damage was done the forts. On the 3d, four monitors were abreast of Fort Sumter, ready to renew the attack. The bombardment of Charleston had not been resumed. New batteries would open at the proper time. The army was in fine spirits, and Gen. Gilmore was working with the greatest energy.

Gen. Davidson, with cavalry and artillery, constituting the advance of Gen. Steele's army, on the 28th ult., drove the enemy (7000 strong) across the Bayou Militara bridge, killing and wounding about one hundred and capturing two hundred.—Our loss was thirty. The rebels burned the bridge after crossing. Gen. Stella was at Dual's Bluff on the 31st ult.

In the fight in Arkansas, Aug. 25, Price's forces were driven across the Arkansas river, and on Wednesday forenoon last the entire rebel force was in full retreat, Steele and Davidson hotly pursuing them and shelling the fleeing rebels. Hundreds were deserting. Marmaduke's command was wholly routed and scattered.

A dispatch has been received in Cincinnati announcing that Gen. Burnside entered Knoxville, East Tennessee, on the 4th. Official reports from Gen. Burnside confirm this.

Bragg, it is said, has been reinforced from Lee's army.

The movement on Mobila seems to have been given up for the present, the French movements in Texas rendering it desirable to occupy that State. A great military and naval expedition is fitting out at New Orleans, for that State. Washington rumors assign Gen. Heintzleman to an important position in that State.

☞ The Boston Herald's correspondent off Charleston writes under date of the 26th ult.:

"For some days past we have been removing the obstructions in the harbor by shot and shell. A large number have been fired up the harbor between Sumter and Moultrie, and we have had the satisfaction of seeing torpedo after torpedo blown up from the effects of our missiles. Within a week past some of the iron-clads have been up the harbor to within two miles of the city, and have not met with any obstructions. Lieut. Porter of the Wabash had previously been up in a small boat, nearly reaching Charleston, and he found no obstruction nor anything to molest him."

FOREIGN.—It is reported that our Minister to France, Mr Dayton, has been instructed to protest against the Emperor's proceedings in Mexico. The London Times, however, does not believe that the United States government would dare make any very serious protest, as such a course would at once secure the recognition of the rebels' confederacy. The rebel steamer Atlanta, had put into Brest for repairs. It is reported that sundry vessels for the rebels are quietly building in French ports. The Emancipation Society had memorialized Earl Russell to prevent the departure from the Mersey of two steam rams built for the rebels. They also represent that another iron clad is approaching completion on the Clyde. A vessel supposed to be the Florida was seen passing down the Queenstown channel on the 23d ult.

The Queenstown correspondent of the N. Y. Herald states that it was the pirate Florida which was repairing in the dock yard in Brest.

☞ President Lincoln has received a dispatch from California, assuring him in warm terms of the earnest support of the people, and declaring that the complete triumph of the Union ticket in that State by a majority of nearly thirty thousand is a pledge that California believes in his policy, and enthusiastically supports all his measures for the suppression of the rebellion.

☞ The chair of mathematics at Dartmouth College has been declined by Professor Charles A. Young of the Western Reserve College of Hudson, Ohio, who feels that duty requires him to remain in his present position. Rev. John N. Putnam, Professor of Greek at Dartmouth, did not accept the chair of Ecclesiastical History at the Andover Theological Seminary, and will remain at Hanover. He is now temporarily absent on a European tour.

☞ Ex-Governor Thomas has been renominated for Congress in the Fourth District of Maryland by a Convention which adopted strong unconditional Union resolution.

☞ Instructions have been issued requiring that men charged with desertion, who belong to regiments whose terms have expired, if not able to clear themselves of the charge, shall be compelled to serve for the remainder of the term.

☞ Gen. Pleasanton's official report of the operations of the cavalry in the late campaign, shows that the total loss of the cavalry corps, from June 9 to the present time, in killed, wounded and missing, is upward of four thousand.

☞ The number of deserters is decreasing in dread of the severe penalties that have been inflicted, and which the government will continue to inflict till the evil which has become so alarmingly great is stopped. All persons in the army should take warning in season.

☞ A company of young ladies, accompanied by gentlemen, making a party of twelve, recently performed the feat of walking from Amherst to the White Mountains. A wagon train accompanied the party, carrying their provisions, tents &c.

☞ A manufacturer in Hampshire county, Mass., who had understated his monthly returns, recently had $20,000 added to his sales for three months past by the assessor, and was informed that his oath would no longer be received.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it for their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries; Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Examinations made into patents for foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Special Notices.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill.

Local.

☞ The U. S. steamer Nipsic went into commission at the Portsmouth Navy Yard at twenty minutes past 1 o'clock on Thursday, Sept. 3d. The following is a list of her officers:

Master's Mates—Graham S. Johnson, Wm. R. Orcutt, Wm. H. Kitching, Jr.

The school ship Marion and her tender, the yacht America, sailed from the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Saturday morning, for Boston.

Orders having been received at the Yard to build two new tug boats, the keels will be laid immediately.

☞ Mr. William Dutton, of this city, a member of Co. K, 16th N. H. V., died recently in hospital at New Orleans, after a long and severe illness.

Mr. Isaac C. Drew, a member of the same company, also died recently in hospital at Albany, N. Y.

AN INCIDENT OF CAMP LIFE.—A soldier gets drunk while on guard, and is ordered to clean guns as a punishment for this offence; but he neglects and refuses to do so: for this the officer in command orders him to be confined in a tiresome posture till he shall agree to go to work: after a brief delay he agrees, and is at once released. Such things are likely to happen when a camp is near many groggeries;—and one such thing, having happened, is made a handle by some persons desiring to make all the mischief they can among the soldiers or about them.—It would be well for them to be careful and state only facts: but these might not serve their turn so well as perversions.

☞ The Portsmouth Baptist Association will hold its 34th Anniversary with the 1st Baptist Church, in Exeter, on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 9 and 10. The annual sermon will be preached on Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock, by Rev. S. A. Collins, of Somersworth.

☞ Probate Court in this city to day, Tuesday,—and in Exeter to-morrow.

We are glad to hear that the sale of the Newington pines, which we alluded to some weeks since, will not take place. We published the statement on what we conceived to be the best authority, without being official.—Boston Gazette.

☞ Gen. Dana has been relieved of his command at Philadelphia, and has been ordered to Texas, where he will take charge in an important position.

☞ Advices from Liverpool, Eng., Aug. 30, state that war has broken out with Japan. The American steamer Pembroke has been fired on from the Japanese forts. The U. S. steamer Wyoming sunk two Japanese steamers and bombarded Simionski.

San Francisco advices state that an English vessel was also fired on. The Wyoming destroyed the two steamers, silenced nearly all the forts in the neighborhood, and withdrew with a loss of 5 men killed and 6 wounded. A British vessel afterwards bombarded the Japanese batteries and forts for three hours, and 153 British troops landed, destroyed the forts and batteries, spiked the guns, blew up the powder magazine and burned the village, losing 3 men.

☞ A woman falsely representing herself to be Mrs. Jane R. Munsel (a well known friend of the soldiers, who lives in Alexandria,) has recently imposed upon many of the citizens of Philadelphia, where she collected several thousands dollars' worth of clothing and sent it to her agents, mostly Jew sutlers in the army, who sold it to the soldiers at exorbitant prices.

POPHAM CELEBRATION.—The editor of the Gardiner Journal thus speaks of his "first impression" on landing at "Popham" after the anniversary exercises of the day were over:

"Our first impression of those we saw was, that half of them were fighting drunk, if other half too drunk to fight, and subsequent investigation did not materially change our opinion. Such a rum-soaked crowd as we saw there, it never before has been our lot to witness—it did honor to the town that was first to hire its conscripts to stay at home. In this respect the celebration was quite different from that of last year, for if we recollect rightly, last year no liquor was allowed on the grounds. If the powers that be wish decent people to attend their celebrations, future ones must not have rum circulating quite so freely as on this occasion."

☞ At a marriage in Bicester, Eng., lately, the bride, bridegroom, bridesmaid, the next best man, the officiating minister, clerk, and registrar, all rejoiced in the name of Smith.

☞ Paymaster Pomeroy, U. S. A., will be in Concord on Thursday, Sept. 10, to pay those of the 15th and 16th N. H. regiments who have not received their pay.—Soldiers must take their discharges with them and be prepared to prove their connection with the regiment. See advertisement.

THE MORTALITY IN DIFFERENT DEPARTMENTS.—A table is being prepared in the Surgeon General's office showing the degrees of mortality among white troops of the different military departments. The percentage of mortality in the Army of the Potomac is three times greater than in the Department of the Pacific, and in Gen. Grant's army it is three times greater than in the Army of the Potomac. This calculation refers to white troops. The percentage of mortality among colored troops in the Department of the South is much less than among white troops of the Department of the Pacific, showing that it is economy of life to use colored troops in the Southern Departments.

☞ The pirate Florida has burnt the American ship Anglo Saxon, from Liverpool for New York, 35 miles south of Kinsale.

☞ The U. S. brig Bainbridge has arrived at Port Royal. The story of the negro, therefore, that she had foundered at sea, with all on board, was altogether false.

☞ It was recently stated in Parliament that one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven cases of infanticide occurred in England and Wales during the six months past.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.
THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers, and why they should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

The Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE-KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S LETTER.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, Aug. 31st, 1863.

Hon. James C. Conkling:—

My Dear Sir: Your letter inviting me to attend a mass meeting of unconditional Union men, to be held at the Capital of Illinois on the 3d day of September has been received. It would be very agreeable to me thus to meet my old friends at my own home, but I cannot just now be absent from this city so long as a visit there would require.

The meeting is to be of all those who maintain unconditional devotion to the Union, and I am sure that my old political friends will thank me for tendering, as I do, the Nation's gratitude to those other noble men whom no partisan malice nor partisan hope can make false to the Nation's life.

There are those who are dissatisfied with me. To such I would say:—You desire peace, and you blame me that we do not have it; but how can we attain it? There are but three conceivable ways:—First, to suppress the rebellion by force of arms. This I am trying to do; are you for it? If you are, so far we are agreed. If you are not for it, a second way is to give up the Union. I am against this; if you are you should say so plainly. If you are not for force, nor yet for dissolution, there only remains some imaginable compromise. I do not believe that any compromise embracing the maintenance of the Union is now possible. All that I learn leads to a directly opposite belief. The strength of the rebellion is in its military—its army. That army dominates all the country and all the people within its reach. Any offer of terms made by any man or men within that range, in opposition to that army, is simply nothing for the present, because such man or men have no power whatever to enforce their side of a compromise, if one were made with them. To illustrate: Suppose refugees from the South and peace men of the North get together in convention, and frame and proclaim a compromise embracing a restoration of the Union, in what way can that compromise be used to keep General Lee's army out of Pennsylvania? Gen. Meade's army can keep Lee's army out of Pennsylvania, and I think can ultimately drive it out of existence; but no paper compromise to which the controllers of Gen. Lee's army are not agreed can at all affect that army. In an effort at such compromise we would waste time which the enemy wor..d improve to our disadvantage, and that would be all.

A compromise to be effective must be made either with those who control the rebel army, or with the people first liberated from the domination of that army by the success of our army. Now allow me to assure you that no word or intimation from the rebel army, or from any of the men controlling it, in reflection of peace compromise has ever come to my knowledge or belief. All charges and intimations to the contrary are deceptive and groundless, and I promise you that if any such proposition shall hereafter come, it shall not be rejected and kept secret from you. I freely acknowledge myself to be the servant of the people according to the bond of service in the United States Constitution, and that as such I am responsible to them.

But, to be plain, you are dissatisfied with me about the negro. Quite likely there is a difference of opinion between you and myself on the subject. I certainly wish that all men could be free, while you, I suppose, do not. Yet I have neither adopted nor proposed any measure which is not consistent with even your view, provided you are for the Union. I suppose compensated emancipation, to which you replied that you wished not to be taxed to buy negroes. But I had not asked you to be taxed to buy negroes, except in such a way as to save you from greater taxation to save the Union exclusively by other means. You dislike the Emancipation proclamation, and perhaps would have it retracted. You say it is unconstitutional. I think differently. I think the Constitution invests its Commander-in-Chief with law of war in times of war. The most that can be said, if so much, is that slaves are property. Is there, has there ever been, any question that by the law of war property both of enemies and friends may be taken when needed, and is it not needed whenever taking it helps us and hurts the enemy? Armies the world over destroy enemies' property when they cannot use it, and even destroy their own to keep it from the enemy. Civilized belligerents do all in their power to help themselves or hurt the enemy, except a few things regarded as barbarous or cruel. Among the exceptions are the massacre of vanquished foes and non-combatants, male and female. But the Proclamation as law is valid or it not valid; if it is not valid, it needs no retraction; if it is valid, it cannot be retracted any more than the dead can be brought to life.

Some of you profess to think that its retraction would operate favorably for the Union. Why better after the retraction than before the issue? There was more than a year and a half of trial to suppress the rebellion before the Proclamation was issued, the last one hundred days of which passed under an explicit notice that it was coming unless arrested by those in revolt returning to their allegiance. The war has certainly progressed as favorably for us since the issue of the Proclamation as before. I know as fully as one can know the opinion of others, that some of the commanders of our armies in the field who have given us our most important victories, believe the emancipation policy and the use of black soldiers to be among the heaviest blows yet dealt to the rebellion, and that at least one of those important successes could not have been achieved when it was, but for the aid of black soldiers. Among the commanders holding these views are some who have never had any affinity with what is called abolitionism or with republican party politics, but who base their views on military grounds. I submit their opinions as being entitled to some weight against the objections often urged, that emancipation and arming the blacks are unwise as military measures, and were not adopted as such in good faith.

You say you will not fight to free negroes.—Some of them seem to be willing to fight for you; but no matter. Fight you then exclusively to save the Union. I put it to your consideration on purpose to hear you in saying the Union. Whenever you shall have conquered all resistance to the Union, if I shall urge you to continue fighting, it will be an apt time then for you to declare that you will not fight to free negroes. I thought that in your struggle to save the Union to whatever extent the negroes should cease helping the enemy, to that extent it would weaken the enemy in his resistance to you. Do you think differently? I thought that whatever negroes can be got to do as soldiers, leaves just so much less for white soldiers to do in saving the Union. Does it appear otherwise to you? But negroes, like other people, act upon motives; why should they do anything for us if we will do nothing for them? If they stake their lives for us, they must be prompted by the strongest motives—even the promise of freedom, and the promise being made must be kept. The promise being kept, the Father of Waters again goes unvexed to the sea, thanks to the great North-west for it. Nor yet wholly to them; three hundred miles up they met New England, Empire, Keystone and Jersey, hewing their way right and left. The Sunny South, too, in more color than one also bears a hand. On the spot their part of the history was jotted down in black and white. The job was a great national one, and let none be ashamed who bore an honorable part in it. And while those who have cleared the great river may well be proud, even that is not all. It is hard to say that anything has been more bravely and better done than at Antietam, Murfreesboro, Gettysburg, and many other places of less note. Nor must Uncle Sam's web feet be forgotten. At all the water margins they have been present, not only in the deep sea, the broad bay, and the rapid river, but also up the narrow, muddy bayou, and wherever the ground was a little damp they have been and made their tracks.

Thanks to all, for the Great Republic, for the principle by which it lives and keeps alive for man's vast future. Thanks to all.

Peace does not appear so distant as it did. I hope it will come soon, and come to stay, and so come as to be worth the keeping in all future time. It will then have been proved that among freemen there can be no successful appeal from the ballot to the bullet, and that they who take such appeal are sure to lose their case and pay the cost. And then there will be some black men who can remember that, with silent tongue and clenched teeth and steady eyes and well-poised bayonet, they have helped mankind on to this great consummation; while, I fear there will be some white men unable to forget that, with malignant heart and deceitful speech, they have striven to hinder it. Still, let us not be over-sanguine of a speedy final triumph. Let us be quite sober. Let us diligently apply the means, never doubting that a just God, in his own time, will give us the rightful result.

Yours, very truly, A. LINCOLN.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the ovens larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every morning.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, most and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be said to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert H. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Clarence H. Moulton,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular it can by building out the deprecations, which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

PAINTS, OILS AND VARNISHES FOR SALE

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Relieved in his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, apprehensions, aversion of society, self-distrust, gloomy ideas, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating marriage, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Terms for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most desperate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜
EXE, N. H., Feb. 28, 1863. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended by the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some tea or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agen. for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humors, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Letters from Gen. Rosecrans' army are encouraging. Bragg's old army and two divisions from Johnston's army are at Chattanooga. Bragg has lost heavily by desertion. The Asst. Provost Marshal says the number of deserters who have come into our lines since July 1, reaches 5000. The armies of Rosecrans and Burnside are co-operating. Communication has been opened between the two by Gen. Van Cleve, and soon the two will be thrown forward upon Chattanooga—whether to entrap and destroy Bragg, or to drive him out, remains to be seen.

A cavalry force sent out from Gen. Rosecrans' army at Chattanooga, 80 miles to the South, joined Gen. Burnside near Kingston, Tenn. The latter pushed on his column to Loudon, where a sharp fight ensued, but the enemy was completely routed with considerable loss. Our casualties in all the skirmishes were trifling. Gen. Burnside met with slight resistance before occupying Knoxville.

2000 of Lee's troops have arrived at Charleston, and prisoners state that Longstreet's division is going thither. A letter to the N. Y. Times states that on the 31st a small black steamer came down the channel, but was sunk by the guns of Fort Moultrie. As a number of knapsacks, &c., were afterwards picked up by our picket boats, it is thought by our officers that the little steamer had been seized by rebel deserters who were trying to make their escape. The same correspondent states that Gen. Gilmore claims that he completely silenced Fort Sumter 5 days ago, but Adm. Dahlgren thinks otherwise, as his chief pilot and others, who have been at a favorable distance to observe, assert that the northwest wall of Sumter is as sound as ever, and that six guns are mounted on the parapet, one or more of which fired rounds of shell last Saturday.

☞ The Boston Journal learns from a gentleman recently from Morris Island the following facts explaining why the shelling of Charleston was discontinued:—

Gen. Gilmore did not continue his bombardment of Charleston with "Greek fire" shells, because the shells sent were ignited on the percussion principle, and being discharged from a gun elevated at an angle of thirty-eight degrees, took their flight at the same angle, with a longitudinal rotary motion, base downward, and therefore struck base downward instead of upon the percussion end, and did not explode. Only two are known to have exploded—one which fell into a warehouse and another which fell in a street. This peculiar motion and descent of the shell was a new discovery in artillery practice, then for the first time made, and the ordnance department was not furnished with a remedy for the unlooked-for contingency. To this fact alone Charleston owes the delay of the hour of its doom.

Time fuses, which will set matters all right, were at once sent for, and have doubtless arrived at Morris Island before this, and very likely Charleston is at this moment experiencing the dreadful effects of a shower of "Greek fire" shells, fifteen hundred of which have been ordered for the bombardment of that nest of treason.—The gun from which the shells were first fired was a 200-pounder Parrott, which can throw a shell no less than seven miles when aimed at an angle of forty five degrees.—The first shells want over Charleston, the gun being aimed at too sharp an angle.—Our readers will be pleased to learn that Gen. Gilmore has no less than thirty Parrott guns mounted that will throw shells plump into Charleston. Also that the use of Greek fire shells to bombard that rebel stronghold was personally ordered by President Lincoln. The Greek fire burns for twenty minutes. It will burn on the water as well as on land, and each shell covers a surface of one hundred square feet with flame. The shell bursts into about one hundred and twenty pieces, or ten times as many as the ordinary shell. Of course the effect of these shells will be to set Charleston in flames, which nothing can subdue.

In addition to Greek fire shells, a large quantity of improved shrapnel shells, made by the inventor of the Greek fire shell, and containing from five hundred to one thousand bullets each, have been sent Morris Island, to be transferred thence into the rebellious city in a manner not very pleasing to the enemy. These shell are fired with time fuses, and are very destructive of life.

☞ At Waterville, Me., on Saturday afternoon, a boy fourteen years old, who had been in the woods hunting, in coming home met his cousin, a little girl of the same age, and pointed his gun at her, when it discharged and lodged its contents in her left breast, killing her instantly. The boy supposed there was no cap on his gun.

☞ The result of the elections in California and Vermont give the Republicans, it is claimed, a clear working majority in the next House; and in addition they now claim one member yet to be elected from Maryland—Henry Winter Davis.

☞ The Augusta, Ga., Chronicle says one of the crew of the Florida states that Semmes, late of the Alabama, has taken command of the Mississippi, a new and formidable craft, carrying 24 guns, not the Georgia, as has been stated.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Capt. John Drew, of Holderness, aged sixty years, fell from a load of grain, on Thursday, the 3d inst., striking upon his head and injuring himso badly that he died the next morning.

—— W. S. Ela, Esq., of Lebanon, has raised a tomato which measures 19 inches in circumference one way, and 19 1-2 the other, and weighs two and three-fourths pounds.

—— Ezra S. Eastman, a conscript, of Sunapee, weighs 210 pound, and is now "thin of flesh," having, when in good health, weighed 303 1-2 pounds; is six feet seven inches tall; girts four feet nine and-a-half inches; is forty-three years old; hair white, and is an "Old Bach."

—— The carriage road to Mount Washington has done an excellent business this season, upwards of one hundred persons passing the toll house daily since the 24th of June. The receipts of tolls this year will exceed those of '62 by more than one thousand dollars. The stockholders will receive this year a dividend of four per cent. Last year the road paid three per cent. It costs about two thousand dollars a year to keep the road in good repair.

TERRIBLE DISASTER.—The steamer Sunbeam foundered and sunk in Lake Superior on the 28th ult, and all on board, except a wheelsman were lost. This wheelsman lashed himself to a piece of the wreck, and after floating for thirty hours was washed ashore at Portege, about twenty miles from the scene of the disaster. During a heavy gale the steamer was struck by a heavy sea, which rolled her on her side.—The small boats were immediately got out, and the passengers and crew were put into them, when the steamer was struck by another heavy sea, and commenced breaking up. The boats filled with the passengers and the crew were swamped. The passengers and crew numbered 35.

☞ The London Times, in an editorial on the memorial of the Emancipation Society for stopping vessels for the Confederates, admits that it is wrong to supply them with vessels, and says it is England's interest as well as her legal duty to maintain this custom. The Daily News reiterates the argument that these vessels should be seized. The Star contends that they should at least be detained until the appeal in the Alexandra case is finally settled.

FINE WOOL SHEEP HUSBANDRY.—This is the title of a volume of 189 pages just published by C. M. Saxton, New York. It is a valuable collection of important facts about Sheep, which was read before the New York Agricultural Society in 1862, by its author, Henry S. Randall, LL. D., author of Sheep Husbandry of the South, Practical Shepherd, &c., with an Appendix of Statistics. Price 75 cents.

☞ Mrs. Stephen Murphy, living in Springfield, Mass., died on Monday evening from the effect of stabs in the breast, supposed to have been inflicted during the day by her husband. He was immediately arrested, together with a couple of his children, the latter probably for witnesses. Murphy is an old resident of Springfield, and a man of considerable property.

HEAVY RECEIPTS OF COAL.—For the week ending Sept. 4th, 260,669 tons of coal were received at Philadelphia, the heaviest week's operation for the season. The tonnage for the year, up to the date of the latest reports, is 6,073,655 tons, against 4,807,893 tons to the same time last year, being a net increase of 1,265,762 tons.

☞ Gen. Canby has issued orders for the withdrawal of the troops from New York city, their presence being no longer needed for the enforcement of the laws and the preservation of peace. The soldiers are highly complimented, officially and by the press, for their correct bearing and good behavior.

☞ The receipts into the U. S. Treasury from taxes on the 2d of September were the largest ever reported in one day from the same sources. They were, on account of the internal revenue, $297,549 02; on account of the customs, in United States notes, $58,770 40; and in coin, $351,107 49; making in all, $707,462 93.

☞ A dispatch from St. Paul, Minn, says news has been received there that a flatboat coming down the Missouri river, not far from the scene of Gen. Sibley's battles was attacked by Indians, and all on board (twenty-five in number) killed.

☞ Mayor Anthony, of Leavenworth, was arrested on Friday afternoon by a squad of soldiers, headed by one of Gen. Ewing's detectives, put into a carriage and hurried off in the direction of Kansas City. The excitement there is intense.

☞ On Thursday, two young men of Norristown, Pa., were tossing cinders at each other, in sport, when one of them, Alfred Seeley, was struck behind the ear, and died almost instantly.

☞ The American steamer Pembroke, arrived at Shanghai, narrowly escaped captured by two Japanese vessels.

☞ The latest rumors indicate that Maximilian will decline the Mexican crown.

TRIP TO THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

JOTTINGS ON THE WAY.—By J. H. H.

PROFILE HOUSE, Aug. 29.

Messrs. Editors:—I am now sojourning for a while at the Profile House, among the Franconia Mountains. The ride from the Crawford House here was quite pleasant: objects of interest were scattered along the route, which ever assumed some new phase of loveliness. Forty passengers, in three stages, started from the Crawford at the same time. The morning was a lovely one.—the sun shining brightly and robing the woods and mountains in its golden hue.

The first object of interest is Mt. Washington, which is seen rearing its lofty head at the right. Then the giant's grave is seen at the side of the road: then the ruins of the Fabyan house, once the principal hotel in this vicinity. Three houses have been burned here, and there is an old legend that an Indian warrior once stood on the giant's grave and waving a torch in his hand, cursed the spot forever. We pass the White Mountain House, and farther on are the Ammonoosuc Falls. Here the water issues from the forest and makes a descent of over thirty feet, over granite steps. The water is the color of amber, and very beautiful. Mount Peacock and the Twin Mounts rise up across the meadows, and far in the distance is seen the Franconia range.

Arriving at Bethlehem we change horses and jog on for the Notch. Ten miles' ride brings us to the Franconia Village, and we enter the Franconia Notch. At 2 o'clock P. M. we drove up to the door of the Profile House. It is a large hotel, with fine accommodations, and the table is abundantly supplied. We found the house crowded. Cots were strewn about the parlors and entries, and every sofa and soft carpet was mustered in to sleep upon. In every lower room there were open fire places, in which were large wood fires blazing and crackling up the wide mouthed chimnies.—Among the guests were Gen. Butler and staff, who are travelling through the mountains in their private coaches.

It was sunset when I stood by the shores of Echo Lake. Steep granite hills tower in gloomy grandeur around it. Dark forests cover their sides and extend down to the water's edge. The setting is appropriate for this exquisite gem. Jumping into one of the little canoes I wassoon out in the centre of the lake where can be seen the different points of interest. Here are sweet echoes: the sound of the voice or a horn is returned in soft notes like sweet music. Near the road are a few Indian wigwams.

The next morning one hundred and thirty persons packed up their trunks and went marching on for a warmer climate. Three hundred sat down to breakfast the day before I arrived, and but forty could be counted at the table two days afterward.—Fifty more arrived from Crawford's, which makes the house appear more lively.—Something must be done to pass away the rainy day, and so we start up a Tableaux Exhibition for the evening. The young people of both sexes are all invited into the parlor. Committees are chosen; the company formed and now all is bustle and noise. The porters are putting up the stage; the musicians are practising in the hall; the waiters are filling the parlor with chairs, and the young ladies are running here and there in quest of a costume, or making inquiries about the parts they are to take. The house prints its own bills of fare, and the proprietor of the printing office offered to get us up a programme.—We accepted his kind offer and soon had a fine looking bill, which expatiated on the great merits of the Conscript Tableaux company, with its scenic artists, musical directors and stage managers, assisted by the Franconia Band. The exhibition was considered the most exquisite entertainment of the kind ever offered to the guests of the Profile House. At the close of the performance a vote of thanks to the committee was passed by the audience, and a repetition called for on the following evening.

☞ An attempt to rob the post office in Bath, Me., was made on Friday night last. About 12 1-2 o'clock, Mr. Greenleaf, son of the Postmaster, heard a noise at a window, and becoming convinced that it was caused by a burglar endeavoring to remove the glass, put his hand out of the delivery window and fired a revolver at him. He decamped immediately, and three more shots were fired at him before he got out of the yard. He went off limping and it is supposed wounded.

Thieves also broke into the Brunswick post office last week, but got nothing valuable.

SECESSION OF THE SOUTH.—In the South Carolina State Convention in the latter part of 1860, in a discussion on her "declaration of grievances," Hon. Barnwell Rhett said:

The secession of South Carolina is not an event of a day. It is not anything produced by Mr. Lincoln's election, or by the non-execution of the fugitive slave law. It has been a matter which has been gathering head for thirty years.

This is brief but very expressive. It gives the lie to the assertions that have been so often put forth by the opposition party, to gross outrages of the North, their attempts to restrict the rights of the Constitution to the South, &c. Secession was carrying out a course determined on by the Southern leaders whenever a proper time should come—and that time seemed to be when they had Buchanan in the Presidential chair, and Floyd, and Toucey, in the Cabinet.

☞ There is some doubt about the reported safe arrival of the U. S. brig Bainbridge at Port Royal.

☞ The second greatest organ player in Germany, Professor Hesse, of Breslau, is dead.

☞ The women of the Northwest are getting up a soldiers' fair, at Chicago, to raise $70,000.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Chronometers combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight, showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them good time-keepers and they can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere The Testimonials below given prove that this is MORE EMPHATICALLY THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND RELIABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

—— TESTIMONIALS. ——

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration as the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent pulling such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 6 to 9 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spuo

Messrs. Editors:—Happening in at the meeting of the Portsmouth Division of the Sons of Temperance, on Monday evening, I was rejoiced to see them in such a prosperous condition. They are striving hard to save those who now drink of the poisonous cup. While there I had the pleasure of seeing twenty nine soldiers of the Invalid Corps admitted to this Division, and twenty-five more soon will be. Does not this prove that they are fighting against intemperance? Let every young person, who does not wish to be carried to a drunkard's grave, go and unite himself or herself to that order, and be saved from everlasting doom. R. S.

☞ The Mirror states that the 150 drafted men and substitutes sent to Concord from this city, are divided into two companies, and the efficient manner in which they are daily put through military drill will soon make them ready to join the ranks in the field.

☞ Wanted, copies of the Morning Chronicle for August 27, 29 and 31, and Sept. 2, to complete important files.

☞ Fanaticism is often apparent in persons who suppose themselves far from it.—For example, a very mild and cautious pastor of a country parish has seen his Sunday services entirely deserted by the whole copperhead fraternity, at the dictation or suggestion of their leader and organ,—although he has never said anything in his whole ministry there which could possibly be understood as abolitionism or politics, but has most carefully abstained from any expression that could give offence in that direction. Dr. Batchelder's platform of condemning the preaching which he had not heard for ten years, and denouncing the worship which he did not attend, being to a considerable extent adopted, prevails in some proportion to the ignorance of the fanatics who act upon it. The occurrence in itself is unpleasant, because it disturbs social life; but the ultimate effect must be to purify the churches and add moral strength to the ministry. If any men choose to heathenize themselves they can certainly do so; but as a matter of domestic and social policy, it is not wise. They may be assured that public worship will not cease; though they may cease to share in its pleasures and benefits. U. T.

MAINE STATE ELECTION takes place next Monday. The contest is National.—Cony is the Union nominee for Governor, and Bradbury the Democratic.

Cony is a war democrat. Bradbury was, but the Bangor Democrat, in announcing the nomination said:—

This result was not attained until the assurance was had from Gen. Anderson that Bradbury stood square upon the platform which had been adopted, and that he was opposed to the war. When this announcement was made, the only objection to Mr. B.'s nomination was removed.

☞ A portion of a coal wharf in Boston caved in on Monday noon, precipitating coal sheds and 700 and 800 tons of furnace coal into the water. The accident is attributed to the weakness of the piles on which the wharf rested. The portion which tumbled into the water was about seventy feet in length. The damage is estimated at about $9000, but it is thought about 500 tons of the coal may be recovered. The damage to the wharf alone is estimated at $1200, and the buildings were worth the same amount. This part of the wharf was built only two or three years ago.

☞ A dispatch from Waterville, Me., states that Edwin Noyes, the Superintendent of the Maine Central Railroad, has been detected in a large embezzlement of the company's property, and has fled to Canada. A private letter states that the defalcation amounts to $40,000. Mr. Noyes was one of the most prominent men in Maine, and his character was considered as above suspicion.

☞ Josiah B. Scott, Esq., cashier of the Canal Bank, Portland, died on Monday evening. His age was 62 years. He became a clerk in the old Portland Bank, and at the organization of the Canal Bank in 1826 was elected cashier—a position which he has sustained to the satisfaction of the directors and stockholders up to the time of his death.

THE VALUE OF THE UNION.—Jeff. Davis, just before he left the United States Senate, sneeringly rebuked a Democratic Senator for having "spoken of the great value of the Union." "It cost" (Mr. Davis went on to say) "very little money, and no blood." Jeff has doubtless discovered by this time that the people place a higher estimate on the Union than he did, and that he cannot destroy it although he has caused the expenditure of much time, money, and blood.—Bath Times.

HALEY, MORSE & BOYDEN'S
PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
CLOTHES WRINGER.
THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

This fact is well established. It is the most simple and best operating machine yet made, although forty different kinds have been put into the market, the greater part of which have proved utter failures.

A sale of three hundred in this city, and a still-increasing demand, prove the popularity of these wringers. No family should be without one.

We have Iron framed Wringers at a lower price, but the best is the cheapest.

This Wringer has had an immense sale in this city and vicinity, and a year's trial has proved its many excellent qualities.

It is now one of the "domestic institutions."—No family should be without it. Try one; if not satisfactory, the money will be refunded.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

BAREFOOT.

Ha, my darling, so there you are,
Hid in the tall sweet grass of June!
How have I searched for you everywhere,
Till I heard the burn of your baby-tune!

The mellow hum of your baby-tune,
Sounding so quietly and low!
That I knew some change had followed soon
My pet that was romping an hour ago!

Romping and chewing an hour ago,
With never a hat to his curly pate,
Chasing the butterflies to and fro,
Over the hedgerow, to the gate;

Down to the lilacs by the gate,
Pausing to tilt to the robin there
Crooning a ditty to his mate,
Rocked in her nest by the fondling air.

Ha, my darling, I found you out!
Why don't you smile for me, eh, pet, eh?
Ah, but I see, there is half a pout,
Turning the lips that I kissed to-day!

The red, red lips that I kissed to-day,
And the bonnet head in the world a-drop;
What lit it gleams in the grass, pet, eh,
Just by the rose-tree? I must stop!

Lower yet by the rose-tree stop,
Ah! 'tis a wee foot, white and bare;
Never in studio coiffeur group
Shone there a picture half so fair;

Never was picture half so fair,
Never a pencil touch like this;
Poem of all artists, everywhere!
I will enclasp it with a kiss.

Dressing now, in the street June grass,
Two of us, darling, went to sleep;
Butterflies, you may safely pass,
For the roguish blue eyes will not peep.

The rogue with the blue eyes went to sleep,
And two exquisite moulded feet, all bare,
Rest where the dallying sunbeams creep,
Bronzing the brown of his tangled hair;

Kissing the brown of his tangled hair—
Kissing, as softly as lovers do;
What would you give, oh, gold-beams rare,
To hide your light in a dainty shoe?

To peep, by-peep in a tiny shoe,
Tipped from a foot so wondrous fair,
While we go dreaming one—we two—
Beautiful dreams in the summer air?

—Home Journal.

☞ In Smyrna the Sultan has, at the instance of the Protestant population of the place, changed the market from Sunday, when it was formerly held, to a week day.

☞ In 1840 there were upwards of 30,000 free white grown up citizens of Georgia who could neither write nor read their mother tongue. In 1850 the number had increased to 41,000—an increase of 34 1-3 per cent., while the increase to the total white population was only 28 per cent. What but the curse of negro slavery could thus increase the dark mantle of ignorance in which the "master race" was being enveloped?

☞ Nena Sahib, the Hindoo savage, who has just been caught by the British, is reported to be passionately fond of music, and always humming some favorite tune, accompanying himself with snaps of his right hand fingers. He sleeps soundly during the day, but seems much disturbed after dark. He is fond of exercise and is generally walking about. His style of conversation is short, quick and to the point. The Nana, among his other accomplishments, knows shorthand, and has a key of his own; and, until his spies can discover that many of his papers will be useless.

☞ In New Orleans they have a "Haunted House," standing till this day, desolate and ruined in a vacant square of the Fourth District. The reporter of the Picayune has picked up this singular item connected therewith:

In the summer of '47, when the saffron scourge claimed a victim from almost every family in the city, a rather singular occurrence took place in the upper portion of the city. A golden plumed canary escaped from its cage one morning, and but few attempts were made to regain it, for the bird's fond mistress was lying at the point of death. In the course of a month or so the bird was seen on the balcony where its old cage hung, and when a servant attempted to catch it, it flew to the top of the Haunted House. Day after day the visit was renewed, and day after day the bird took its flight in the same direction. At length a venturesome party of young men pursued, and lo! on the top of the house they beheld a human skeleton, and in the skeleton the bird had made its nest and raised its young. There was a lesson of life and death! The ghastly and the beautiful met together, and the living claimed a shelter from the dead!

FLOYD IS DEAD! Floyd, the traitor! Floyd, the thief! The Richmond papers announce that the event took place at Abingdon, Va. He was Secretary of War under Buchanan, and a rebel General since—and was well known as a disciple of Judas Iscariot. An exchange says of him:

There is no evidence that Floyd possessed any particular ability of an honorable kind. But he was utterly unscrupulous, and his official position enabled him to display this trait to the signal advantage of his accomplices. By substantially stealing a large portion of the public arms, he filled up the Southern arsenals at a time when, without such clandestine assistance, the outbreak of the rebellion would have been impossible. It will always be a condemning fact for the rebellion that this sheer case of public plunder was proudly acknowledged at the South, and was probably the means of securing for Floyd a high military rank, for which he had no other claims whatever. He was driven out of Western Virginia by Gen. Rosecrans, and he sneaked out of Fort Donelson, leaving it to be surrendered by his subordinate, Gen. Buckner. It is not pleasant to write thus of a departed public man, but it is probable the title which he gained in life will, through the honest feeling of the masses, long cling to his memory, and he will be known as "Floyd, the thief."

Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,	Flushing of the Body,

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy death by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.
THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,
Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.
In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chlorix or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of the Catamenial Excretions. Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the Thousands upon Thousands

WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS, and who have paid heavy Fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents" been driven up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

USE
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For all Affections and Diseases of
The Urinary Organs,
Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter
OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,
SYPHILIS.

It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of heated irons is now in use, so no time can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great est amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. In none of them is the obnoxious, combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. The objections so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once taking out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used.
We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easily as a tumbler, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

Has had four years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases, entrusted to his care.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good; be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged—to common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

BEN WOOD'S ORDER ABOUT PLATFORMS. [Ben's New York News of Sept. 3d says:

"The Peace Democracy is resolute, and irrevocably devoted to its platform. Should the War Democracy take no counsel from the experience of the Granite State, and should they persist in pursuing a similar course, they will be considered as allies of the enemy, and the campaign will proceed without distinction between the War Democrat and the Black Republican.

Let the War Democrats have the privilege of nomination, from the beginning to the end of the ticket. Let them enjoy the spoils, the glory, the patronage of triumph. Let them even be silent, and non committal on the war question, if that is the rock on which the party threatens to split. They can confirm their resolutions to a vindication of State Rights, of personal liberty, of free discussion and security from Federal encroachment; but let them not insult the Democracy by the adoption of a war platform.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, and could get no relief until I procured some Dr. Swett's Panacea, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it; and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CRESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CRESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The rebel steamer was sunk in Charleston harbor by the guns on Sullivan's Island, by mistake. She was taking soldiers from one position to another, when she was fired on, "owing to a misapprehension of her character." Several soldiers were immediately killed, and it is feared others were drowned. The occurrence shows that the rebels are fearful that their troops will desert when opportunity offers. A rebel dispatch, 5th, states that 7551 shots had been fired at Fort Sumter, of which 3495 struck outside, and 2130 inside. The flag had been shot away fourteen times. Orders against exposure having been rigidly enforced, the rebel casualties it is alleged, have been few. Another dispatch, Sunday morning, states that the bombardment of Batteries Wagner and Gregg had been incessant for the previous thirty-two hours. The noise of the cannonade was tremendous. On Saturday night, Union troops landed in barges and assaulted Battery Gregg, apparently with the most glorious success, as the steamship Daniel Webster, which arrived at Fortress Monroe on Wednesday from City Point, reports that Morris Island has been evacuated by the rebels—a mild way of stating that they were driven out. For it comes, of course, through rebel sources, and a dispatch to the Boston Merchants' Exchange states that the evacuation is announced in the Richmond papers. Fort Wagner and Battery Gregg thus fall into our hands.

A rebel dispatch claims a victory for Price, 15 miles below Little Rock, Ark.

Quantrell and Curreban are reported to be about 30 miles from Kansas City, with a largely increased force. It is said they have 1200 men. In Leavenworth, Wyandotte, Paoli and Osawattomie the citizens are under arms, and all the towns are nightly guarded by citizens, patrols. The people demand the removal of Schofield and Ewing, and there is a dread prospect that they will attempt to avenge in blood the Lawrence massacre. A St. Louis dispatch, however, states that they will not go into Missouri if the military show any disposition to drive the rebels from the infested district.

Gen. Dix has addressed a circular letter to the proprietors of the various New York city newspapers, requesting them to say nothing whatever in their columns in reference to military movements from that city, until further notice.

Gen. Burnside is reported to have captured a large amount of valuable stores, trains, &c., when he took possession of Knoxville.

The capture of Knoxville enables us to command the greatest railroad route in the confederacy—the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad—over which more supplies of all kinds, especially of food, have been conveyed from Texas, Arkansas, Northern Alabama and Mississippi, to the east, than over any other railroad in the Southern States. These supplies are now directly and completely cut off. There is only one other route, disastrously long and circuitous, by which Virginia at least can procure them.

Gen. Rosecrans' report of his operations in Middle Tennessee shows that he lost 85 killed, 452 wounded, and 18 missing, in driving the rebels out of that portion of the State, from the occupation of Murfreesboro to a point 212 miles from the nearest point of supplies.

We have good news from Gen. Blunt. On the 22d of August he crossed the Arkansas river, with 4500 men and 28 pieces of artillery, and offered battle to the rebel Gens. Steele and Cooper, who had massed in his front 11,000 men. After a faint show of resistance the rebel army commenced a retreat, which soon turned into a rout. They abandoned all their property. Blunt pursued them 100 miles south of the Arkansas, to Perryville, 50 miles from the Red river. At this point he captured and destroyed their commissary department.—They continued their flight to Boggy depot, on the Red river. The Indian Territory is now clear of rebels. Blunt is now marching on Fort Smith.

☞ A fire at Buffalo, N. Y., on Tuesday night destroyed Wilkson & Wells' elevators and the warehouse adjoining. About 250,000 bushels of grain were stored in the elevators, chiefly corn. Loss estimated at $400,000.

☞ The barn of Deacon Samuel Perry, in Worcester Mass., was burnt on Sunday morning, together with about one hundred tons of hay, his entire crop of grain, six cows, two horses, harnesses and farming tools. Insured for $2500.

☞ It is reported that a well-known General in the Army of the Potomac had made arrangements to give a grand ball and feast at his headquarters, when a stop was put to the affair by an order from the Commanding General, in which it was stated that the only balls recognized in that army were cannon balls.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Maj. Carr, in a letter to the Manchester Union, contradicts some of Col. Harriman's statements, and defends himself against the charge of treachery and conspiracy.

—— Nearly $400 have been contributed in Concord for the Irish Relief fund, and the amount has been forwarded. Ex-President Pierce gave $20, and Judge Eastman $10.

—— The Annual Meeting of the Manchester Bank was held on Monday, when the entire Board of Directors was re-elected. The 36th semi-annual dividend was declared. The Bank was chartered in 1825, and has never failed to declare semi-annual dividends of 4 per cent., even in the severest financial crises. It has a capital of $125,000.

—— The Mirror states that a brakeman on the Northern Road, named Frazier, fell from the cars between Canaan and the summit on Monday night, while the train was running at full speed. They missed him at Canaan, and sent an engine after him, but could not find him. He came into Canaan the next morning and said he found himself over the fence. He is a little wild, but the doctor thinks he will come out all right.

—— Daniel Sullivan and Daniel O'Niel, while at work on one of the mills in Manchester, on Monday, fell from the third story, the staging on which they stood giving way. The former received three pretty severe cuts, several inches in length, on the head, through the scalp to the skull, besides bruises on other parts of the body: and the latter received a severe cut on the head, three inches long, and penetrating entirely through the skull; his back was also bruised. Mr. Sullivan will, probably, recover, and Mr. O'Niel may do so.

—— The Mirror gives a story that when the news of the surrender of Vicksburg was received in Weare, the boys brought out a cannon and fired a salute, and then started for another town. On the way, they stopped at the house of a man notorious for his sympathy with the rebels, and fired a salute there. Some of the glass in the house was broken by the concussion, and a person in the crowd remarked that it was too bad to destroy his property, but another man near by exclaimed in a sonorous voice, "Let 'er rip, boys, I own this house."

—— The American states that quite a number of returned soldiers, with other young men in Manchester, have organized under the military laws of the State, and been accepted by the city. Gov. Gilmore has given orders for Springfield Rifles to be furnished them. The company numbers some fifty-five, (as many as the statute permits, except by special leave of the Governor) but Gov. Gilmore desires the company to enlist one hundred men. A. R. Simmons, formerly of the N. H. Second Regiment, has been elected Captain. J. O. Chandler, and James R. Carr, also of the 2d regiment, are Lieutenants.

THE REBEL IRON CLADS IN ENGLAND. The N. Y. Tribune says:

From a passenger by the steamship Scotia, who enjoyed peculiarly favorable facilities for becoming familiar with facts, we learn the Anglo-rebel iron-clads are being pushed forward to completion with the utmost vigor. Two 2000 ton iron-clads, combining the ram and monitor principles, are being built by Laird at Birkenhead. One of these is already launched. Ram No. 1 was launched under the French flag, permission for that purpose being given by the French consul at Liverpool. And the craft still flew the tri-color when our informant left. The destination of these vessels is well known to the British Government.—Our agents have closely followed them, and the evidence accumulated of their contraband character has all been laid before the Ministry.

A large iron-clad sloop of war is well under way in the yard of a Liverpool ship builder, and five others of a very formidable character are in course of construction on the Clyde. One of those now building by James and George Thompson is over 4000 tons burthen, and will have 4 or 5 inches iron plating upon 18 inches of teak. She will not, however, be ready to sail for some months.

Public opinion in England appears to have settled down to this point: that the neutrality laws of England had been evaded long enough, and it was time that the farce came to an end. Merchants and public men had come to the conclusion that unless the government interfered to stop these from sailing, very grave complications would arise between Great Britain and the United States.

Even the London Times states that the question is becoming serious and urgent, and says that while no concession can be made to menace, the laws must take their course. In a recent editorial it uses the following language:—

"We do not think it morally right that ships like them should leave our ports for such service as that for which they are intended. We do not wish to see any more of them sail on the same errand."

☞ The army has grown merry over Gen. Kilpatrick's recent exploits at Port Conway. They say that Kilpatrick's cavalry captured two gunboats, but were forced to destroy them, for want of transportation.

No apprehension is felt by the authorities at Washington of a war between France and the United States.—Boston Traveller.

REBEL LABORS IN THE NORTH.—The rebel agent in England, Maury, in his letter to the London Times, showing that the "prospects of the South were never brighter" than now, makes a remark of which we had a mention by telegraph, but which is so much more striking as given in full by himself, that we think it worth while to repeat it. He is speaking of the plans of the rebels, and their mode of operating in the North, to "offset the tide of military reverses which in the first weeks of July ran so strong against the South;" and his words are:—"Other agents have to be called into play. What are they? Let us inquire.—They are divisions in the camp of the enemy, dissensions among the people of the North, There is already a peace party there. All the embarrassments with which that party can surround Mr. Lincoln, and all the difficulties that it can throw in the way of the war party of the North, operate directly as so much aid and comfort to the South."

According to the confession of their own agents, it is the rebels of the South who are intriguing here in the North to bring about "dissensions among the people and divisions in the camp." Nothing could be more important than that it should be understood by the people of the North that the Copperheads—the "other agents called into play" after the military failure of the rebels—are really and truly the tools—undoubtedly some of the leaders are the hired tools—of Jeff. Davis, and, as Maury says, "operate directly" in favor of the rebels.—Let it be understood that all the violent ranting about "State Rights," "peace" and the "Conscription" are but pretensions and shams gotten up by agents and organs of Jeff. Davis, employed by him to do his work in the North. Let everybody, when he reads or hears this rant, bear in mind its origin. The simple remembrance of this fact will act as an effective foil to these efforts of Jeff. Davis.—N. Y. Times.

PARROTT GUNS.—The celebrated 300 pound Parrott gun which Gen. Gilmore has, weighs 27,000 pounds. It took 2000 men nine nights to get the monster into position the drag teams breaking down seven nights in succession, the enemy shelling the party all the while, and men being killed nightly. Nothing was done with it by day, the gun being covered with bushes to conceal it from the enemy's fire. The diameter of the bore is ten inches, the charge of powder 25 pounds, and the shell that goes out of it is as high as a flour barrel, weighs 300 pounds, and contains 17 pounds of mortar powder. The execution of one of these shells on Sumter is considered equal to that of three of the 200 pound shells. But two of these immense rifled guns have been made, although twenty more have been ordered for the army. None have been ordered for the navy.

The 300 pounder when it exploded was in charge of an infantry captain, who had never fired a cannon before in his life. He was cautioned that some accident would happen if he was not very careful. On the twenty-fifth round the shell, containing seventeen pounds powder, was filled, the percussion fuse was screwed half way down, and could not be got any further, when the captain said, "Let it go at that." The consequence was that when discharged the fire communicated down by the thread to the shell, causing the latter to explode before it left the gun, and breaking off twenty inches of the muzzle. The gun was repaired and got ready for use again in two days. It burst on Friday at 12 o'clock, and was firing again on Sunday as well as ever. These guns have been fired with forty pounds of powder, and sent a ball through nine inches of wrought iron plates and two feet of oak timber by which the iron was backed. It has also sent a ball through twenty-six feet of earth. The larger a gun having a rifle bore is made the steadier and truer the ball or shell is sent—indeed the accuracy of a rifle is attained.

Mr. R. P. Parrott, the inventor of these guns, commenced making them in 1856, at his own expense, continuing his experiments without aid from the Government till the rebellion broke out. He then began to make ten-pounders, and has now advanced from that small beginning to the three-hundred-pounders. He is at present engaged on a five hundred-pounder, and if successful will try a two thousand-pounder. Over twenty-five hundred of these guns have been made by Mr. Parrott, who furnishes them at a less cost than the Government can make them at its own foundries; indeed supplying them at a trifle above cost, depending upon shells which he furnishes to the Government for his profits.—Another fact which is very creditable to him is, that when the price of iron and of labor advanced he did not raise his prices, although all the other foundries in the country did. About thirty-three of these guns, ranging from three hundred to ten-pound calibre, are turned out weekly at Mr. Parrott's establishment, the West Point Foundry, at Cold Springs, New York.

The demand for rifle cannon is now so great that the foundries of this country are unable to supply them, and extensive orders are sent to Europe. The State of Massachusetts alone has ordered seventy from abroad.—Cor. Boston Jour.

BRAVERY OF WOMEN.—In the recent murderous affair at Lawrence, Kansas, several cases of bravery of women are mentioned. Among them these:

The life of District Attorney Riggs was saved by the heroism of his wife, who seized the bridle of the rebel's horse who attempted to shoot him as he ran.

The wife of Sheriff Brown, three successive times, put out the fire kindled to burn her house. Her husband was hidden under the floor. The house was saved by her heroism.

☞ The small pox is prevailing extensively in portions of Charlestown, Mass.

☞ The English have not got Nana Sahib, after all. It's another man they've been exulting over.

☞ The number of visitors at Saratoga during the season just closed aggregates 30,000.

☞ A remarkable meeting for a small one, was held at New York last Monday, viz. the assemblage of the committees chosen severally by the Douglas and Breckinridge national conventions of 1860, and "others invited." It is well known that nearly all the South end of both these committees have become rebels. But the "others invited" came in, so that about 200 persons were present, including one from Louisiana and the Woods of New York, Dean Richmond, and other "outsiders."

They agreed to call a national convention, some time, to organize a party to choose the next President. After considerable discussion the meeting refused to name a day when the committee should meet to call the proposed convention, and also to hold out the right hand of fellowship to all who opposed abolitionism. The meeting was held with closed doors.

A man was fined five dollars or so the other day for going over Beverly Bridge without paying the toll. Running tollscems to be rather a mean species of larceny.—Sometimes it is done by going past the toll-house at a rapid rate; but more frequently the dodge is to nod with an air of assurance and say, "Will pay two tolls when I return." The man who was fined said this both going and coming—trusting not to be recognized, probably.—Salem Gazette.

☞ The duty on race-horses in England last year amounted to £6422.

JOHN S. GODFREY,
Capt. and Provost Marshal 1st Cong. Dist. N. H.
Portsmouth, Sept 9, 1863.

At this season of the year Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and other affections of the Throat and Lungs prevail. MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is a certain and immediate cure. No Family should be without a bottle in the house. It is only 13 cents, and will be found worth as many dollars for the cure of the above complaints. It is for sale by N. P. Thacher, Druggist, of this place.

"Be thou chaste as ice and as pure as snow, thou shalt not escape using unhealthy compounds in your food," was a true maxim, until Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus came to our relief. Since using it, we feel that there is one article in the way of Saleratus that all can use with healthy results. We have almost cured our dyspepsia, and thanks to the Gold Medal Saleratus for it. Try it, and you will say with us, that perfection has been obtained, and the inventor has immortalized his name forever. Most of the Merchants have it.

FACTS FOR SOLDIERS.—Throughout the Indian and Crimean campaigns, the only medicines which proved themselves able to cure the worst cases of Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Fever, were HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT. Therefore, let every Volunteer see that he is supplied with them. Only 25 cents per pot or box. 228

Morning Chronicle.

☞ A Mr. Hardy, of Lee, Mass., had the misfortune a few days since of having his marriage at Lebanon Springs falsely published in the Berkshire Eagle. To this, he, lawyer like, takes exception. In caveat to the editor he says:—"The report of my marriage which I find in your issue of the 27th inst., is not quite correct: 1st, On the 27th of July, 1863, I kept close company with my law books; 2d, I was never in Lebanon Springs in my life; 3d, I never to my knowledge, saw or heard of the Rev. E. T. Hunt; 4th the young lady mentioned as the bride, is the wife of my brother; and 5th, I never was married at all—I never came within gunshot of marriage—I never wanted to get married—and finally I never expect to get married. With the above exceptions your item is all correct."

LABOR SAVING CONTRIVANCE.—A novel mode to expedite the unloading of a car containing grain, was adopted this forenoon by Messrs. King, Butler and Thurston on Commercial street. A rope was stretched at an angle of forty-five degrees, from the fourth story of their store where the grain was deposited, to the car, a distance of 125 feet. A block was placed on the rope, to which was suspended a tub, holding about five bushels, with a bottom which opened by means of a spring, which after its ascension was pulled and emptied the tub. On being filled the tub was drawn up, by means of a horse power. By the process ten tubs were elevated in the space of six minutes. The car containing from 375 to 400 bushels, was emptied of its contents in about an hour. The operation was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators.—Portland Courier.

☞ Gen. Halleck has secured the appointment of twenty-four young soldiers, from our armies now in the field, to cadetships at West Point. The cadetships due to the Virginia Congressional Districts are given to young lads who have distinguished themselves and are otherwise qualified, in the army of the Potomac. The cadetships due to Western Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi are to be conferred on Gen. Grant's recommendation. So in the other departments. The New York Herald's Washington correspondent states that Gen. Halleck recommends that next year all the vacancies be filled by young soldiers in the field, or the sons of officers who have rendered important services in this war.

☞ Shakespeare having been born on the 23d of April, 1564, at Stratford on Avon, the ter-centenary of the world's greatest man will be celebrated next year at the place of his birth. He had just completed his 52d year when he died and his birthday was also the day of his death. The whole world will do honor to the memory of this universal poet. In England, general preparations are being made for the festival, among scholars, artists and public men. The National Shakespeare Committee is rapidly increasing in strength. Mr. Alfred Tennyson has accepted office as a vice-president.

☞ The Portland Press says a town meeting was held in Westbrook a few days since, to see if the town would pay a bounty of $100 to veteran volunteers. F. O. J. Smith opposed the proposition with all his energies, but it was carried by a vote of two to one.

☞ The citizens of Pittsburg, Pa., have telegraphed the Mayor of Leavenworth an offer to furnish homes and education to fifty of the children made orphans in the recent Lawrence massacre.

☞ The London Athenæum says Patti is playing and singing her way through Germany along paths strewn with gold.

☞ The thunder of the bombardment of Charleston was distinctly heard at Beaufort, a distance of 50 miles.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the ovens larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling out of the ashes is entirely dispensed with, the fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air, and ease of management it has no Equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney, without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which induces them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the bottom part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used.
We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Shaw, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building up the deficiency with gum, so fit the plate as to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all things it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. F. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

Has had twenty years of practical experience in working this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

VOL. 23. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. FRIDAY SEPT 11, 1863. NO. 62.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

BAD WHISKEY.—A commission appointed for the purpose have just discovered that some gross frauds have been perpetrated on the medical department in the supply of liquors, &c. An examination of the single article of whiskey has shown that the most deleterious compound known has been furnished for medical purpose, in place of the fine pure article contracted for. In some of the hospitals the patients have been unable to use a drop, while those who have used it have been made worse than by their original disease.

This reminds us of the Surgeon General's order to banish two standard Medicines from the Army. If he should make up his mind that whiskey did more hurt than good, he might banish that also. However it may do good in some hospital cases,—there need be no doubt it does vastly more hurt on the large scale.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The report of the evacuation of Morris Island is confirmed. The Richmond Enquirer states that the Union troops had advanced their sappers up to the moat of Wagner, and it being impossible to hold it Beauregard ordered its evacuation, which took place at noon. The Union troops on the 7th held Cumming's Point, in full view of the city. This is the extreme westerly point of Morris Island, within three miles and three-quarters of the wharves at Charleston. It is distant one mile and a half from Fort Sumter and one mile and three-quarters from Fort Johnson, the next important defensive position of the rebels. A demand for the surrender of Fort Sumter was made on the 7th and refused.

Morris Island is completely in our possession. We captured 21 guns and 75 men. Two Monitors and the Ironsides were besieging Fort Moultrie on Tuesday. It was reported that we had blown up its magazine.

A rebel barge, containing Maj. Lally, Chief of Artillery on Gen. Ripley's staff, Surgeon Charnay and 11 men, were captured last Friday night, near Fort Sumter.

The Union feeling in North Carolina is gaining ground, and peace meetings are still frequent in the eastern and southeastern parts of the State.

Persons recently arrived from Florida declare that a majority of the people there are loyal, and would, if they could receive adequate aid and protection, even rid the State of rebels. In several of the counties the rebel conscription has been resisted.

Gen. Crittenden's division of Gen. Rosecrans' army took possession of Chattanooga on Wednesday. The enemy evacuated the day previous.

The capture of Chattanooga and Bragg's retreat into Georgia, are officially confirmed. And it is stated that Cumberland Gap was surrendered, Wednesday afternoon, without firing a gun. The rebels are in full retreat, and are cutting down trees, &c., to prevent pursuit over the mountains. But our troops are following them.

Chattanooga was the last rebel stronghold in Tennessee, and their papers have shown how important it was for them to hold it.—Its evacuation was undoubtedly wholly unexpected to them, and will be very disastrous to their cause,—for which let all loyal men rejoice. It shows the weakness of Bragg's army, and attests the superior strategy of Gen. Rosecrans. His plan was to hold the enemy in Chattanooga by demonstrations in his front by one portion of his army, while he moved on their line of communication and retreat with the other.—But Bragg, perceiving the danger of being cornered, on the 8th began the evacuation, moving eastward with his stores and munitions. There is but little doubt that the armies of Gen. Rosecrans and Burnside have now caused the rebels to abandon East Tennessee entirely.

Our greatest danger now is, that the recent overwhelming defeats of the rebels in the Southwest will compel them to concentrate their troops in the East, and thus enable them to attack Gen. Meade with a force greatly superior in point of numbers.

Gen. Schofield has issued an order forbidding armed bodies of men in Missouri and Kansas, not placed under the authority of the department commander, to pass from one State into the other, on any pretext whatever. The object of this order is to prevent the invasion of Missouri, now threatened.

It is denied that Gen. Heintzleman goes to Texas, but it is said that Gen. Hooker is about to be ordered there; and that Gen. McClellan has been put upon retired half-pay.

The rebels were driven from their works at Bayou Metior, Ark., on the 27th, and retreated across the river, burning the bridge after them.

A deserter from Texas reports that Gen. Magruder was killed in Galveston two weeks ago by one of his lieutenants, who caught him in a criminal act with his wife. The same deserter also states that the whole rebel force in Louisiana is not over 10,000, and that it is very much scattered. The regiment to which the deserter belonged had nearly all deserted. Two more regiments were in open mutiny, and declare they will fight no longer, as the Confederate cause is hopeless.

☞ Parson Brownlow announces that he will start a weekly and tri-weekly paper at Knoxville, Tennessee, early in October next, in which he will sustain the Government and the preservation of the Federal Union.

☞ According to advices from Bermuda, the private Sumter has run the blockade at Wilmington, N. C.

☞ It is thought that the troubles in Japan may lead to a total expulsion of all foreigners from that country, and a consequent war in which we, as well as the European nations, will be involved.

IN THE CHURCH! Why Not?—In a paper printed in New Hampshire a few days ago, we read the following words:

"Abolitionism began its bloody career by dragging its slimy body into the church, and through that attacking the institution of slavery."

Passing by the elegance and delicacy of the expressions, let us see what the assertions amount to.

1st, Abolitionism attacked slavery. Indeed! If it had not done so, it would not deserve its name. Bad things generally, as wild beasts, serpents, &c., are usually abolished by attacks, hardly ever by letting them alone, or encouraging their increase.

2d, It entered the church, and used its moral force in making the attack.

To a certain extent this is true, and a valuable truth it is. A sentiment of hostility to slavery has existed ever since the Christian Era, in a few of the best and purest men in every age; and about 80 years ago, it became quite common among a class of literati, philosophers and statesmen, among whom Granville Sharpe was pre-eminent, and was soon aided by Clarkson, Wilberforce and others, and by the whole body of Quakers. No purer church was ever known than the Quakers,—and no purer men can be found, none freer from selfish, ambitious or mercenary motives, than Sharpe, Wilberforce and Clarkson, eminent English churchmen, by whose means the christians of Great Britain pushed through Parliament the bills abolishing the Slave Trade and Slavery itself in all British colonies.

There is no good reason why Abolitionism should not be in the Church, and act through it;—but good reason why it should be there, and be active. For what does it ask? Only that the laborer who is worthy of his hire, shall receive his hire. Only that the workingman shall be his own man and Christ's freeman, and not be a chattel, belonging to somebody else.

The Moravian and Methodist missionaries in the West Indies, with Jay, Grimke, Lundy and others in this country, shared in this desire, and labored (as we know) in aid of West India Emancipation.

And such men as they, with Franklin and others, were the early Abolitionists in the United States,—and with such names as Wesley, Hopkins, Channing and Tyng, why should not the united voice of Humanity and Christianity be heard in the Church?

It is no new thing for abolitionism and abolitionists to be denounced. The Duke of Clarence, in the British Parliament, 70 years ago, denounced the abolitionists there as fanatics and hypocrites, calling Mr. Wilberforce by name. Yet that same Duke of Clarence, afterwards, when King of England, proclaimed West India Emancipation!

And it is highly probable that "when this cruel war is over," and the country delivered from the rebellion and from slavery which occasioned it,—then the men who now aid the rebels and denounce lovers of freedom, will very coolly say—"See what good and great things we have done." U.T.

☞ The Hartford Post, of Saturday, is responsible for the following:

William Vinton, alias William Terris, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the lower end of State street under rather peculiar circumstances. It appears that he enlisted as a substitute, and arrived at the conscript camp but a few days since. For some days past his mother had visited him frequently, and yesterday the young man was missing. With her assistance he had transformed himself into a temporary woman and thus had left the camp. He wore a large sun bonnet, a dress that was considerably too large for him, heavy brogans and no hoops. He had a shawl pinned about the shoulders to the best advantage, but it was all no go. His gait went back on his calico and he lacked style generally. He however couldn't be convinced that he was anything else than a first class female, and he was quite indignant that any one should question his sex. He thought his captors were "taking liberties" when they loosened hooks-and-eyes, and extracted pins, but they proposed to persevere in their study of anatomy until the question of sex was settled. The mother, too, thought she had been situated so as to know a good deal about her "dear Jennie," and she would thank the gentlemen if they would "please step one side." The gentlemen however couldn't see it, and insisted upon taking the doubtful and the genuine to the Provost headquarters. Here the would-be young lady shed a pile of knit shirts, government drawers, and long-tailed blouses that would have thrown an ordinary female into hysterics. The thing was settled, and Mr. Vinton and mother went to jail. His partiality for calico being apparent, he was humored in his strange taste, and was made to walk the entire distance in his dry goods. To-day he goes to Fort Trumbullin the same attire, and it is expected that by the time he arrives there he will be contented to wear breeches for the remainder of his term.

☞ Private advices from the interior of Mississippi indicate a reign of terror there, in consequence of the insubordination of the negroes. The merciless conscription of the rebel government has taken away all the able-bodied white men, young and old, and left the negroes, who begin to feel that they are masters.

☞ Juvenile depravity has developed a new crime in Wheeling, Va. The boys there kill pigs to get the bladders for footballs.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

S. J. COURT, Dover.—The following cases on the criminal Docket were disposed of by the Court on Friday, as we learn from the Dover Enquirer:—

Lorenzo Hanscom, of Great Falls, indicted for murder, pleaded not guilty, and was ordered to recognize in the sum of $10,000 for trial at the next Feb. term. Committed.

Richard R. Pettee, of Dover, indicted for breaking and entering W. H. Earl's clothing store, pleaded nolo contendere, and was sentenced to 3 years in the State Prison.

Charles Gould, of Bangor, Me., indicted for stealing a piece of silk from the store of G. K. Nealley & Co., pleaded not con, and was sentenced to the State Prison for 3 yrs.

George Pickering, of Rochester, for an aggravated assault, pleaded not con, and was fined $200, and sent to County Jail for six months.

Margaret Rush, of Dover, aged 16, for stealing wearing apparel from Catherine Shield, pleaded guilty, and was sent to the House of Reformation for 2 years.

Daniel A. Jones, of Lee, for an aggravated assault, was ordered to recognize for his appearance at next term in the sum of $200.

Enoch W. Gray, of Manchester, for violation of the liquor law, $50 and costs.

Samuel Grant, of Great Falls, for disturbing a public assembly in the Town Hall, (an appeal from the Police Court of Great Falls,) fined $10 and costs.

The only actions on the civil Docket which went to the Jury were the following:

Enoch York vs. William H. Cloutman—verdict for plff.

Andrew Tuttle, vs. James Tuttle, jr., a suit for labor 30 years' ago, which was brought within the statute by a new promise. Verdict for plff.

The jury were out on the latter case until midnight on Saturday, when having returned their verdict, the Court closed the week and their session of five days by an adjournment without day.

☞ The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Boston and Maine Railroad Company, was held in Lawrence on Wednesday, and the old board of directors, with Israel M. Spelman as President, re-elected, nearly unanimously.

☞ During Gen. Kilpatrick's cavalry expedition down the Rappahannock, to destroy the captured gunboats, he and his staff had a very narrow escape. While sitting upon a porch at Fort Conway, just after the order had been given for our batteries to withdraw, the enemy opened from a 32-pounder they had taken from the gunboats. The shot was in direct range for the porch, but fell about fifty feet short.—Just as the party were going around the corner of the building, there came a patter of musketry from the sharpshooters opposite, cutting off the leaves over the heads of the General and his staff; and in a minute more another shell, which went over the house. The departure of the party from that spot was accelerated.

☞ Judge Cadwallader, of the U. S. District Court, in a case before him, has declared the enrollment act unconstitutional.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting Ten Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by any, if not immeasurably superior to any, other which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successfu. practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDM. ND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is note pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be secred in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

Local.

☞ The Portsmouth correspondent of the Ballot states that when Sec. Welles was here, he "visited the Franklin and was of course astonished that such a ship was there, and regretted that she was not launched and available at the time."

☞ The new Eastern R. R. Station house will have a tower on the eastern end in which the bell will be hung, it being considered by the authorities important for alarm purposes to have a bell in that part of the city.

☞ Mr. Wm. F. Fernald, at the Raynes shipyard, is building, for parties in Wellfleet, Mass., a schooner intended for an "Oysterman."

☞ Col. Walter Harriman, of the 11th N. H. Regiment, will address the citizens of Kittery, Me., this (Friday) evening at half past seven o'clock, at Armory Hall.

☞ Sailmaker James R. Childs has been ordered to duty at the Naval Rendezvous, in this city.

U. S. CONVENTION OF UNIVERSALISTS. This body, representing, probably, all the loyal States, will commence its annual session in Portland on Tuesday of next week, to remain in session three days. The public services will be held in New City Hall, and the business meetings will be held in the Senate Chamber. It is expected that Rev. Dr. Chapin and other distinguished clergymen of the order will be present.

☞ Mr. Fulton, of the Baltimore American, in noticing the efforts of certain Morris Island correspondents to depreciate the services of the navy in the attack upon Charleston, says:

In taking possession of Morris Island, the iron-clads were the stay and support of the army, and in holding it while the land siege has progressed, the navy has been almost daily brought into requisition. In this work not less than ten thousand shell has been thrown by Adm. Dahlgren into the enemy's fortifications, and they have been so effectually silenced that the firing of a gun from one of them, up to the latest dates, was regarded as a novelty. Whenever they became troublesome to General Gillmore, he called on the navy by signals for assistance and in a few moments the required aid was at hand. The most thorough understanding and unity of purpose exist between the General and Admiral, which, we have authority for saying, has never been for one moment interrupted. The plan of the siege has been carried out without the slightest distraction of purpose, and not only guns, but shell and powder have been freely furnished from the extensive navy stores to the army, the sentiment of Admiral Dahlgren being that he did not care who used them against the common enemy. On land, also, the navy has operated cordially and successfully with the army, the Naval Battery of four powerful siege guns, under Commander Foxhall A. Parker, manned by four hundred blue jackets, having for 10 days and nights rained shot and shell into Sumter, Gregg and Wagner.

☞ The Rutland, Vt. Herald says John Conlin, son of a poor Irishman of that city, has just been appointed to a cadetship at West Point. It has been his ambition for years to get the appointment. He acquired a very fair education in the free schools in that town, made several efforts to secure the appointment, and enlisted as a volunteer for the purpose of earning a claim to it.

BE CIVIL.—A few days ago a dispatch was received by a gentleman in Boston from the westward, in which his correspondent requested the receiver to instantly inform a merchant in a neighboring city regarding certain affairs which had an important bearing on his pecuniary interest. Without delay the gentleman rode out of town and called on the merchant, who received him in the most unkindly manner, and without allowing him a preliminary word, told him "to come to the subject of his business at once, and then clear out." Naturally irritated at such a reception, the gentleman left the merchant's counting room without exchanging a word with him. The consequence was that the lack of the information which common civility would have furnished the merchant, has since cost him $25,000!—Boston Journal.

☞ A girl named Julia Andrews, employed in the India Rubber Works at Newark, N. J., when about to leave the factory on Friday evening, jestingly said she would have a ride on a shaft that projected about a foot from the floor, and revolved quite slowly, if it broke every bone in her body—She sat upon it, but her hoops caught, and before she could be rescued, every bone in her body was literally broken.

☞ Mosby, it is said, has so far recovered from his wounds, that he will soon be in the field again. He does not seem to be so dead as he was.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Spear's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

"Be thou chaste as ice and as pure as snow, thou shalt not escape using unhealthy compounds in your food," was a true maxim, until Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus came to our relief. Since using it, we feel that there is one article in the way of Saleratus that all can use with healthy results. We have almost cured our dyspepsia, and thanks to the Gold Medal Saleratus for it. Try it, and you will say with us, that perfection has been obtained, and the inventor has immortalized his name forever. Most of the Merchants have it.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, for Sept. 5, contains a remarkable letter, purporting to give Louis Napoleon's plans, formed 26 years ago, for securing a throne in France, and another in Mexico, invading Texas and Louisiana with a small force, and raising an immense negro army by emancipation, to make a great Southern Empire for France, and for himself, out of the old French and Spanish colonies.

Many of his movements lately, look like a part of this plan; and the letter suggests that Pierre Soule has been a party to these plans for some time.

It also suggests that the Emancipation Proclamation of the President of the United States is a good counter movement, and that we ought to occupy Texas at once.

☞ Some of the Copperhead organs are denouncing Gov. Seymour, of New York, because he does not come out in open rebellion or resistance to the higher powers. And on the other hand, many respectable men among his constituents are said to be disgusted with his part of the Dix correspondence.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and those dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper; and for the cure of the disorders it entails, that it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. This it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by nauseous compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used, and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling fish can be prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and convenience in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are prepared to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. The objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without coming out of order.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the surface is one entire piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1863.

THE REBELLION

Gen. Gilmore, in his official report, dated Sept. 7, of the evacuation of Morris Island, says:—

I have the honor to report that Fort Wagner and Battery Gregg are ours. Last night our sappers crowned the counterscarp of Fort Wagner on its sea front, masking all its guns, and an order was given to carry the place by assault at 9 o'clock this forenoon, that being the hour of low tide.—About 10 o'clock last night the enemy commenced evacuating the island, and all but seventy-five of them made their escape from Cummings' Point in small boats. Fort Wagner was garrisoned by 1400 effective men, and Battery Gregg by between 100 and 200. Fort Wagner is a work of the most formidable kind. Its bomb-proof shelter, capable of holding 1800 men, remains intact after the most terrible bombardment to which any work was ever subjected.—We have captured nineteen pieces of artillery and a large supply of excellent ammunition. The city and harbor of Charleston are now completely covered by my guns.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 8th gives a rumor that Fort Sumter, as well as Fort Wagner, has been evacuated by the rebels, and thinks it highly probable, as Sumter was entirely in ruins. It also ventures the statement that "the Yankee troubles have not yet commenced," and the prophecy that "the iron-clads will never get out of the harbor if they once get into it." They talked just as loudly before the destruction of Sumter and the capture of Wagner, and claimed that these were invulnerable.

At Cumberland Gap, on Thursday afternoon, Gen. Frazier, with 2000 men and 14 pieces of artillery, surrendered to Gen. Shackelford, commanding Gen. Burnside's advance. Our forces are now in possession of the Gap. Gen. Burnside's campaign has been a most glorious success. So rapid were his movements that the rebels, taken unawares, fled without destroying property. At Loudon he captured three steamboats, three locomotives and a large number of cars. The army, on its entrance into Knoxville, was received joyously by thousands of people, whose shouts and welcomes mingled with the strains of martial music. Our right wing is now within easy reach of Gen. Rosecrans' left. The rebels regarded our expedition as a raid until the last moment. The march of 250 miles was a hard one, but was conducted in good order. Our trains are all well up with their columns.

We have official news of the capture of Fort Smith, Ark., by Gen. Blunt. The rebels have evacuated Little Rock and removed 40 miles to Fort Washington, which they are fortifying. The Creek Indians have nearly all deserted the rebels. McIntosh has gone toward Red river with only 150 men out of his two regiments. No rebel force will remain in the Indian Territory. Contrabands are flocking to Fort Smith. Gen. Blunt is now seriously ill.

Philadelphia rumors that Charleston was in flames, and also that the city had been surrendered, brought down the price of gold in New York on Friday to 128 1-2.

Guerrillas attempted to burn a bridge on the Orange and Alexandria R. R., five miles from Alexandria, on Thursday night, but they were driven off.

☞ Minister Adams in his latest dispatches says that he is still of the opinion that the rebel rams, against the departure of which the Emancipation Society has recently memorialized the English Government, will not be permitted to sail. It was expected that one would be ready in about a week from the date of his letter. High officials here are less confident of the determination of England to stop these piratical crafts than Minister Adams appears to be.

☞ The Secretary of War has directed that, except in special cases, no prisoner of war shall be enlisted in our army. Whenever a prisoner desires to enlist, a statement, comprising a brief history of his connection with the rebel army, must be forwarded to Department Headquarters. No such enlistments are to be made without the special sanction of the Department Commander, or of the Secretary of War.

☞ Laughing Gas is now used by many dentists in extracting teeth, and it is claimed by them that while under its influence no pain is felt. The patient is expected to grin and bear it.

☞ The walls which enclose the city of Havana, and which have stood since 1740, when they were completed, are being demolished, in order to admit a freer access of air, and a greater number and extent of thoroughfares.

☞ It is estimated that the Rocky Mountain mines will this year yield twenty millions of dollars to the national supply.

☞ It is suggested that after Gen. Gilmore's operations at Charleston, it will be well to substitute the Parrot in place of the Eagle as the National Bird.

☞ Judge Cadwallader, of the U. S. District Court, in a case before him, has declared the enrollment act constitutional.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The inquiry into the case of Paymaster McFarland of Manchester, who was suspected of complicity in the robbery of $40,000 by his clerk, McCarter, has been concluded, and the papers are now in the hands of the Secretary of War.

—— The Mirror states that the highways about Manchester are generally poor; and it mentions rocks which "stick up thick along the carriage path, as large as pumpkins."

—— John C. Tasker and J. K. Upton, Esqs., of Manchester have recent been appointed to first class clerkships in the departments at Washington, at salaries of $1200 a year.

—— It will be remembered that some conscripts came to this city last week with a band. A correspondent of the Mirror states that on their return, while waiting at New Market junction, the band got out their instruments to serenade the proprietor of a public house near by, when they were very politely waited upon, ushered into a private room, and treated to a "glass of Ale." But then the call—"a dollar and a half, gentlemen,"—completely dissipated the romance of the thing.

—— One of the famous characters in Exeter just at present, as we learn on excellent authority, is a learned pig, 5 months old and weighing about 75 lbs. He follows his master about his grounds, through the streets, and up and down stairs like a dog, and stands on his hind legs to receive titbits. But alas; the highest attainment hoped for him is that he will improve so rapidly that next year he will make bacon and sausages,—which is supposed to be the chief end of pigs.

—— On Thursday there were about 550 men at the camp in Concord, as follows: 5th regiment 200; troops from Massachusetts 80; substitutes 240; conscripts 4. On Monday evening four men endeavored to escape. The current story is, that they paid $400 to a sentinel who kept the money, and a guard was set to catch them. One scaled the fence and jumped in to an ambush outside, where he was caught. The other three were arrested before getting over.

FROM JAPAN.—By further accounts, it appears that the Japanese Government had attempted to avoid war with foreigners, having not only paid all the indemnity demanded by England, but also made a satisfactory apology; but this displeased the Damios, and much discontent existed throughout the country. A Damio who owns territory along the Strait of Simowski, in the province of Nagoti, recklessly fired from his forts on ships of all nationalities that passed. He had also two steamers fitted up as war vessels, with heavy guns, which aided the forts in the attack. These are the vessels supposed to have been destroyed by the Wyoming.

At the latest dates a large British fleet was at Kanagawa, under Admiral Keper, and was about to sail for the Straits of Simowski. It is further stated that the Prince of Nagoti does not care for reverses, as he has the assurance that nearly all the Damios will soon join him in active hostilities.

☞ A dispatch from Leavenworth, Kansas, states that Mayor Anthony of that city, who was arrested and taken to Gen. Ewing's headquarters, was released after two hours' consultation with the detectives. On Wednesday evening Mayor Anthony addressed a large crowd at Leavenworth for two hours, giving a long statement of the facts of his arrest, and denouncing Ewing in bitter terms. He said Ewing had agreed to revoke his order declaring martial law, and no detectives should hereafter arrest any citizen.

☞ Just before the departure of Gen. Grant for Cairo he was presented with a splendid sword, richly mounted, and of the finest steel. The gift was one that a king might be proud of. On one side was engraved—"From Col. Coolbaugh of the Liberal Army of Mexico." On the other side was simply, grandly, a history written—"Vicksburg."

MR. ADAMS, OUR MINISTER TO ST. JAMES.—A London correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, in alluding to the fact that Mr. Adams, American Minister to England, had left London on a brief holiday visit to Scotland, says:—

It is the first time that he has been absent, for more than a day or two, since he first entered upon his ambassadorial duties, and no man has ever better earned a little recreation than he has. All that Mr. Adams has done since he has been our Representative at this Court may never be known, for there will be those who will imagine it to be their interest to conceal, or disparage, as much as possible, the extent and character of his labors, but their influence will be felt upon the country itself, and he will, at least, enjoy the proud satisfaction of knowing that he has worthily maintained the high reputation of his distinguished ancestors. His absence will not, I understand, be of long duration, but his very absence is expressive.

☞ A dispatch from Portland gives an account of the seizure of a fishing schooner in the harbor on Wednesday night by a man who reported himself as Capt. Semmes,—probably a drunken freak.

MARRIAGES.

In New York city, at the church of Mt. Zion, Madison Avenue, on Thursday evening, Sept. 10, by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Southgate, FRANK R. SHERWIN, of the firm of Sherwin, Nowell & Pratt, Milwaukee, Wis., to Miss LIZZIE FRENCH, of New York.

DEATHS.

In this city, Sept. 11, Mr. ENOCH BARTLETT, aged 68 years and three months. Funeral this (Saturday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, at his late residence, No. 15 South street.

In this city, Sept. 10, Miss ADDA A. TUCKER, aged 14 years, only daughter of Alfred and Alvira Tucker.

In Exeter, 8th inst., Mr. JOHN HARTNETT, aged 56 years.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 30th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the calendar attachment; and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.
